THREE ROSEBURG young ladies are leaving this week-end for Vancouver, B. C., to sail for Paris, France, to attend the Centennial Conference of the World's Alliance of YMCAs to take place in August. They are Charlene Boyles, 16, who has just completed her junior year at Roseburg High School; Carmen Ford, 17, who was graduated from High School this spring, and Joleen Lyda, 16, who has just completed her sophomore year. Charlene is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Boyles, 1205 Finlay St.; Carmen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ford, 1385 Madrone Ave., and Joleen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lyda, 1105 Rainbow Lane. The three local delegates are being entirely financed by their own family.

CHARLENE BOYLES, in the upper left picture, is shown packing her luggage in preparation for leaving on the three-months trip. Only one large bag and a small bag are allowed each delegate.

CARMEN FORD, upper right, has a new camera to take on the trip with her and she plans to take a large number of pictures. At present she is busy reading everything on photography available, so her pictures will undoubtedly be good.

JOLEEN LYDA, center, the youngest of the group from Roseburg, has been studying maps, charts and schedules ever since she first learned she could make the trip. The delegates will stay in a number of private homes in Europe.
