

LADY LIONS' OFFICERS, installed at a joint ceremony with the Roseburg Lions Club Saturday night, include, lower row, left to right, Mrs. C. E. Manning, Lion trainer; Mrs. Al McBee, secretary; Mrs. George Foster, president; Mrs. Art Marolf, vice president. Back row, Mrs. Charles Collins, and Mrs. James Campbell, directors. Mrs. A. G. McLain, treasurer, was not present. (Staff picture)

ROSEBURG GROUND OBSERVER Corps observed Flag Day at a reception held at the KP Hall, June 14. Scouts from Troop No. 34 were present with their scoutmaster, Carl Watson. Above are Darlene Rexinger and Dan Duffy. Below are Dan Duffy and Gary Meyers, back row, and Alan Moretensen and Ken Wishart, front row. Darlene Rexinger, a former service woman, gave an interesting and instructive talk on the flag. Ken Wishart, Gary Meyers, Danny Duffy and Alan Moretensen presented the colors and Darlene Rexinger assisted by Ken Wishart gave a demonstration of the correct way to fold the flag. Observer Wings were presented to Delores and David Hartley, who leave soon for the summer. Prizes in the "Introducing" game were won by Darlene Rexinger and Danny Duffy. Punch and cookies were served.

NIELSEN'S
WILL BE OPEN
SUNDAY
9 A.M. To 7 P.M.
CLOSED MONDAY

BIRTHDAY PARTY
GIVEN DENNIE FRENCH
Mrs. Leon French held a birthday party Monday for her son, Dennie, 4. The 15 children present played games and were given candy, balloons, and bubble gum for favors. They were served ice cream and birthday cake.

JUST CALL—
Frank Bergh
For Information on Whirlpool & Speed
Queen
Washers & Dryers
Phone OR 3-8348

The Roseburg Lady Lions held a joint installation of officers with the Roseburg Lions Club at the Elks Terrace room Saturday evening.

Following the banquet, Mrs. Charles A. Thomas, retiring president, presented 100 per cent attendance awards to Mrs. Edell Bryant, Mrs. E. R. Buckingham and Mrs. Arthur Marolf.

Mrs. Thomas introduced the retiring officers: Mrs. George Foster, vice president; Mrs. Arthur Marolf, secretary; Mrs. C. E. Manning, treasurer; Mrs. Merle Norman, Lion trainer; Mrs. Harold Stein, director (not present); expressing thanks for their cooperation and a job well done during the year.

The incoming officers: Mrs. George Foster, president; Mrs. Arthur N. Marolf, vice president; Mrs. Albert McBee, secretary; Mrs. A. G. McLain, treasurer (not present); Mrs. C. E. Manning, Lion Trainer; Mrs. James Campbell, director; Mrs. Charles Collins, 2nd year director; were introduced. Mrs. Glen Clute, past president, installed the officers for the coming year. Each was presented a corsage by Mrs. Walter Welker.

Following installation of officers, Mrs. Clute presented Mrs. Thomas with a past president's pin and a lovely orchid and expressed the club's appreciation for her outstanding work during the year.

The lovely floral arrangements on the banquet tables were arranged by Mrs. Charles Collins, Mrs. L. W. Carr, Mrs. Harold Wayman, Mrs. Walter Welker and Mrs. Bruce Elliott.

After the banquet an installation of officers, the Lions and Lady Lions enjoyed an evening of dancing.

TILLICUM BRIDGE CLUB MEETS AT BIELMAN HOME

Beautiful arrangements of roses formed a pretty motif for the fireplace mantle, and small vases of Cecil Brunner roses were used on the small tables Tuesday when Mrs. C. J. Bielman, assisted by Mrs. Cecil Carr and Mrs. Loyal Storaas, entertained the Sutherland Tillicum Bridge Club at a one o'clock luncheon at the Bielman home west of town.

Seated at the appointive tables were Mesdames Lois Bowles, Henry Halvorsen Sr., Edward Lamoreaux, Clifford Flory, Vern Holgate, Harry Barker, E. A. Barnes, Frank McCord, Albert Karcher and the hostesses.

For the afternoon's contract bridge play, Mrs. Karcher won a high score; Mrs. Lamoreaux, second high and Mrs. Holgate, the traveling score. Mrs. Karcher, having moved away, was given a handkerchief shower.

This being the last meeting until September, election of a new president was in order and Mrs. Claude Harvey was elected for the ensuing year.

KNITTING CLUB MEETS AT SUTHERLIN

Mrs. Evelyn Frotcher very graciously entertained her knitting club at a one o'clock dessert luncheon Wednesday at her home west of Sutherland. Beautiful arrangements of roses were used about the room.

Those enjoying the day with Mrs. Frotcher were Mesdames Mary Buckbee, Helen Coor, Jessie Brown, Laura Larson, Cecile Tuthill, Ethel Dies, Mary Reisenweber, two guests, Mrs. Mildred Miller of Midville, N.J.; and Mrs. Francis Beguhl of Oakland.

The afternoon was spent in knitting and visiting. The next meeting of the club will be held Wednesday, July 8, at the home of Mrs. Jessie Brown.

YONCALLA COUPLE HONORED AT PARTY

Neighbors living in the Hayhurst Valley surprised Mr. and Mrs. Webb Huntington Wednesday and helped them celebrate their 49th wedding anniversary. During the evening, their grandson, Richard Walker, showed colored pictures of Okinawa and Washington, D.C. Mr. and Mrs. Huntington received many lovely gifts from their friends. Delicious refreshments were served.

MOTH TROUBLES?
PINK LADY cleans
and protects carpets.
Ask for it at
Your Local Grocer

MRS. HAROLD HOYT, above, left, is the new president of Rotary Anns. At the right is Mrs. Roland West, retiring president. Below are Nancy Hebard and Sandra Humphreys both receiving $100 scholarships from Rotary Ann with Mrs. Harold Hoyt, right, making the presentation. (Pictures by Clark's Studio).

The annual dinner of the Rotary Anns was held at Carl's Haven at 7 p.m. Monday with Mrs. Paul Geddes as guest speaker on interesting highlights and tax problems faced during the recent legislative session.

Two $100 scholarships were presented by Mrs. Harold Hoyt to Nancy Hebard and Sandra Humphreys. Miss Hebard plans to enter Emmanuel Hospital in Portland, while Miss Humphreys will attend University of Oregon specializing in radio.

Mrs. John Runyan gave an interesting and colorful account of the international convention in Chicago.

Mrs. Roland West told of her son, Leslie's, contact with the Rotary Club in Stuttgart, Germany, where he is stationed. He has been a guest at Rotary meetings there and in homes of members including that of president, Max Knorr. The Wests met Dr. Otto Hartman, delegate from Stuttgart at the convention in Chicago. Dr. Hartman brought news of their son and since returning to Germany has written that Leslie has visited in their home. Young Mr. West reports he has found these people very hospitable and has received letters of introduction from them to Rotary Clubs in other countries.

After convention and committee reports the gavel was turned over by the retiring president, Mrs. West, to Mrs. Harold Hoyt, incoming president. Other officers for the coming year are vice president, Mrs. Frank Denton; treasurer, Mrs. L. L. Powers; recording secretary, Mrs. C. M. Page, and corresponding secretary Mrs. Jack Denton.

The tables were beautifully decorated with pink roses and delphinium by the general chairman, Mrs. Dave Geddes, and her committee.

AT AN INFORMAL CEREMONY Thursday evening at the home of the Rev. Clayton Nash, Assembly of God Church, Myrtle Creek, Miss Vannie Dorrough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Dorrough of Canyonville, became the bride of Delbert McGinnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. McGinnis, of Tri-City. The wedding party is pictured above.

Attendants, and only other guests, were Clyde Zumwalt of Canyonville, best man, and Miss Barbara Blankenship, Medford, maid of honor. The couple left immediately on a wedding trip to Southern Oregon and coastal points. The bride wore a shimmering cream and pale green afternoon frock with pink accessories and pink corsage.

McGinnis was graduated from Canyonville High School with the class of 1954. Mrs. McGinnis attended school in both Medford and Canyonville. The couple will make their home in Myrtle Creek.

ROSEBURG RESIDENTS ENJOY DINNER AT IDLEYLD LODGE

A host of Roseburg residents drove up the scenic North Umpqua Highway Sunday to dine at the Idleyld Park Lodge. Several family parties were noted, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brundage and three Portland guests; Mr. and Mrs. William Hash and family, Helen Casey, Naomi Scott and Mrs. John Young; Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Busenbark entertained Mrs. Alice Goff and Mrs. L. E. Goodburn, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Parker and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dillard, daughter Mrs. er.

Wilma's Beauty Shop
Closed on Mondays
REGULAR SHOP
PERMANENTS From $5 up
SHAMPOO and WAVE,
$1.50 up
Telephone 2-1552
Two Doors North of Garden Valley
Rural Fire Hall, 1935 Beacon Way

NEW WINSTON-DILLARD Toastmistress Officers installed Wednesday evening at Douglas High School. Front row, left to right, Secretary, Mary Bird and President, Fran Holtean. Back row, left to right, vice-president, Ruby Peterson; Club representative, Daisy Fox and treasurer, Edna Ebner. (Picture by Chas. Kash, Winston Studio).

New officers for the Winston-Dillard Toastmistress Club were installed at an impressive candlelight ceremony Wednesday evening at Douglas High School. Installed were: president, Mrs. Fran Holtean; vice president, Mrs. Ruby Peterson; secretary, Mrs. Mary Bird; treasurer, Mrs. Edna Ebner; and club representative, Mrs. Daisy Fox. Installing officer was Mrs. Margaret McCord.

The new officers were presented lovely corsages by the junior past president, Mrs. Velma Albertus, who also presented her successor with the president's pin.

Following Mrs. Holtean's acceptance speech, her committee heads were appointed and included: membership, Mrs. Helen Buel; program, Mrs. Ruby Peterson; historian, Mrs. Beth Gordon; publicity, Mrs. Letha Ryder; hospitality, Mrs. Virginia Laurance; parliamentary, Mrs. Mona Hult; public relations, Mrs. Zilpha McAllister; lexicologist, Mrs. Virginia Colton; education, Mrs. Shirley Wagner; community service, Mrs. Margaret McCord, and coordinator Mrs. Joe Leshner.

The installation ceremony was preceded by the regular Toastmistress meeting, and the opening invocation was given by Mrs. Edna Ebner. "My Favorite Radio Program" was the table topic chosen by Mrs. Mona Hult. Critic for the one minute impromptu was Mrs. Fran Holtean. An entertaining speech, "A Lovable Character" was given by Mrs. Joe Leshner. Mrs. Helen Buel served as critic for Mrs. Leshner's speech. Timekeeper was Mrs. Virginia Colton. Mrs. Shirley Wagner's ice-breaker speech was entitled, "The Middle Button." Mrs. Wagner's story of her life was criticized by Mrs. Virginia Laurance, Toastmistress for the evening was Mrs. Ruby Peterson.

Refreshments were served to the group by the outgoing officers of the club. The next meeting will be a potluck supper and swimming party at the home of Mrs. Mona Hult in Dillard July 27.

A short business meeting will be held followed by three minute impromptu speeches and International Toastmistress convention reports.

RIDDLE LAD IS HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Lonnie Thomas, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Thomas of Riddle, was honored on his first birthday at a party held at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Ronald Parr, in Dillard. Many gifts were presented.

The young man by his relatives and friends. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the pleasant afternoon to Kathy Parr, Donna Sue and Cindy Martyn, John Leonard and Deana Swanson, David Thomas and the mothers who accompanied their small children, Mrs. Don Martyn, Mrs. Edith Bratsch, Mrs. Bertha Swanson, Mrs. Goldie Willis, Mrs. Eleanor Parr, Mrs. Myrtle Swanson, Mrs. Hazel Thomas and the honored guest, Lonnie Thomas.

SERVICE MAN HONORED AT WELCOME HOME PARTY

A surprise home coming party was held Friday for Aldus Montgomery, who had just returned from overseas duty in Japan, at the Foster Montgomery home.

Those present to honor Aldus were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Luzier, Mrs. Cecil Leisinger and daughters, Linda and Shariene; Mr. and Mrs. Foster Montgomery, and sons, Foster, Lavon and Darwin; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Luzier and son, Wayne; Mrs. Darwood Elliott and daughter, Teresa; Mr. and Mrs. Orville Montgomery and children, Penny Ann and Robin. Visiting was enjoyed.

Those enjoying the party and sending gifts were: Mesdames Phyllis Paroz, Vaughn Toombs, Helen Buel, Bibbie Lee Cooper, Mickie Dawson, Myrtle McAlpine, Barbara McAlpine, Carol Hercher, Bea Davis, Belle Kar, Helen Rummell, Beula Gibson, Rosa Heinbach, Lana Wade, Jessie Thomas, Edith Bratsch, Ellen Pennie, Marie Claiborne, Ronnie and Sandy Lina, Doris Martyn, Vivian Rutschman, Goldie Willis, Clara Laurance, Virginia Laurance, Clara Feenstra, Selma Dozier, Zillah Wade, Emily and Lois Fosback, Phebe McGuire, Mercy Buel, Vivian Laurance, Denise Coon, Mable Lange, Nancy and Oulva Lina, Evelyn Nickerson, Beth Gordon, Elsie Spackman and Bill Fish.

SOANISH CAMP FIRE GROUP of Glide, formerly the Chipping Blue Birds, who flew up at the spring council fire are pictured above. Left to right: Dixie Stiffler, Yvonne Holz, Leader Mrs. LaVonne Stiffler, Corda Anne Neiswanger, Iona McCord, Shirley Reed, Carolyn Turner, Tonya Clark, Marilyn Wingfield, Janet Anderson, Donna Weaver, Sharon Singleton, Dallas Jones. Absent when the picture was taken were Sandra Theiss and Deatrice Higgenbotham. This group is sponsored by Ben Serafin's Sporting Goods at Glide. (Picture by Ben Serafin).

BRIDAL SHOWER HONORS MISS HEINBACH SATURDAY AT LINNA HOME IN DILLARD

Mrs. Oliva Linna was a charming hostess at her lovely home in Dillard Saturday afternoon at a bridal shower in honor of Miss Ina Lee Heinbach, daughter of Mrs. W. C. Heinbach and the late Mr. Heinbach.

The spacious rooms were beautifully decorated in bouquets of blue and white delphinium and pink and white carnations. The bride-elect is scheduled to be married to Robert McGowan in Oakland July 17. Miss Mathews is to be the bridesmaid.

The dainty refreshments were served from the lace covered dining room table, which was decorated in lavender and white streamers. A beautiful arrangement of yellow roses graced the center of the table and was flanked on either side with tall yellow tapers in crystal holders. Mrs. Zilla Wade, Mrs. Rosa Heinbach and Mrs. Linna carried out these decorations.

Mrs. Dan Laurance, sister of the bride-elect, presided at the punch bowl. Those assisting with the refreshments were Mrs. Laurance, Mrs. Evelyn Nickerson, Mrs. Jessie Thomas, Mrs. Marie Claiborne and Mrs. Linna.

Those enjoying the party and sending gifts were: Mesdames Phyllis Paroz, Vaughn Toombs, Helen Buel, Bibbie Lee Cooper, Mickie Dawson, Myrtle McAlpine, Barbara McAlpine, Carol Hercher, Bea Davis, Belle Kar, Helen Rummell, Beula Gibson, Rosa Heinbach, Lana Wade, Jessie Thomas, Edith Bratsch, Ellen Pennie, Marie Claiborne, Ronnie and Sandy Lina, Doris Martyn, Vivian Rutschman, Goldie Willis, Clara Laurance, Virginia Laurance, Clara Feenstra, Selma Dozier, Zillah Wade, Emily and Lois Fosback, Phebe McGuire, Mercy Buel, Vivian Laurance, Denise Coon, Mable Lange, Nancy and Oulva Lina, Evelyn Nickerson, Beth Gordon, Elsie Spackman and Bill Fish.

Mrs. Neil Kaser Honored At Party

To compliment Mrs. Neil Kaser, who is leaving next week with her husband on a trip to Germany, a delightful breakfast party was given Monday morning by Mrs. Chester Hercher. Carnations and orange blossoms formed the attractive decorations.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Kaser, guest of honor, Mrs. W. E. Hercher, Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mrs. Grant Osborn and the hostess, Mrs. Chester Hercher.

SUTHERLIN COUPLE HONORED AT PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Montgomery celebrated their thirty second wedding anniversary recently at a surprise party given by Mrs. Marvin Luzier and Mrs. Cecil Leisinger on the lawn at the Foster Montgomery home.

A beautiful decorated cake was cut and served with coffee and punch to the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Luzier and son, Wayne; Mrs. Durwood Elliott and daughter, Teresa; Mr. and Mrs. Orville Montgomery, Polly Ann and Robin; Mr. and Mrs. Foster Montgomery and sons, Foster, Lavon and Darwin; Marvin Luzier, Aldus Montgomery, Linda and Shariene Lesinger by the hostesses, Mrs. Luzier and Mrs. Leisinger.

FAST FAMILY REUNION HELD

A reunion of the Fast family was held Sunday at the H. H. Fast home on Rice Valley Road, south of Yoncalla. A delicious dinner was served at noon, with visiting taking up most of the afternoon. Those present included Mrs. M. E. Fast and Mrs. Grace Hamaker of Kingsworth, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fast of Woodlake, Neb.; Mrs. Tom Reed of Receda, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Don Fast of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Art Adams and Mrs. Art Green of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fast and family; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gordon and family; and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Fast of Yoncalla.

shopper stopper
cool comfort on our
PRINCE MATCHABELLI
perfume counter

SUMMER SHOWER Creme Perfume
Sachet...cool, flowery fragrance keeps you deliciously fresh for hours! Other items too, each $1

FULLERTON DRUG
127 N. Jackson

Garden Valley Market
845 Garden Valley Road, Will Be
OPEN MONDAY 4th
HOURS: 9a.m. to 7p.m.