LOCAL RESIDENTS ATTEND ROSE CONVENTION

Mrs. Charles Hafer of Dillard and Mrs. W. R. Jamieson of Winston returned home Sunday from Tacoma, Wash., where they attended the 45th annual Tacoma Rose Show and the Pacific Northwest Convention of the American Rose Society, in the Hotel Winston Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Hafer brought back with her a red ribbon for second prize on her rose entry, Garnette, a red floribunda. She also brought home to Billy Friday, son of C. H. Friday, a third prize green ribbon on his entry, Symphonie, a medium pink rose. The two delegates from the Roseburg club also took some Peace Rose entries for president, C. H. Friday, but they reported there were 150 entries of Peace Rose. The sweepstake prize was given for an arrangement of Ma Perkins roses in the show.

MRS. HASLAM HOSTS SUTHERLIN CLUB TUESDAY

Mrs. Eunice Haslam was a gracious hostess to the Do-A-Deed Club at her home south of Sutherlin Tuesday. At noon a delicious potluck dinner was served at a linen covered table centered with an arrangement of summer flowers. Those enjoying the dinner and afternoon with Mrs. Haslam, were Mrs. Elizabeth Gleason, Mrs. Halie Martin, Mrs. Edna Powers, Mrs. Leona Elliott and daughter, Teresa; Mrs. Pat Leisinger and Barbara Jo and Janet Haslam. The afternoon was spent in sewing for the hostess and visiting. The next meeting of the club will be Tuesday, July 19, at the home of Mrs. Leona Elliott.

AUXILIARY IS FORMED IN ROSEBURG JUNE 17

A group of ladies eligible to become members of an auxiliary to Douglas Barracks No. 173, Veterans of World War I, met to form and instituted such an auxiliary at the Legion Hall in Roseburg the evening of June 17. Pro tem officer, Doris Hart, president, assisted by Susan Bowman, secretary; and Margaret Ingling, treasurer; conducted the business meeting. Election of permanent officers for the year was held. Those elected were: Dagmar Johnson, president; Mary Eileen Rapp, senior vice president; Ethel Krewson, junior vice president; Margaret Ingling, treasurer; Ellen Markham, chaplain; Mabel Stephens, conductress; Mildred Roberts, guard; trustees: Clara (Peggy) Tison, three years; Helen Bitner, two years; and Jennie Midland, one year. Appointive officers selected by president Dagmar Johnson, were: Doris Hart, secretary; Carrie Johnson, historian; Clara (Peggy) Tison, patriotic instructor. Mrs. Hazel Walton, national Chief of Staff, of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Veterans of World War I, of the USA from Portland, instituted the auxiliary and installed the officers. She was assisted by Mrs. Eva Endrezie, also from Portland. A flag was presented to the auxiliary by Mr. and Mrs. Nate Freshour in behalf of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kemp, who reside at 1007 Alameda St., Roseburg, in honor of their son, Pvt. Elwyn Kemp, who was killed in France July 21, 1944. The flag was gratefully received and will be highly appreciated. Refreshments were served by the ladies to the members and visitors of the Barracks and Auxiliary. Members who joined the auxiliary are urged to be sure and attend the next meeting to be held July 1 at the Veterans Memorial Hall to personally sign the charter. Anyone else eligible to become members are also urged to attend and join at this meeting so they may sign the charter, which will be closed at the end of the meeting that night.

MRS. LANG IS HONORED

Mrs. Madge Moore and Mrs. Hazel Mayo were hostesses at the Sutherlin Christian Church Thursday evening at a charming pink and blue shower party in honor of Mrs. William (Bill) Lang. The gift table was beautiful in its traditional colors and centered with a large stork. Appropriate games were played with prizes being awarded to Mrs. Jonny Moe, Mrs. Edna Robins, Mrs. Joan Nelson and Mrs. Patsy Enyart. The many lovely gifts were opened by the honored guest, after which the hostesses served refreshments to the guest of honor, Mrs. Lang, and Mesdames Alice Lucas, Edna Robins, Ruth Urban, Shirley Hudson, Jonny Moe, Edna Johnson, Joyce Priest, Joan Nelson, Dorcas Housland, Lura Priest, Della Goin, Hazel Southard, Patsy Enyart, Joan King, Lorene Pennell, Mary Carter and Miss Eva Mary Fickes, Miss Marion Carter, Miss Linda Lang, Nancy Moore and Susan Mayo. Those sending gifts were George Schwesinger, Ada Abene, Gladys Haskell, Nora Killian, Marion Turner, Christie Priest, Mary Inda, Grace MacBath, Henrietta Sellers, Wilma Ballew, Eddie Heidrick, Betty Hopp, Vi Wahl and Debra Enyart.

THETA RHO GIRLS ATTEND ASSEMBLY

Local Theta Rho members who attended the assembly in Klamath Falls recently were Donna Slick, Toni Felkner, Marlene Finell, Bonnie Webber, Sharon Strode, Jo Anne Miller and Mrs. McGhehey. The three day session was opened with a singing by a group from Merrill. The major of Klamath Falls welcomed the group. The Theta Rho state board of control and the secretary of the board were introduced. A group from Union presented the Bible ceremony and presented the president of the assembly with flowers and a gift. She was also presented flowers from Rebecca and IOOF groups. Louise Smith, Nila Bad and Sharon Strode were elected courtesy officers. The 1955 assembly president was introduced. Graham girls presented the exemplification and initiatory work. Mark Barker of Sutherlin gave a talk.

FATHER'S DAY PROGRAM PRESENTED AT MELROSE

Melrose Grange met Tuesday evening with the master, V. S. Woodruff, back in the chair, following his trip to state grange at Klamath Falls. No seating drill was held as there were several officers absent on account of illness. The state grange report was made. The group voted to purchase two fire extinguishers for the hall. A Father's Day program was presented by Kay Simmons, and consisted of games, readings and quizzes. A potluck birthday supper was served at seven o'clock.

CHURCH WOMEN MEET AT OAKLAND

Associated Women of Oakland Community Presbyterian Church met Friday afternoon at the Parish Hall. Devotions were led by Mrs. Homer Noble. Mrs. Edith Dunn presented the Outreach lesson and Mrs. Mary Le the Missionary lesson. A letter was read from Mrs. James Brinks, who was a recent guest of the group. "The Church at Work in the City" was given by Mrs. Lyle Stuve. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Claude Manning and Mrs. Herbert Parker.

BIRTHDAY DINNER IS EVENT AT IDEYLD HOME

Mrs. Jack Lambright entertained Saturday evening at her home in Ideyld Park in honor of her husband's birthday. The Lambright's son, Jackie Lambright and Barbara Breedlove played steel and Spanish guitars to entertain the guests. The hostess served refreshments and the traditional birthday cake to Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Koenig, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pugh, D.
