

Sox Continue Hot; Williams Homers Again

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
If Ted Williams doesn't call it quits for good this season, the Boston Red Sox management is going to be in one heckuva pickle—how can you give a raise to a guy already making a hundred grand?

A player in that salary bracket (which means Williams, although he's getting a scaled-down check because of his late start) doesn't figure to get a bonus no matter what he does. But he is worth $100,000 to the Red Sox and baseball, at the gate alone, just by putting on a uniform.

Take last night. The Red Sox made it 12 out of 14 by beating the fourth-place Detroit Tigers 5-4. It was Williams' home run with two on in the eighth that did it. When Williams came back May 28, Boston was 17-24 for the season. They won seven of the next 13 with Williams, still getting into shape, appearing only infrequently.

Then, 10 games ago, Williams took over left field as a regular. Boston has won 8 of the 10, pulling up to .500 at 32-32. Ted has hammered seven home runs, driven in 14 and batted .429 for the 10 games.

The homer last night was on a 3-0 pitch by Ned Garver. Elmer Kinder, another old pro like Williams, came on in relief in the ninth to preserve Tom Hurd's victory.

Mantle Blast
In New York's Yankee Stadium Mickey Mantle blasted a 486-foot homer as the Yankees beat Kansas City 6-2. It was one of the longest balls ever belted in the stadium.

The second-place Chicago White Sox beat Washington 6-1 and third-place Cleveland trimmed Baltimore 3-1.

In the National, Brooklyn boosted its lead to 12 games over Chicago as Don Newcombe won his 12th by beating the Cubs 7-2 in 11 innings. Milwaukee moved to

Myrtle Creek Hires Coach

Earl Miller, assistant football coach during the last school year, has been boosted to the top grid job at Myrtle Creek High School, reports correspondent Ruth M. Evans.

He will replace Aubrey (Corky) Van Loo, who has resigned to take a coaching job at Oregon Technical Institute at Klamath Falls.

Taking over Miller's old job will be Harold Winstrom, who was hired by the school board this week. He will serve as assistant in both football and basketball.

Gene O'Brien was hired as high school freshman basketball and football coach.

Two other teachers have been hired to fill Myrtle Creek's depleted teacher ranks. One is Winstrom's wife, Carol, and the other is Anna Martin, both of whom will teach in the elementary grades.

blanked Oakland 3-0 and San Francisco beat Los Angeles 5-2.

Seattle got all four of its runs in the first inning on a 3-run circuit clout by Art Schult and Joe Ginsberg's double which scored Bob Balcona.

The Beavers scored in the second, third and fourth frames and Rainier pitcher John Oldham was jerked for Van Fletcher, who blanked the Beavers the rest of the way to get the win.

At San Diego the Padres threatened in the fourth as Ear Rapp slammed a homer—his 20th to lead the league—with Milt Smith aboard.

Sac hurler Chet Johnson was relieved by Ed Cereghino in the fifth after letting one run score. Cereghino held the Padres hitless four and two-thirds innings.

Oakland moundsman Skinny

Brown took his first loss against six victories. He gave only three hits after the first inning.

Walt Judnich slapped a 2-run homer for San Francisco in the first frame and Chuck Stevens' sacrifice fly in the sixth with the sacks loaded drove in with proved to be the winning run.

Eugene and Salem ganged up on Wenatchee Tuesday night and when the last man was out the longtime Northwest Baseball League leader found themselves in third place.

The red-hot Emeralds from Eugene, who took over the top spot with Monday's rout of the Chiefs, made it two straight at Wenatchee 9-6. Salem took over second place, half a game behind the Emeralds, with a 3-hit, 8-9 shutout of Spokane.

Yakima shaded Tri-City, 8-7, and moved into fourth place, half a game ahead of the Bears but 8 1/2 back of the leader. Lewiston was not scheduled.

Eugene crashed through with five runs in the sixth inning to knock Wenatchee out of contention. The rally wiped out a 4-2 deficit and put the game out of reach although the Chiefs picked up two more tallies in the seventh on Phil Marvier's triple.

At Spokane, Salem's Bud Francis tamed the Indians with three hits while his teammates jumped on opposition hurlers for 15. Francis nerly lost his shutout in the ninth when Nap Guley pounded a liner to centerfield. Jack Dunn raced almost to the fence to pull it in one-handed.

Set Record
Tri-City and Yakima set a league record for homers, rapping out seven—five by Yakima. The seventh, by Tri-City's Rich Bergen, tied the game in the ninth. Stan Arthur then walked, stole second and was singled home with the winning run. Danny Holden also homered for Tri-City. Yakima a round-trippers were by Herm Lewis (2), Des Charoubas, Dennis Luby and Dave Hammermeister.
