

IN A CANDLELIGHT ceremony Thursday, June 16, Rosanna McCarthy, daughter of Mrs. Gladys McCarthy and the late George McCarthy, of Winchester, formerly of Green River, Wyo., became the bride of Ronald Hicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hicks of Roseburg. The beautiful

The church was decorated with mixed summer flowers. The rose-decorated arch over the altar was centered by a white cross. The bride, given in marriage by G. B. Philbrick of Eugene, formerly of Green River, Wyo., and a close friend of the family for many years, was lovely in a floor-length gown of white slipper satin with lace and nylon tulle. She wore a veil of lace and nylon tulle and carried a white Bible topped by a corsage of tiny pink carnations.

The attendants were Mrs. Marcia Huckins, matron of honor, who wore a shrimp-colored ballerina dress and carried a nosegay of white carnations; Mrs. Joyce Clarenbach, a bridesmaid, wore an olive green ballerina dress and carried a nosegay of white carnations; and Lora Hicks, bridesmaid, wore pale pink ballerina dress and carried a nosegay of white carnations. Little Lynn Foss, wearing a pink frock, was flower girl and Larry Dooley was ring bearer.

Mahlon McCarthy, brother of the bride, and Jimmie Farguharson of Guthrie, Okla., a cousin of the bride, were candlelighters. Jim Hicks, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Bill Clarenbach and Mike Harris were ushers.

Frank Moore, vocalist, sang "Because," "I Love You Truly," and "May the Lord Bless You and Keep You." He was accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Arensmeier, organist, who played the traditional wedding marches.

FRIENDSHIP CLUB MEETS AT HAND HOME SATURDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hand entertained the Friendship Club Saturday night at their home west of Oakland. Beautiful bouquets of roses, sweetpeas and pinks made a pretty setting for the occasion. Five hundred was in play during the evening with men's high score being held by Alva Manning, and ladies high by Vera Bacon. Low scores went to Edward Lamoreaux and Mrs. Schosso. Sweepstakes prizes were won by Lawrence Haines and Mrs. Schosso.

After the card play Mr. and Mrs. Hand served a midnight potluck supper to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Haines, Mr. and Mrs. John Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schosso, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lamoreaux and Mr. and Mrs. Alva Manning.

st, who played the traditional wedding marches. The bride's mother wore a aqua lace dress with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress with white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pink carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's mother gave a reception in the church parlors and was assisted by her sisters: Mrs. Mary Swanson of Clinton, Okla.; Mrs. Pauline Farguharson of Guthrie, Okla.; Mrs. Ocie Joy of Green River, Wyo.; and Mrs. Harold Keys of Seattle. The guest book was in charge of Mrs. Mary Anna Gordon of Rock Springs, Wyo., a cousin of the bride. Other out-of-town guests

MRS. DECKER HOSTS PINOCCHIO CLUB AT DESSERT-LUNCHEON

Beautiful arrangements of summer flowers were used by Mrs. Mary Decker Thursday, when she entertained her pinocchio club at a one o'clock dessert-luncheon at her home in Sutherlin. Those enjoying the luncheon with Mrs. Decker were Gladys Cork, Lou Simpson, Genevieve Hyde, Grace Helvey, Dee Harevy, Dorothy Rose and Selma Erickson.

For the afternoon's pinocchio play Mrs. Erickson held high score; Mrs. Simpson, low score; and Mrs. Hyde, the traveling goose. The next meeting will be Thursday, July 14, at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Rose.

were Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Philbrick of Eugene, Harold Keys of Seattle and Jimmy Farguharson of Guthrie, Okla.

Following a honeymoon north and to coastal points, Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are now at home to their friends at Winchester. During the summer the bridegroom is working for Martin Box Co. He will attend Oregon State College this fall and the bride will enroll for her senior year at Corvallis High School.

MR. AND MRS. JACK KILMER, above, were married June 18 at the Azalea Grange Hall. The bride, Marilyn VanDuine of Glendale, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. VanDuine of Glendale, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Kilmer. The ceremony was conducted by the Jehovah's Witness pastor, Oral R. Moore, of Myrtle Creek. (Picture by Fox Studio).

The bride was attended by Mrs. Barbara Cooper, matron of honor. The bridegroom was attended by Wayne Bert as best man. She was given in marriage by her father. The bride was dressed in a ballerina-length wedding gown of white lace and net over satin. She wore a three-quarter length veil topped by a white lace coronet embroidered by seed pearls. She carried a wedding bouquet of pink tea roses and white carnations tied with streamers of pink and white ribbons.

The matron of honor wore a turquoise blue lace formal and a corsage of white carnations tied with white and silver. The mother of the bride wore a green suit dress and a white carnation corsage. The mother of the bridegroom wore a black dress with a white carnation corsage.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Mildred Sether, who played the violin. The hall was beautifully decorated with baskets and vases of pink roses and snapdragons. Following the wedding, a reception was held and refreshments were served in the grange dining room. The couple cut the beautiful three-tiered bride's cake, which was beautifully frosted with loops of white, pale pink blossoms and green leaves. It was topped by a bride and bridegroom and wedding bell.

A beautifully decorated sheet cake was also served. Vases of roses added a festive appearance to the table, which was spread with a silver-printed table cloth.

The cake was served by Mrs. Francis Burchette, assisted by Mrs. Robert Aggson. Mrs. Shirley Frick poured punch, and Mrs. Benjie Kynstra of Elkton poured the coffee. Tables in the reception room were covered with the many gifts.

At a very impressive candlelight ceremony, Mrs. Cora Pirtle, of Eugene, Federation President of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs of the State of Oregon, installed the new officers of the Roseburg Business and Professional Women's Club.

Installed as president to serve for the year 1955-56 was Mrs. Priscilla Clarenbach; first vice president, Mrs. Ione Schaeffer, recording secretary, Mrs. Opal Perkins; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Stella Spencer; treasurer, Mrs. Edyth Gilmour; sargent-at-arms, Mrs. Laura Iles.

Following the installation Mrs. Pirtle spoke on "The Objectives of Business and Professional Women's Clubs." She said that members must know that women need four things to grow and become better workers on the job. "A woman needs security, love, friendship and the knowledge of being needed." The goals of the local clubs is to help individual members to become better workers and better citizens so that we can put our "weight on main street." In this every member benefits directly and through her job.
