If Baltimore Manager Paul Richards is keeping a record of the players he has traded away, he can call it "Poor Richard's Diary."

Give a look, Richards, who doubles as general manager for the last-place Orioles after leaving the pennant-contending Chicago White Sox, has palmed off, among others, pitchers Bob Turley and Harry Byrd and outfielder Gene Woodling.

Hits 4-For-4
Woodling, traded to Cleveland last week, already boomeranged. He got 4-for-4 and batted in four runs as the Indians' trounced the Orioles 9-2 yesterday.

Byrd, a 30-year-old right-hander, bundled off to the White Sox nine days ago, gave just four hits and blanked Washington 7-0. It was his second victory in two starts since leaving the Orioles.

And Turley, the young-fireballer who went to New York's Yankees in an 18-player deal that whipped Woodling and Byrd to Baltimore last winter, fanned six, walked just one and shut out Kansas City on three singles 4-0.

The other American League game was won by the Boston Red Sox without any help from Richards. The Bostonians whipped Detroit 7-0 behind Frank Sullivan's two-hitter, moving to within one percentage point of the fourth-place Tigers.

Yanks Still Ahead
Those results—with each winner sweeping a three-game series—left the Yanks out front by two games over the White Sox, who in turn were two ahead of Cleveland, Boston and Detroit are both 10 games behind New York.

In the national, first-place Brooklyn swept three from Chicago by winning 7-4. The Cubs, in second place since May 25, slipped one percentage point behind idle Milwaukee.

St. Louis beat Philadelphia 7-1 in the only other game scheduled, dropping the Phils into sixth place behind idle Cincinnati.

Woodling, who Richards had hoped would give the Orioles a big bat but hit only 221 in 47 games, now is batting .444 for Cleveland in six games. The Indians had 15 hits for the second straight day off Baltimore pitching while Bob Feller tossed a four-hitter for his second victory of the year.

ing streak by whipping Hollywood, 6-5, in a game featured by three home runs, and San Francisco clipped Los Angeles, 4-2.

Portland broke Seattle's winning streak after trailing 2-1 going into the bottom of the ninth. Sam Calderone led off with a double. Wilson singled moving Al Robertson—who replaced Calderone on the baseline—to third. Carl Powis brought Robertson home with a squeeze bunt and Dick Whitman singled Wilson home for the winning run. Portland pitcher Bill Werle scattered six hits.

Other games featured homers. San Diego scored 5 runs including Ed Ricketts' 2-run homer in the first inning and drove out Sacramento starter Marino Pieretti. Dick Sisler with two home runs and Johnny Merson with one were the Padres' other circuit wall-poppers.

Oakland first baseman Jim Marshall tied San Diego's Earl Rapp for the PCL home run lead when he rapped his 20th, good for 2 runs. Rightfielder Joe Brovia hit another 2-run homer for the Oaks. Bob Del Greco hit the long ball for 2 runs for Hollywood.

Two Cities Organize Ladies' Softball Nines
Women's softball teams in Sutherlin and Myrtle Creek have been organized, and the two squads have come to an agreement on the date of a game.

Ralph Dyson, director of summer recreation in Sutherlin, said the game will be played there at 6 p.m. next Wednesday. Coaching the Myrtle Creek squad will be Bob Abrahamson.

The Sutherlin ladies have had three practices and will have two more on Monday and Tuesday evenings. Dyson said more women who are interested in participating are welcome to turn out for practice.

Riddle Seeks Repeat In Evergreen League

EVERGREEN LEAGUE

	W	L	Pct.
Roseburg	2	1	.667
Myrtle Creek	2	1	.667
Riddle	1	2	.333
Cottage Grove	1	2	.333

Riddle's entry in the Evergreen League will seek to repeat last week's win over the Roseburg Eagles Sunday in Roseburg.

Riddle, until last week the doormat of the league, caught Roseburg, until then undefeated, by surprise, rapping out 12 base blows which brought runs stringing across the plate in an 8-6 win.

That left the league in two categories. Roseburg dropped from its perch into a first-place tie with Myrtle Creek and Riddle advanced to a third-place deadlock with Cottage Grove.

Myrtle Creek and Cottage Grove provides the other battle this weekend, with the Myrtle Creek nine going a-visiting to the Lane County city.

RESTING WELL
GALVESTON (AP) — Babe Zaharias, who underwent an operation for correction of a ruptured spinal disc here Wednesday morning, was reported by a hospital attendant as resting well Friday.
