EASTERN STAR MEMBERS ATTEND RECEPTION

Eastern Star Chapter, No. 91, met Thursday evening at the Masonic Hall in Oakland with Mrs. Irma Cornish, worthy matron, and Lloyd Cornish, worthy patron, presiding in the East.

Routine business was transacted and completed for the summer vacation. Mrs. Mary Barker was introduced and welcomed as the appeals and grievance committee of the grand chapter of Oregon. Grand Chapter reports were interestingly given by Mrs. Helen Stuve, Mrs. Betty Early, Mrs. Nadine Stearns, Mrs. Mary Barker, Mrs. Juanita Holgate and Mrs. Irma Cornish. There will be no morning meetings of the chapter until Thursday, Sept. 8.

Saturday a group of Eastern Star members went to Grants Pass to attend the reception for Miss Carliota Wiseman, worthy grand matron of Oregon, and the grand organist, Clyde Riffe. Mrs. Irma Cornish spoke on behalf of the worthy matrons of 1955, and made a tribute to Miss Wiseman, and pledged support for the year. Those attending the reception from Sutherlin and Oakland were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Bielman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cornish and Mr. and Mrs. Mary Barker.

RECEPTION HONORS STATE OFFICERS AT UMPQUA GROVE

The reception held in honor of the newly elected state officers of Umpqua Grove No. 51 of the Supreme Forest Woodman Circle was a charming affair Monday night at the home of Mrs. Besse Lounsbury in Roseburg. Mrs. Phebe McGuire, state president, and Mrs. Edythe Manley, state secretary were honored from the Umpqua Grove.

Out-of-town guests present for the lovely joint celebration of the third anniversary of the organizing of Umpqua Grove were Mrs. Zeida K. Puckett, state manager from Portland; Mrs. Anna Marie Jeppeson, Eugene; and Mrs. Alice Christiansen Roseburg.

Interesting games were introduced by Mrs. Beula Gibson with many prizes awarded. Lovely gifts were presented to Mrs. McGuire and Mrs. Manley from their Grove friends.

Dainty refreshments were served from the lace-covered dining table, which was centered with a cleverly decorated four-tiered anniversary cake with the names of the four presidents of the Grove inscribed on the lower layer. This outstanding cake was created by Mrs. Ruby Belle Kobernik.

Those enjoying the party were Mrs. Goldie Willis, Mrs. Jesse Thomas, Mrs. Thelma Major, Mrs. Robbie Lee Cooper, Mrs. Maxine Cantwell, Mrs. Phebe McGuire, Mrs. Beula Gibson, Mrs. Norma Thiessen, Mrs. Anna Marie Jeppeson, Mrs. Ruby Belle Kobernik, Judy Lounsbury, Mrs. Bella Holm, Mrs. Rosa Heinbach, Mrs. Elizabeth Godfrey, Mrs. Gertrude Hess, Mrs. Alice Christiansen, Mrs. Martha King, Mrs. Donna Anderson and the hostess, Mrs. Lounsbury.

VISITORS ATTEND BARRACKS' MEETING

Douglas Barracks No. 176, met in regular session in the American Legion Hall, in Roseburg Friday. Buddy Commander Monte Walton of Portland Barracks No. 53, and Ralph J. Baldwin, Dept. Adj. for the Dept. of Oregon and member of Salient Barracks No. 113, were guests for the evening, and gave some very fine reports from the state and national legislative committees on charters and pensions.

Buddy Commander Monte Walton was in company of his wife Hazel Walton, national chief of staff of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Veterans of World War One, and her aide-camp, Mrs. Eva Endrezie. The latter two instituted and installed the ladies auxiliary and seated the officers.

The next meeting for the barracks and ladies auxiliary will be Friday, July 1, at 8:00 p.m. to be held in the Veterans Memorial building on the Garden Valley Road. It is urged that all members be present at this meeting to make plans for attending the state encampment to be held in Taft July 12, 13 and 14.

GARDEN CLUB PLANS FOR COUNTY PICNIC

The Lookingglass Garden Club made plans at the meeting Thursday for attendance at the picnic for all clubs of the county to be held July 21 at Canyonville Park. The president, Mrs. A. A. Jacoby, emphasized the importance of attendance stating that detailed arrangements for participation in the Douglas County Fair August 25 to 28 would be worked out at that time.

Mrs. Echo Heard, Mrs. Mildred Ollivant and Mrs. Dorothy Boling were appointed to have charge of the exhibit from the local group. A request has also been made for exhibits from individual members in the general classifications.

The day's program included an interesting report on hummingbirds given by Mrs. Dorothy Boling. Mrs. Jacoby spoke at some length on fertilizer and insecticides. Roll call was answered by the name of a perennial. The name of an insect will be given at the next roll call, which will be at the meeting of July 28.

A discussion of program materials for the year book was held and will be continued at the next meeting.

IMPROMPTU PARTY HELD AT SUTHERLIN

Mrs. Ellen Leisinger entertained at a "come as you are" party at her home west of Sutherlin Thursday. At noon Mrs. Leisinger served dinner to Mrs. Gertrude Bringle, Mrs. Elizabeth Gleason, Mrs. Leona Elliott and daughter, Teresa; Mrs. Pat Leisinger and daughters, Linda and Sharlene; Mrs. Evelyn Frottscher, Mrs. Eunice Haslam and daughters, Barbara Jo and Janice; Mrs. Selma Walters and Mrs. Erma Buck.

A pleasant afternoon was spent playing games.

SUTHERLIN LODGE MEMBERS HAVE PICNIC

Over forty members attended the picnic of the Cloverleaf IOOF Lodge and the Sutherlin Rebekah Lodge Sunday at Umpqua Park in Roseburg. A delicious potluck dinner was enjoyed at noon. The afternoon was enjoyably spent in playing ball and pitching horse shoes. Children enjoyed the swings and slides.
