

Bombing Practice Crews Sight Farmers On Target

NAHA, Okinawa (AP) — Bombing practice crews Monday discovered 32 land-hungry farmers sitting in the middle of a bomb target area on Ie Shima.

The case came to light Tuesday when a U. S. Army court sentenced the farmers to three months' hard labor, then suspended the sentence on a condition of good behavior.

The 32 farmers, members of 13 families from the tiny island just west of here where some of the bitterest fighting of World War II took place, had erected banners. Then they sat drinking tea in an exposed position, seeking to force return of the land.

The Air Force said it paid $75,000 five years ago to lease the land. It let the farmers use it at first but later moved them to new houses and lands.

AGED PIUTE DIES
KLAMATH FALLS (AP) — Mrs. Lizzie Godowa, a Piute Indian born when the tribe lived a nomadic existence in the Northwest, died Monday night at her home near Beatty. She was believed to be 102 years old.

Vatican Paper
Accuses Argentine
Press In Strife

VATICAN CITY (AP) — L'Osservatore Romano accused the Argentine press Tuesday of unleashing a violent campaign against Catholics. The Vatican newspaper said the news from Argentina "is constantly more grave."

L'Osservatore said the Argentine press is conducting a violent campaign, "often with blasphemous language," in which Catholics "are accused of treason and bishops are charged with having gravely violated both their duties as Christians and their functions."

L'Osservatore repeated its denial of reports that Catholics had burned an Argentine flag.

The Vatican newspaper said Monday it could absolutely deny this report. It repeated the denial Tuesday, and said it saw proof of the denial in the fact President Juan D. Peron did not refer to any such incident in his radio speech to the people of Argentina Monday night.

L'Osservatore sharply criticized Argentine authorities for arresting Catholics refuted in the Buenos Aires episcopal palace rather than pro-Peron demonstrators who sought to break into the adjacent cathedral.

Churches Oppose
UMT Plan, Says
Lutheran Leader

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Churches are and will remain opposed to universal military training for American youth, Dr. Oscar A. Benson, president of Augustana Lutheran Church, said Tuesday.

"It is paradoxical that, while military strategists stress the need for stockpiles of atomic weapons, some of them also insist we must start universal military training to produce the kind of defense forces that are useless in an atomic attack."

The Minneapolis church leader told the Augustana 96th annual synod that "whatever interests are backing the persistent efforts to militarize America, certainly it is not the Christian churches."

Dr. Benson said that fear of acting as free Americans was today's greatest threat to freedom. He called for a rebirth "of the kind of Americanism that does not hesitate to speak its convictions."

The leader of a 50,000 member church, fifth largest among 16 national Lutheran groups, said America's current interest in religion might be passing or superficial but that it represented a "glorious day of opportunity" for the church to reach people.

CALLS FOR BIDS
PORTLAND (AP) — Portland's school board has called for bids for the city's newest high school, a four million dollar structure for the northeast district.

Bids will be opened July 13. The building is to be planned for 2,400 students.

Now under construction and intended for 1956 opening is a new high school in the southwest district.

Eisenhower Nominates
Gordon Gray For Defense

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower sent to the Senate Tuesday the formal nomination of Gordon Gray, president of the University of North Carolina, to be an assistant secretary of defense.

Gray, a Democrat, will succeed H. Struve Hensel, who resigned. Gray is a former secretary of the Army.

The White House also announced the Army will name Maj. Gen. Robert Nicholas Young as commanding general of the Sixth Army which has headquarters in San Francisco. Young will succeed Lt. Gen. Willard G. Wyman, July 1. Wyman is to become deputy commanding general of the Continental Army Command.

Eisenhower asked the Senate to raise Young to three star rank.

AIRMAN IN U.S.
TRAVIS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Col. Edwin L. Heller, one of four United States airmen released by Red China, arrived here Tuesday with his wife, Judith, from Honolulu.

Heller is scheduled to leave here Wednesday for Washington D.C.
