PAL Club, still holding an outside chance for a clear-cut YMCA Twilight League softball title, refused to be nudged from its perch Thursday night, edging the VA All-stars 4-3 in a key league game.

In a second result Thursday on the VA Field No. 2 diamond, Methodist Church returned to the winning trail with a convincing 16-8 defeat of the fourth-place Post Office. The game was a makeup of one postponed earlier this week.

Both teams held their positions in the standings.

First place Wilbur Lumber, with a 7-0 record, must now win both its remaining games for an undisputed championship. Two setbacks would give the title to PAL Club.

Wilbur meets a strengthened and revitalized BLM team in tonight's game.

In Thursday night's tilt at the VA Field, the winners took a 4-0 lead in the fourth inning and then fought off an All-star rally which produced three markers in the sixth frame.

Michael's homered for the PAL Club in its win.

40 Hardtops Set Action Tonight

About 40 cars, including several out-of-town entries are expected to be seen here Friday night when the hardtops take to the Roseburg Speedway for action.

In addition to the regular event program the racing association has planned a special event for tonight's program which will be held immediately after the A main. There was no information revealed as to the nature of the special event.

Roy Deutschman, driving car 35 and a heavy pointmaker last Friday night, is quickly closing in on leading driver, Louis Donelan. Only six points separate the two men in their struggle for top spot. Tonight's races will help determine this struggle for the time being.

Popular driver Del Graves collected top pointmaking honors in last week's program, which moves him back into the list of top ten drivers after an absence.

Trabert Snares Wimbledon Title

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Power-hitting Tony Trabert of Cincinnati won the coveted Wimbledon men's singles tennis championship Friday by defeating giant-killer Kurt Nielsen of Denmark, 6-3, 7-5, 6-1.

The boyish-looking, 24-year-old American thus won the equivalent of the world's tennis championship without the loss of a set.

Trabert, top-seeded in the tournament, swept through all his earlier matches in straight sets and the best the unseeded Nielsen could do was to take him to one deuce set in the final.

Still it was something of a triumph for the Dane, who went to the Wimbledon finals twice in three years when he wasn't regarded as good enough to deserve a place on the seeded list. Nielsen was runner-up to Vic Seixas of Philadelphia in 1953.

It was the most important title ever won by Trabert, who has been outstanding in Davis Cup competition since 1952 but never before had reached the finals of the Wimbledon, American or Australian singles championships.

For two sets it was a slashing, exciting match that kept a gallery of 17,000, including Princess Margaret and the Duchess of Kent, on edge.

The Dane apparently shot his bolt in the second set and Trabert, stepping up his pace and hitting out with boldness and accuracy, raced through to an easy victory in the third set.

Nearly 350 people sat through the night outside Wimbledon's main entrance to buy tickets for the Trabert-Nielsen match. They started lining up 26 hours before the gates opened at noon.

Before the singles match, Britain's Angela Mortimer and Ann Shilcock took a 6-2, 6-1 decision from Australia's Fay Muller and Jennifer Staley Hoad in a women's doubles semi-final.

The all-American grip on the women's singles title became an all-California stronghold yesterday.

The only non-Californian in the last four—Doris Hart, of Coral Gables, Fla.—was upset by nettle Mrs. Beverly Baker Fleitz, 6-3, 6-0.

Mrs. Fleitz will meet Louise Brough, of Beverly Hills, in tomorrow's women's final. Miss Brough defeated Darlene Hard, Long Beach, Calif., 6-3, 8-6 in their semifinal match.

The men's doubles title match tomorrow will be between two Australian teams with Rosewall and Neale Fraser meeting Lew Hoad and Rex Hartwig.

Rosewall and Fraser eliminated Trabert and Seixas, the American Davis Cup pair, 6-2, 1-6, 6-1, 4-6, 6-3, yesterday.

After much early-season misfortune on a cellarite team, Roseburg pro pitcher Mike Coen has found himself with authority. The big right-hander who was credited with a 1-4 record in our last reports, came up with four straight wins in a period of about seven days.

Coen dropped a game to go 1-5 and then came on with a flurry to reach his present mark of 5-5 with Terre Haute, Ind., of the Three-I League.

First, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Coen, looking on, Mike threw 7 2/3 innings in relief for his second win of the season. Then came two more relief performances, of shorter duration, to up him to 4-5. Since the folks returned home last weekend, Coen has thrown another win in a starting role.

Much of the Terre Haute team has been revamped in recent weeks, reports Mrs. Coen. This is Coen's second year in pro ball, with the Detroit Tiger chain.

Clyde DeWitt, regarded as a top pitching prospect a couple years ago, has evidently discarded the pro sport for good. He broke a contract with the Brooklyn system when he failed to report to Mobile, Ala. He is said to be satisfied throwing for a semi-pro team in Minnesota.

Twilight League softball teams, only now recovering from the shock of realizing that one of the league's team players was almost fatally injured in a game accident, are doing their bit to aid the stricken man.

Dick Buswell, at home from Sacred Heart Hospital since June 22 and on the road to recovery, will be laid up a total of eight months before being able to resume work. He was hurt May 23. Contributions are being made on a team basis by the league's 10 clubs. Buswell played with the Methodist Church team.

August Fight To Be Set For Olson In Portland

PORTLAND (AP)—Middleweight champion Bobo Olson will meet a still-to-be-selected opponent in an outdoor fight here in August, boxing promoter Tammy Meyer announced Thursday.

Meyer said he had come to terms with Sid Flaherty, Olson's manager for a match to be held either at Multnomah Stadium or the Portland Meadows race track. A date will be set later.

Meyer said possible opponents are Ralph (Tiger) Jones or the winner of the Sugar Ray Robinson - Rocky Castellani fight in San Francisco in July.
