TOASTMISTRESSES HAVE FINE MEETING AT MCALLISTER HOME

Mrs. Zilpha McAllister graciously entertained the Winston-Dillard Toastmistress Club at its regular meeting Wednesday evening at her home in Dillard. The club met on the outdoor patio at the McAllister home overlooking the beautiful grounds.

Election of officers for the forthcoming six months term was held with the following officers elected: President, Mrs. Fran Holtean; vice president, Mrs. Ruby Peterson; secretary, Mrs. Mary Bird; treasurer, Mrs. Edna Ebner; and club representative, Mrs. Daisy Fox. Preceding the enjoyable affair, the invocation was given by the president, Mrs. Velma Albertus.

The topics for the evening were cleverly presented when Mrs. Edna Ebner passed a basket of various items for each member to choose as the subject of one minute impromptu speeches. Mrs. Margaret McCord was toastmistress and introduced the evening speakers in a well planned manner. A new member, Mr. Irene Lockwood, told the story of her life in an entertaining icebreaker speech. Critic for Mrs. Lockwood was Mrs. Jo Lesher. Mrs. Virginia Laurance's lively speech, "Tucson, Pro and Con" was criticized by Mrs. Fran Holtean. A round table discussion was led by Mrs. Mary Bird with all members expressing their opinion on the subject, "Are There Delinquent Children or Delinquent Parents?"

Mrs. Mona Hult and Mrs. Helen Buell were elected to represent the local club at the International Toastmistress convention in July at San Francisco. General evaluator for the recent meeting was Mrs. Vivian Laurence.

Refreshments were served later in the evening to club members and two out of town guests, Mrs. Mary Wilson of Santa Ana, Calif., and Mrs. Claire Laurance of Salem, by the hostess, Mrs. McAllister.

The next meeting will be Wednesday at Douglas High School with installation of new officers. Refreshments will be served by the outgoing club officers.

MRS. WILLIAMS HAS 93rd BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION SUNDAY

Mrs. Emma Williams quietly celebrated her 93rd birthday Sunday with her family at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. D. (Mary) Love, in Garden Valley. Two of her other daughters are also present, Mrs. Harvey (Katherine) Ewens and Mrs. S. L. (Maude) DeLapp. A great-grandson, Ronnie Redburn, of Coos Bay, attended. Other members were W. D. Love and Harvey Ewens.

Mrs. Williams received numerous birthday cards and well wishes from her many friends.

Mrs. Williams received a long distance call from her daughter, Mrs. P. H. (Margaret) Gulbranson of Los Angeles, Calif., and her two sons S. C. and Joe Williams of Claresholme, Alberta, Canada.

MRS. EVANS HOSTS GARDEN CLUB THURSDAY

The North Umpqua Garden Club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. James S. Evans on Lone Rock road. Mrs. Francis De Haan was welcomed back after spending the past year in Holland. Mrs. J. A.
