

Rodeo Parade Winners Snapped

NON-COMMERCIAL winner in Saturday's rodeo parade was this Indian tepee float of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority. The entry took a $75 first prize. Winning second and third prizes of $30 and $10 were Elks Lodge 326 and the Lutheran Laymen League. (Paul Jenkins photo).

COMMERCIAL winner in the parade was Wagon Wheel's old covered wagon. The same prizes were awarded in this division. Second place went to Douglas County State Bank, a six Shetland pony hitch of Elton and Bernard Bever, Sutherlin, which also appeared at the rodeo. Third was Schroeder's Furniture. Square Dance Slated With Timber Days Event

A square dance will be held in the Sutherlin High School gym in connection with the Douglas County Timber Days celebration to be held in August in Sutherlin, reports Dr. Loyd B. Rapp, publicity chairman.
 Seating arrangements have been made for those wishing to watch. A modern dance will also be held, Dr. Rapp said.
 Organizations planning to operate booths may contact Fred Braunerger at the Central Market in Sutherlin, specifying location.
 Only official cars will be allowed on the Timber Days grounds this year, Dr. Rapp said. All other cars must park outside the area.

TWO OREGON PROJECTS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Only two Oregon projects were included in the authorization bill approved recently by the House Armed Services Committee.
 They are the Klamath Falls municipal airport—which is to become an interceptor base—$2,042,000; and the Tongue Point Naval Station, $92,000.
 The bill does not make money available for the projects. It only authorizes them.
