Closing Program Held At Dillard Church

The vacation Bible school of the Dillard Methodist Church closed its two-week session with a "sharing program" Friday evening.

A large group of parents and friends gathered at the Dillard Elementary School for the closing program which was directed by Mrs. William Bromley.

Mrs. W. T. Johnson was the director of the Bible school until the last three days. Mrs. Bromley then took over the leadership.

Each group presented short musical numbers and scripture readings from their Bible school lessons.

The enrollment of the school averaged 125, with 18 teachers and helpers.

The church extends its thanks to the mothers who helped for the two-week session; to C. C. Fosback who drove the bus; to Mrs. E. O. Nickerson who served punch and to the mothers who donated the refreshments for the program Friday evening.

Yoncalla Bible School Has Large Attendance

The Yoncalla Assembly of God closed their annual summer vacation Bible school Friday evening with a program.

Mrs. Elmer Bragg, assisted by Mrs. Melvin Revelle, Mrs. I. James, Mrs. B. D. Templeton, Miss Joy Mays, Mrs. C. B. Davis, Mrs. Edna Knight, Mrs. Henry Byron, Mrs. Johnnie Tubbs and Miss Carol Knopp, were teachers for the school.

Mrs. Bob Hodgers had charge of the music, with Mrs. Arthur Anderson, pianist. Mrs. Arlie Templeton, Mrs. Lloyd Emery and Mrs. Walter Davis had charge of the hand work. The Rev. Everett Olp had charge of the intermediate boys work.

The Bible school was conducted by Mrs. LeRoy Hopkins. The theme for the school was "Sailing With Christ."

There were 97 students registered. The average daily attendance was 81. In the beginners class, 23 were enrolled and eight had perfect attendance; primary class, 15 were enrolled with 11 having perfect attendance; juniors, 22 enrolled with 12 perfect attendance; intermediates, 19 enrolled and 8 with perfect attendance. Twelve of the teachers had perfect attendance.

Come one, come all!
Enjoy this great new series with your old friends, plus surprise guests and hit songs.
