FATHER'S DAY OBSERVED AT RIVERSDALE GRANGE

Riversdale Grange Hall was decorated with beautifully arranged late spring flowers and roses for its regular meeting. The HEC presented a Father's Day program with Mrs. Walter Ulrich acting as mistress of ceremonies.

The father with the most children, the oldest father and the youngest father each received a humorous gift and a rose boutonniere. Adam Schneider was both the oldest father and the father with the most children, and Charles Kinyon was the youngest father. The first father to arrive chose a song for the group to sing. Readings given by Anita Stark and Anna Truett followed the group singing. A reading was given by Essie Olson. "The Light-house Keeper's Daughter," a pantomime, was presented with Mrs. Walter Ulrich as reader. The characters were Mrs. Frank Jacobson, Mrs. Emmitt Walters, Mrs. Kenneth Kessel, Mrs. Jim Myers and Mrs. Charles Kinyon. A novelty cowboy act followed.

Agriculture chairman, Hilda Walters, reminded those present that it is now time to spray for the cherry fruit fly. She also spoke on sheepmen making coats for their sheep to wear to keep the wool free from dirt.

Youth chairman, Essie Olson, announced the Riversdale Youth Group's plans for a picnic at Sipleton Park July 29. She invited grange young people of all granges. The older grange members are to be special guests of the youth at this picnic. It is to be a potluck affair.

The shirt that won third place at the Pomona Grange sewing contest was placed on display. The unusually fine workmanship was done by Lucy Osterman.

Nelda Norris, master, gave a report on the activities of the state grange. Other members who attended the state meeting, also reported on their experiences and interesting events that took place.

Pie and ice cream were served by the grange women after the meeting.

SUTHERLIN WOMEN TO ENTER FLOAT

Associated Business Women's Club of Sutherland met Monday evening at the IOOF Hall with the president, Mrs. Jimmy Jackson, presiding.

A discussion was held on the Timber Days program. It was decided to have a float, and the following were appointed as a committee. Mrs. Wesley Thompson, Mrs. Frank McCord and Mrs. Vern Holgate. A float will also be entered in the parade and a committee was appointed to see to the decorating. Mrs. Marvin Steinbach, Mrs. Robert Williams, Miss Luella Plueard, Mrs. Henry Halvorsen Sr., Mrs. Jimmy Jackson, Mrs. Ralph Anderson, Mrs. John Buchanan and Mrs. O. L. Torrey.

A social hour was enjoyed after the business meeting, and refreshments were served to the ten members present by the hostesses, Mrs. Halvorsen Sr. and Mrs. Cora Allen.

SUTHERLIN REBEKAHS APPOINT COMMITTEES

Sutherland Rebekah Lodge met Thursday evening with the noble grand and vice grand, Juanita Atterbury and Ethel Wattman, presiding.

Meredith Pond reported on the Timber Days and stated that Judy Grabow would be the Sutherland queen candidate.

Helen Wheeler volunteered to take charge of the Rebekah booth for the Timber Days celebration, and Belle Cook and Bertha Barge will have charge of the grab barrel. It was decided to enter a float in the parade with the Odd Fellows, and the following committee was appointed. Ethel Wattman, Emma Vandenberg and Margaret Mason. Magale Francis was given the honors and was presented her district deputy commission by Emma Vandenberg. The following were appointed as a committee for the reception for Mary Barker, warden of the Rebekah Assembly, as follows: Mrs. N. A. Stearns, Mrs. Maude Church and Mrs. Viva Engel.

Francis Smith was installed as color bearer by the district deputy for the remainder of the year. Mrs. Virginia Williams reported that the Roseburg Rebekah Lodge has invited the Sutherland Lodge to its initiation Tuesday evening, June 28.

After lodge the pinkies were entertained by the greens at a potluck dinner. The tables were decorated with flowers and banners. Mrs. Betty Plueard conducted a quiz contest with Mrs. Maude Church winning first, and Mrs. Jacqueline Bird, second.

An IOOF and Rebekah picnic is planned, and a potluck dinner Sunday.
