

Six National Champions Entered In Track Meet

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—Six National Collegiate champions in seven events head a star-studded field in Tuesday night's 14th renewal of the Pacific Coast - Big Ten inter-conference track meet. The six won their crowns last weekend in the NCAA test at Los Angeles, with sprinter Jim Golliday of Northwestern notching twin triumphs in both dashes.

Despite the presence of Golliday, the West Coast Stars were favored heavily to rack up their ninth triumph in the series, primarily because of overwhelming strength in the field events and an apparent wealth of middle distance stars.

Ernie Shelton and Des Koch, teammates on this year's Southern California powerhouse, were considered virtual shoo-ins in the high jump and discus. Shelton went 6 feet 11 1/4 inches in his pot event at Los Angeles, while Koch flipped the discus 176 feet 3/4 inch for his victory.

Fleck Won Money In 12 Tournaments

DAVENPORT, Iowa (AP)—Jack Fleck, virtually unknown outside his native Iowa until last week, stood beside the greats of golf today.

But his fiery rise to claim the U.S. Open golf championship last week is not as surprising as it first appears.

The 32-year-old professional never won a major tournament until Sunday. But until this past year he limited himself to just the winter circuit.

He made the full winter-summer swing this year, he was a money winner in 12 of the 15 important tournaments he entered and averaged 71.21 strokes per round.

Fleck was 17 when he came in golf and his career was cut short by 3 1/2 years navy service during World War II. He served his apprenticeship in the club professionals' category.

"I'm from five to 10 thousand rounds behind the others," he says.

It was a new Jack Fleck who won the Open at San Francisco's Olympic Club in a stirring playoff with his idol, Ben Hogan. Fleck and Hogan could be golfing brothers.

Their cool, calculating mannerisms are similar, Jack admits he modeled some of his game after Ben's.

"I have idolized Ben Hogan ever since my caddie days," he says.

Loves Golf

"He loves golf and the competition and I love golf and the competition," Fleck and his pretty wife, Lynn, made a decision shortly after their marriage in 1950 that Jack would give the professional tour a try to see if he could make it.

"It cost us $3 for every $1 Jack had won that season," Lynn confided as late as 1953.

"I didn't think he would make it," she adds. "But he learned to control his 'temperment' and 'I've every confidence in him now.'"

That confidence is shared by other Iowans who know him.

A Hunch

Joe Brown, pro at the Des Moines Golf and Country Club who started Fleck out as a $5 a week club cleaner in 1939, says:

"I had a hunch he'd win the Open. I thought so because in the past few meets Jack has had a nice closing round."

Brown said Fleck "didn't know anything about golf" when he started. "But he was eager to learn."

"I feel I still got a lot to learn in golf," says the man who owns the country's top golf prize.

Portlander Leads Oregon Qualifiers

PORTLAND (AP)—Roy Atkins of Portland shaved three strokes off par Monday to lead Oregon qualifiers for the National Public Links golf tournament scheduled June 11 at Indianapolis.

Atkins toured the par-72 Rose City golf course in 70 on the first 18 and came back with a 2-under par 71 on the second 18.

The other two qualifying spots went to Bob Parry, 72-71-14, and Gene Maidment, 70-73-1143, both of Portland.

4,000 FIGHTERS

NEW YORK (AP)—The "Ring Record Book and Boxing Encyclopedia" contains the records of almost 4,000 fighters, says its editor, Nat Fleischer. The first edition of the book gives seating capacities of indoor and outdoor arenas, biographical sketches of outstanding fighters, birthplaces of champions, ring fatalities and other information.

The second section is devoted to records of world and American champions. The book contains 860 pages. It was turned out by a staff of five after checking boxing reports from all over the world.

Eugene Takes Over Lead In NWL By Belting Wenatchee Chiefs, 10-1

Spokane	18	34	.346	13 1/2

The Eugene Emeralds fashioned an eight run fifth inning to topple Wenatchee. Both teams went scoreless until the fifth when Eugene cashed in on the sudden wildness of Bob Roberts for eight tallies on a single, four walks, a hit batsman, an error and Ron Jackson's two-run double.

Manager Edo Vanni, who only last week said he was "retiring from the playing field forever," inserted himself in the lineup and whacked out a double that gave Wenatchee its solo run in the seventh.

A crowd of 3,037, largest of the season, watched.

Bill Shields homered in the top of the ninth at Spokane to pace Salem to its victory over the Indians. Salem's Red Whitson and Spokane's Phil Page hooked up in a tight pitching duel until Shields pounded his tie-breaking homer. The Senators went on to score three more runs after that.

The Wenatchee-Eugene and Spokane-Salem series continues Tuesday night while Yakima opens a four-game stand at Tri-City. Lewiston is idle until Friday.

Monday's Results

The Eugene Emeralds were the kingpins of Northwest League baseball Tuesday and for the first time the Wenatchee Chiefs found themselves playing second fiddle.

The Emeralds, who moved into contention only a week ago after a slow start, installed themselves in the throne room Monday night after a 10-2 belting of the Chiefs.

It was the seventh loss in nine starts for the Chiefs, who dominated the league through most of the season and less than a month ago held a 6 1/2-game bulge over the field.

Salem also advanced in the standings. The Senators slugged Spokane 6-2 in the league's other scheduled game and moved to within four percentage points of the Chiefs and only a half game out of first place.

The night's activities bunched the leaders like this:

Eugene	000 080 02-10 7 1
Wenatchee	000 000 100-1 5 4
Storti and Hayes; Roberts and Duretto.

NEW ANGLE—If you're ever driving along East Shoreway, Cleveland, Ohio, don't be surprised to see Robert Miller—or anyone else—fishing in the middle of the road. The angling there is good because the highway bridges an electric company's intake from Lake Erie. All you have to do is drop a line through a slit in the concrete and wait for a bite. Opening is wide enough to take fish up to two pounds.

Manager Leo Durocher may have diagnosed the whole National League pennant race when he explained why he benched Willie Mays, the darling of the New York Giants a year ago.

"Confused," is the way Leo pegged Willie's trouble. And if that doesn't describe the way the National League is behaving, it'll do until something better comes along.

This was supposed to be one of those "dream" races, with everybody getting into the act. Trouble is, the Brooklyn Dodgers rocketed away out front and have shown no signs of faltering while the other seven clubs grope around looking for a way out.

It is a pretty dandy race at that, if you exclude the Dodgers—who are 11 games out front with a 46-16 record. The second-place Cubs are just 2 1/2 games up on Milwaukee. The Giants are another two games back and two games ahead of fifth place Cincinnati. Philadelphia and St. Louis are a virtual tie for sixth another game back. Only Pittsburgh, 25 games behind the Dodgers, is solidly in the cellar.

Milwaukee moved up on the Cubs as Gene Conley won his ninth decision last night, 2-1 over Pittsburgh. Cincinnati, meanwhile, made it five straight defeats for the Mays-less Giants 5-3, and St. Louis topped Philadelphia 4-1 with Rookie Luis Arroyo winning his eighth.

Brooklyn and the Cubs were tied. So was the entire American League.

The Braves made it four straight behind Conley's four-hitter, although getting just four hits themselves off loser Vern Law and Bob Purkey. Billy Bruton singled and stole second to score on Johnny Logan's double in the fourth inning, then got all the way to third on an error in the sixth to score the other run on Logan's sacrifice fly.

Fox Closing In On AL Leaders

NEW YORK (AP)—Nellie Fox of the Chicago White Sox, who has hit safely in his last 16 games, boosted his average 28 points during the week to move into third place in the American League batting race behind Detroit's Al Kaline and Harvey Kuenn.

The Sox' second baseman, in advancing from seventh place, went 16-for-31 and is hitting .329. Kaline continues to set the pace with a .379 average and Kuenn is runner-up at .345.

Kaline lost four points in going 3-for-23, while Kuenn gained two points with seven hits in 19 at bats. Philadelphia's Richie Ashburn, boasting a 12-game hitting streak, maintains his National League batting supremacy with a .350 mark. The speedy outfielder collected 11 hits in 32 tries, but lost one point.

Don Mueller of the New York Giants climbed into second place with 238 by raising his average 16 points. Mueller, seventh a week ago, had 14 hits in 32 at bats. Pittsburgh's Dale Long remains third at .285.

Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees is the American League pace-setter in home runs with 16 and shares the runs batted in lead with Boston's Jackie Jensen. Each has 47.
