Childhood Sweetheart To Get Half Of Will

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — A man who died in a desert tragedy bequeathed his divorced wife just "30 pieces of silver—32" because of "the misery she has caused me."

Calvert S. Wilson's bequest came to light in a handwritten will entered for probate by attorneys for Wilson's "childhood sweetheart," to whom he left half his estate.

Attorneys estimated the estate left by Wilson, 49, restaurant supply firm operator, at $30,000. The will, dated May 21, left the other half of his estate to his children, Brenda, 14, and Tamara, 11.

The will read: "To my childhood sweetheart, Mrs. Algene Hoskins, of Southern Pines, N.C.—for a love and a faith that has lived undiminished for 40 years—and because she has been my inspiration and encouragement in most of the worthwhile things I have accomplished in this life—I leave the other half of my estate and do hereby appoint her executrix."
