Lookingglass Students Graduated From Roseburg

By HAZEL S. MARSH
 Five Lookingglass young folk graduated from the Roseburg High School Tuesday. They represent the last group to attend Roseburg from this area. All students from this district will now be attending Douglas High.

Lorna Vance, Katherine Storms, David Moser, Ned Nay and Charles Meredith were awarded diplomas at the exercises.

Weekend Guests
 Mrs. Leona Buckle had as guests over the weekend her granddaughter, Iverna, and husband, Werner Reimers of Portland. The latter is a student at the Pacific Bible College. The young couple took Mrs. Buckle to Glide Sunday where they visited with Mrs. Buckle's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Fortune and family.

Mrs. J. C. Williams accompanied the county Home Extension committee to Corvallis to meet with the state group at Oregon State College. Plans were made for the ensuing year's program for the units over the state.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lyon and daughter, Eileen of Anchor were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stingley and the former's mother, Mrs. Edith Ackert.

The community was saddened this week by news of the death of Cliff Harner April 24 at his home in Duarte, Calif. The Harners sold their ranch in Lookingglass in November, 1930, and moved to California after having been residents of the valley for a number of years. Harner was engaged in cement and construction work in and around Roseburg and had many friends in this area. Mrs. Harner is living in their home at 2324 Broderick Ave., Duarte, Calif. One son, George, and a daughter live in southern California. One son Ivan, is in England. Three grandchildren also are living in California.

New Daughter
 Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Topping have a new daughter by adoption, Donna Lee, born May 3.

Al Stingley and Lloyd Wagler of Winston drove to Portland Monday to purchase furniture for their respective places of business. Stingley, a resident of Lookingglass, has recently opened a new and used furniture store in Riddle, known as "Al's Place." Wagler operates "Wag's" Furniture store in Winston.

Mrs. Edith Ackert accompanied her son-in-law, Albert Stingley, to Anchor Thursday to attend the closing exercises of the school there which Mrs. Stingley has taught the past year. The Stingleys and Mrs.

Ackert were dinner guests Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Conley. Later all attended the school program which was given under the direction of Mrs. Stingley. The one-room school includes all grades including the sixth and is a part of the Canyonville School district.

Mrs. Stingley concluded her year's work with the program Thursday evening in which all of the children participated. With the cooperation of the PTA a beautiful setting was arranged for the pageants given by the children featuring Oregon Trail incidents.

Boneless Chuck Roasts, Chickens Featured Meats
 By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 Boneless chuck pot roast and frying chickens were among the featured meats in the nation's food stores last weekend.

Prime ribs, lamb chops, smoked picnics and steaks also were offered as advertised specials.

Legs of lamb were more costly last weekend in many areas. One big chain was boosting prices from four to eight cents a pound over a week ago.

Egg prices may be up in your market. Increases of one to four cents a dozen are planned by a leading chain. Butter was the same as a week ago nearly everywhere. Supplies of milk and cheese are plentiful.

Lettuce continued in abundant supply at low prices. Produce specialists say that cucumbers and beans have come down in price and share shoppers' attention. Also listed as outstanding buys were beets (mostly bunched with tops), squash and nearly vegetable such as ascarole, endives, radishes, green onions, spinach and parsley.

There's a good selection of other worthwhile buys too: Celery, carrots, asparagus, corn, onions, potatoes and peppers.

Limes are getting plentiful again. In the wholesale markets, they are rated with oranges and grapefruit as the best buys in fruit.

Watermelons are down in price, but warmer weather might send them higher. Strawberries are and as reasonably priced.

Wilbur Man Breaks Foot

By ODY MOORHOUS
 Orville Walz received a broken foot Tuesday when a board was dropped on it while he was working at the Wilbur Mill. He is able to be about on crutches. It will be several weeks before he can return to work.

Graduate
 Several Wilbur seniors were graduated from Roseburg High School at commencement exercises Tuesday evening. They include Marjorie Cary, Frances Galloway, Verna Holcomb, Billy Moore, Doyle Gardner, Gary Nuckols, Eldon Hobbs and Dewey Hunt.

A miscellaneous shower was held Thursday at the Ed Russell home in Wilbur for the Bagley family whose home burned May 22. Mrs. Russell and Mrs. R. E. Brown were hostesses. Many serviceable gifts were presented to the family.

School Dinner
 The Wilbur Community Club held its annual "end-of-school" potluck dinner at the Wilbur School, Friday evening. A short business meeting followed.

Memorial Day weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Smith were Mrs. Ed Edwards of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Archie Dunsmore and son, Walter, of Redmond; Mr. and Mrs. Wen Trutt of Oakland, and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Petersdorf and children, Alan Jr., Gray and Sherry Lou, of Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thomas and daughter, Stephanie, drove to Coos Bay and other coastal points Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Short and children, Douglas, Sharra and Carlos, spent last weekend visiting relatives in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Brown drove to Grants Pass last Friday to visit their son, Dick Brown, and his family.

Nancy Badden of Cave Junction spent several days visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Oakes.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Spackman have a new granddaughter, Teresa Diane, born last week to Mr. and Mrs. James Spackman of Sutherlin.
