Refreshments were served to 75 people after the ceremonies.

SUTHERLIN LADIES MEET AT SCALLON HOME

Rain didn't dampen the spirits of fifteen Jay-C-Ettes in attending the monthly meeting at the Phillip Scallion home on the Umpqua Monday evening with Gilberta Page and Muriel Post as co-hostesses.

A short business meeting was conducted and several discussions were held. The forthcoming picnic to be held Sunday, July 17, was discussed and Kitty Murphy was appointed on the food committee. Concessions for the Timber Days celebration were discussed and a financial report was given on the apron and food sale held last Saturday. A final vote for an official jacket was taken and it was decided to have a white stag poplin jacket.

Edith Bowers will be the first hostess at a coffee gallop.

The meeting adjourned to the picnic grounds on the Scallion beach of the Umpqua. The next regular meeting of the Jay-C-Ettes will be held Monday evening, July 25, at the John Kohl home with Mary Kohl and Lora Scallion as hostesses.

Trueds To Attend Family Reunion In California

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Trued of Roseburg left Tuesday for a short vacation to be spent at San Francisco and Santa Cruz, where they will attend an interesting family reunion.

Mr. Trued is one of ten children, seven sons and three daughters, born to Mr. and Mrs. Nels Trued, now both deceased. Several of the members of this family are to gather in Santa Cruz during the week of July 11.

The reunion, however, is held especially for all of the family of the oldest brother, Herman S. Trued, who is the father of six sons, of whom five survive. The sons and their families are all expected to be present.

One of the sons, Merlyn Trued, is a graduate of University of Oregon. He received his Ph. D. degree from the University of West Virginia, after serving as a Marine combat flier, and now is chief economist at the Federal Reserve Bank in New York.

Three of the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Trued recently were ordained simultaneously in the ministry of the Lutheran church. The ceremony at St. Paul is believed to mark the first time in the history of the church that three brothers were taken into the ministry of the church at once.

REPORTS FOR TRAINING
COURSE — Te/2 Bernard Hyatt, U. S. Navy will report for a two-month training course at Washington, D. C. preparatory to a two-year tour of duty in Naples, Italy. Hyatt recently spent a short leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hyatt, Canyonville. He returned from the Pacific after spending almost three years there; one and one-half years on Guam and the remaining time with the destroyer USS Shelton. He was graduated from Canyonville High School in 1952.
