Salem 3-9, Spokane 1-11 (2nd game 13 innings)
Yakima 10, Tri-City 3

The scramble of the three Northwest Baseball League leaders to nail down first place before the loop splits the season continued Thursday night with Eugene vaulting over idle Wenatchee into second place.

League directors will meet at Yakima Saturday to vote on dividing the season and to set a date for the split if it is approved. There was no official indication of when the second half would begin but some sources guessed it would be Monday. The league completes half of its schedule with Sunday's doubleheaders.

Eugene swept a doubleheader Thursday night to move within two games of Salem's pace-setting Senators, who divided a pair with Spokane.

The Emeralds hopped Lewiston 5-3 and 5-4 while Salem won 3-1 in seven innings and lost 11-9 in 13. Yakima beat Tri-City 10-3 for its first victory of the four-game series.

Third baseman George Matfle drove in four of Eugene's five runs in the opener against Lewiston. He tripled in the first inning and doubled in the third. Lewiston outbait Eugene 10-5 in the nightcap but the Emeralds were aided by two Bronco errors.

Spokane and Salem staged a slugfest in their 13-inning second game. Salem pounded 20 hits off two Spokane pitchers and the Indians came back with 14, including Bob Cerrato's 13th inning triple that drove in the winning runs.

Washington's Spec Shea fanned runs No. 20 with a mate on for Norb Zauchin with the bases loaded in the ninth. Ted Abernathy gained his first major league victory for the Nats, although giving way to Camilo Pascual and Shea when Boston scored once in the ninth.

In the National, first-place Brooklyn came from behind three times to beat the New York Giants 6-5 in 11 innings on George Shuba's pinch single. Milwaukee copped second place from Chicago as the Braves scored four unearned runs in the eighth to beat the Cubs 7-4.

Willie Mays hammered home a 5-3 New York lead in the 10th, but the Dodgers came back to tie with Duke Snider's triple and Jackie Robinson's sacrifice bunt scoring the runs. Ed Roebuck won it in relief of Don Newcombe. Ray Manzant lost it, becoming the sixth Giant pitcher after Manager Leo Durocher sent five pitchers in to face five Brooklyn batters in the 10th and 11th.

Randy Jackson's error opened the gates for the Braves, who had a two-run blast by Joe Adcock in the big inning. Ray Crone won in relief, with Hal Jeffcoat the loser.

attle game at Seattle was rained out.

Portland was the scene of an eight pitcher workout. Los Angeles called on four moundsmen to defeat the Beavers 11-7 in a 12-inning marathon. The losers also used four pitchers, who surrendered 20 hits most of them in the final inning when the visitors copped the game with a 6-run splurge. Angel hurlers yielded 15 blows.

Both Hollywood and Sacramento used four pitchers in an error-plagued game that the Stars won 11-10 with an inside-the-park homer by Lee Walls in the eighth inning. The ball dropped in the midst of three Solon players in right field and Walls slid home ahead of a belated throw.

Pitchers had an easier time at San Francisco, where first-place San Diego beat the Seals 7-4 in 11 innings. Each side used two hurlers. San Francisco's Tony Ponce, who took over in the ninth, was the victim. The Padres bombarded him for 4 runs in the 11th and won the game.

Yankees Extend Lead To 5½ Games In AL

Only games scheduled

The next 10 days — from now until the All-Star Game break — may decide the American League pennant race. And it looks as if the best thing the four challengers to the New York Yankees can do is pray for rain.

If the Yanks, ahead by 5 games, don't come out smelling like roses, one of the four contenders, at least, figures to wind up a bit groggy. The pressure is on Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit and Boston.

The schedule tells the story. New York plays 10 games in the 10 days, with two days off. Eight of the games are with Washington and Baltimore, the seventh a double-header at Yankee Stadium. Second-place Chicago, dropping its fifth straight yesterday to Detroit 4-3, plays 11 games in the 10 days, with only one day of rest. Seven are with third-place Cleveland, just 1½ games behind the White Sox.

After a three-game set with the Indians that opens tonight, Chicago splits its other four games between sixth-place Kansas City and persistent Detroit.

In addition to the seven games with Chicago, the Tribe has three scheduled with Kansas City and two with Detroit.

The Tigers play eight of their next 12 games against the A's, whom they've beaten in five of eight meetings. The Red Sox have 11 games on tap — the two at New York and nine against Washington and Baltimore.

Tigers Sweep Set
Detroit wrapped up a sweep of its three-game set with the White Sox as Ray Boone pumped a two-run homer in the eighth to overhaul a 3-2 Chicago lead. It was victory No. 8 for Steven Gromek, who was tapped for a 430-foot home run by Minnie Minoza with a man on in the sixth.
