Traffic Death Strikes 3 Sisters After Gayety

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Saturday had been one of the gayest days in years for Mrs. Emma Chapin, 87; Mrs. Florence Gray, 85, and Mrs. Josephine Gresham, 75, widowed sisters.

They motored down to Dunn, N.C., for the wedding of Mrs. Chapin's granddaughter to an air force lieutenant.

Saturday they were only a few minutes away from home on the return trip when their car and a tractor-trailer collided and all three were killed.

P. O. WORKERS ELECT

Amacher Named To Legislative Fish Committee

SALEM (AP) — Names of members of four committees which are to report to the 1957 Legislature have been released by Elmo Smith, Senate president, and Ed Geary, House speaker.

The committees and their members:

To work with California, Washington, British Columbia and Alaska in preparing a treaty to regulate offshore fishing—Sen. Robert D. Holmes, Gearhart; and Reps. John P. Amacher, Winchester, and Harry C. Elliott, Tillamook.

To study sex crime—Sens. Carl Francis, Dayton, and Gene L. Brown, Grants Pass; and Reps. William Gallagher, Portland, and Harvey H. De Armond, Bend.

To study education needs—Sens. S. Eugene Allen, Portland, and Lowell Steen, Milton-Frewater; and Reps. Charles A. Tom, Rufus; Herman H. Chindgren, Molalla, and Joe Rogers, Independence.

To investigate public welfare—Sens. Donald Husband, Eugene, and Francis W. Ziegler, Corvallis; and Reps. Leon S. Davis, Hillsboro; Jean L. Lewis, Portland, and Gust Anderson, Portland.

Angler's Hike Results In Fatal Heart Attack

EUGENE (AP) — An angler walked out of the high Cascades Sunday night to tell of the death of a fishing companion, apparently from a heart ailment.

P. J. Giesen hiked the nine miles from the Mink Lake basin to the nearest road to notify police that Calvin Osborne, 30, Rogue River, had died Sunday evening.

A pack train went into the area, just west of the Cascade Range summit, about 30 miles southwest of Bend, to get the body Monday.

Giesen said Osborne was in a party of eight anglers who had hiked over snow-covered trails to reach the lake basin.

Churchill's Pet Lion Destroyed Saturday

LONDON (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill's pet African lion, Rota, was destroyed Saturday to save him from suffering further the infirmities of old age.

Sir Winston gave his permission reluctantly — and only after being assured that the lion was in great pain and could not live much longer anyway.

Rota was 17 — old as lions go — and had been seriously ill for months.

Churchill had a deep affection for the lion who was presented to him in 1943 as a symbol of his own lion-hearted efforts during World War II.

House Endorses Fund Restoration For Reclamation

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House endorsed President Eisenhower's budget plans for reclamation construction and investigation last week, wiping out $33,634,558 in cuts made by its Appropriations Committee.

Giving the committee's usually honored recommendations the harshest treatment in years, the House approved exactly what Eisenhower asked for construction, $146,040,000. The committee had recommended $112,220,000.

At the same time, in approving an omnibus money bill for various types of public works, it boosted funds for reclamation project surveys from the committee-suggested $3,669,442 to $5,104,000. Again, this was what the President asked.

In the case of the construction program, the House increased allocations for all individual projects to the budget requests, granting the full administration proposals even to those projects for which funds had been deleted by the committee.

The latter included $320,000 for the Michaud Flats project in Idaho and $631,000 for the Foster Creek unit of the Chief Joseph project in Washington.

The increase in the investigation funds would permit studies of the Upper Lost River Division of the Klamath project in Oregon and California, and the Upper Snake River, Sand Point and Johnny Counts projects in Idaho.

Money for these project studies had been specifically denied by the appropriations committee.

Pansy The Pig To Move In With Top Farmer

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — Pansy the pig is about to move in with the nation's best known farmer—President Eisenhower.

Of course, it's not going to be the White House, but then the President and the pig's present owner, 11-year-old Emmy Lou Murphy, agree that the city is no place to raise a pig.

Emmy Lou and her 16-year-old brother George wrote to the President asking him if he wouldn't take the six-week-old pig and raise her on his farm in Gettysburg, Pa.

Recently, they received a letter from the President saying he would be glad to take the young porker, that he would treat her good and that if he remembered he's send Emmy Lou a picture of Pansy when she came of age.

The President agreed that the city was no place to raise a pig.

Rodeo Weekend Gives Police Little Trouble

Roseburg got through rodeo weekend with a minimum of police effort, Police Chief Stan Olson said today.

Some years in the past, officers have been kept busy with traffic during rodeo hours and with preserving the peace later. This year, though, traffic flowed smoothly and only a couple of drunks wound up in the municipal bastille, Olson said.

One fight broke out Saturday night in The Shalimar Room, 122 S. Stephens St. However, police were unable to locate all parties involved and no arrests were made.
