

Judge East To Renew Old Acquaintance On Job

PORTLAND — An old relationship will be renewed after Judge William East is sworn in as Federal District Judge in Portland Friday.

One of the speakers at the ceremony will be C. E. Luckey, U. S. attorney for Oregon. The men had a similar relationship in Eugene when East was a state circuit judge for Lane County and Luckey was district attorney.

Judge East, 47, will take the position formerly held by Judge James Alger Fee, 66, who was promoted to the Circuit Court of Appeals at San Francisco. Judge Fee will be on the bench when Judge East takes his oath. He will join Chief Judge Claude McColloch and Judge Gus J. Solomon on the federal district bench.

New officers are: Warden Gerald Freeman of Riddle, Conductor Harvey Ellsworth of Glendale and Treasurer Ernest Zimmerman of Riddle.

Although the most familiar form of social structure is patrilineal—you reckon your decent from your father and he from his father etc.—many societies have a matrilineal, decent, reckoned through the female line.

IN EXCELLENT HANDS—An 80-pound safe containing the United Nations Charter is carried from a TWA plane upon its arrival at San Francisco International Airport for the 10th anniversary session of the UN in San Francisco. Safeguarding the 173-page international document are, left to right: Police officer Joseph Goyton, David Vaughn, director of UN general services, Virgil de Angelis, UN assistant under-secretary, Andrew Cordier, assistant to UN Secy. Gen. Dag Hammarskjold, Robert Gros, chairman UN San Francisco committee, and police officer William Moore.

SOMETHING FOR THE FAMILY—This light plane with plastic wings will soon go on the market in Italy for about $1300. Shown in Naples, the small craft weighs just over 500 pounds, reaches 90 m.p.h. and can land in a space less than 150 feet long. Called the "M.D.B." after its inventor, Mario De Bernardi, it's powered by a 35-horsepower motor and has a rotor for vertical flight.

Model Must Pay Supreme Penalty

LONDON — An attractive blond model was sentenced Tuesday to the gallows for killing one of her two admitted lovers when he tried to leave her.

Mrs. Ruth Ellis, divorced mother of two children, swayed on her feet as Judge Sir Cecil Havers pronounced the death sentence.

Before being led out of the courtroom, she recovered her composure and smiled.

The 28-year-old model admitted shooting David Blakely, 25, a racing motorist, but based her defense on a plea of manslaughter claiming she was provoked by jealousy into the killing outside a London tavern.

"It is obvious when I shot him I intended to kill him," she said.

Even though she paid the rent of their apartment, and gave Blakely clothes and money, she testified, he still went with other women.
