COUNTY GUARDIAN COUNCIL HAS MEETING AT RIDDLE

The Douglas County Guardian Council of Jobs Daughters met at Riddle Monday evening with the members of the Riddle Bethel Guardian Council as hosts.

A delicious buffet dinner was served to 39 guardians and was followed by the business meeting.

The following officers were elected to serve for the coming year: president, Mrs. Millie Dowd of Myrtle Creek; Bethel No. 13, vice president, Clifford Kent of Riddle Bethel No. 39; secretary, Mrs. Jackie Smith of Glendale Bethel No. 28; treasurer, Mrs. Zilpha McAllister of Winston-Dillard Bethel No. 53; publicity chairman, Mrs. Mary Barker of Oakland Bethel No. 42; and special activity chairman, Mrs. Eleanor Unrath of Roseburg Bethel No. 8.

Roy Colburn, associate grand guardian of Roseburg was present and discussed the various activities scheduled for the Grand Guardian Council for this year.

The matter of having a Friendship Night once a year with each of the county Bethels taking part was discussed. It was decided to have this matter taken up with each individual Bethel.

It was announced that the Douglas County Bethels are to furnish favors for the supreme session to be held in Idaho in August.

The next meeting of the council will be held at Dillard in the fall.

YONCALLA DELEGATES ATTEND CONFERENCE

Seven delegates from the Yoncalla Methodist Church attended the annual conference youth day Saturday at the First Methodist Church in Eugene. Among the meetings was the election of officers for the coming conference.

Miss Anne Lasswell was elected promotions chairman. In the evening they attended a banquet at the new Wesley Foundation on the campus. A lovely ham dinner was served to approximately four hundred people. Later in the evening they returned to the church for the evening worship service and installation of officers. Those attending from Yoncalla were Anne Campbell, Anne Lasswell, Bill Lasswell, Janice Gordon, Juanita Johnston, Nadine Phillips and Chuck Goodwin.

GLIDE CAMP FIRE GIRLS HAVE COOK-OUT

The Waditaka and Soanish Camp Fire Girls of Glide shared an all-day cookout at Rock Creek camp area. The younger group, who are just starting on trailseeker rank, hiked two miles up Rock Creek to the camp, while the older girls, who are working on camp craft torchbearer rank made hobo stoves, reflector ovens and prepared the fires in preparation for the noon meal of stew-in-foli, bread on a stick and smores. The girls formed into working groups with one Waditaka member acting as instructor for two Soanish members on methods of outdoor cooking without utensils and experimenting with reflector ovens.

Members of the two groups included Norma Barker, Dixie Stiff, Yvonne Holz, Phyllis Singleton, Iona McCord, Shirley Reed, Judy Roberts, Carolyn Turner, Tony Clark, Jolene Miller, Janet Anderson, Donna Weaver, Anne Schermerhorn, Sharon Singleton, Dallas Jones, Jo Ann Franks, Deanna Hugesbotham, Sandra Theiss, Gail Kelly and Charlotte Hill, a visiting member from Powers, and the leaders, Mrs. Bonnie Stiff, Mrs. Ruby Weaver and Mrs. Nita Singleton. Mothers helping with transportation and attending the cookout were Mrs. Dixie Theiss, Mrs. Betty Hugesbotham, Mrs. Doris Barker and Mrs. Margaret Roberts. All the girls and their leaders would like to express their thanks to Mrs. Connie McMinds who acted as waterfront director and helped to make the day such an enjoyable one.

The Waditaka members are reminded of the trip to the Oregon Caves July 17 for members, their families and sponsor. They will meet at Singleton's Road at 8 a.m. and proceed in a caravan from there. Each family is to bring something for a picnic picnic.

ENJOYABLE PICNIC HONORS VISITORS

A delightful family reunion picnic was enjoyed Sunday at Baker's Camp where the North Umpqua by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gordon of Dillard and relatives. The special occasion was in honor of their nephew, Dr. Glen Mahoney, wife and son Patrick, from Torrence, Calif.; and Dr. Len Chessmore, also from Torrence. These two young men had just graduated from medical school. Other guests for the pleasant outing and picnic dinner were Roy Callahan of Tucson, Ariz.; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Long and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gordon.

YONCALLA GROUP ENTERTAINED AT GORDON HOME

Janice Gordon entertained a group of friends at her home in Yoncalla Sunday at a hamburger fry. Ping-pong and other games were played. Everyone appreciated the use of Mrs. Ellis's charcoal grill.

Those enjoying the evening were Don McCallister, Jane Warner, Stanley Snider, Dan Webb, Sandra Webb, Kay Turpin, Juanita Johnston, Sharon Gordon, Janice Gordon, Norma Latham, Virginia Currier, Chuck Goodwin, Anne Lasswell, Bill Lasswell, Connie Campbell, Bruce Timmons, Anne Campbell, Mrs. Avery Lasswell, Mrs. Tim Ellis, Tommie and Jackie Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Gordon.

FELLOWSHIP OFFICERS INSTALLED AT ELKTON

Christian Women's Fellowship of the Christian Church held installation service Sunday night. The program was: duet by Mrs. Aralia Brendon and Mrs. Frances Carnes; piano solo by Nancy Fish; song by Mrs. Brendon. Installation reader was Frances Carnes. Officers installed were Gertrude Compton, president; Martha Abraham, vice president; Marcella Honderer, secretary-treasurer; Nettie Compton. Inspirational verses were given each officer. Maryanne Compton and Judy Abraham, daughters of officers, pinned on the corsages. Frances Carnes sang the dedication song. Rev. Philip Ryan read the report for the year.

ELKTON HOME IS SCENE OF SCOUT MEET

The Girl Scouts, Judy and Jennie Monner, Donna Jean Hedden, Terry Adamo, Janice Taylor, Donna Partch and Sherry McNeil, met at the Monner home with their leader, Molly Monner Thursday. The girls made table mats. Later a delicious hamburger feed was prepared by Emma Monner and Frances Hedden, after which they all enjoyed a slumber party. Breakfast was served at the Monner home.

GLENDALE CLUB MEETS TUESDAY

The Glendale Friendship Club met Tuesday evening in the IOOF Hall.

In commemoration of the fact that it was the club's 6th birthday, members came dressed as six-year-olds.
