OPEN-HOUSE HONORS
MR. AND MRS. CRANDALL ON GOLDEN WEDDING

Open house was held June 25 in honor of the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crandall, of 239 West First Avenue North, Roseburg, at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ball, at Glendale.

The table was covered with a lace cloth and decorated with yellow candles and yellow roses. Mr. and Mrs. Crandall cut the first piece of cake, after which the cake was served by their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Dora Crandall. Mrs. Crandall's sister, Mrs. A. J. Delamater, served the punch and Mrs. Crandall's niece, Mrs. H. C. Prentice, served the coffee.

Out-of-town guests here for the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sieman, Donna and Sue; Mr. and Mrs. John Sieman, Melvin Sieman, Mr. and Mrs. Don Molzan, David, Tom and Loren, all of Tacoma, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Delamater, Joanne and Janice, of Portland; Mrs. H. C. Prentice, Clark Fork, Idaho; Mrs. Dora Crandall, Emmett, Idaho; and their granddaughter and children, Mrs. Stan Baldwin, Kenneth and Kimberly, Las Vegas, Nev.

Also calling were: Mr. and Mrs. Chester Swearingen, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Colley, Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Swearingen, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Swearingen, all of Drain; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Johnson, Mrs. Emmett Martin, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Walter, and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Cook, Cottage Grove; Mr. Alva Cook, Harrisburg; Mrs. R. O. Ballou, Dorothy Ballou and Larry Ball, Glendale.

Many beautiful gifts and cards were received by the honored guests.

YONCALLA CHURCH IS SCENE OF BRIDAL

Miss Lois Parks, who became the bride of Bob Campbell Friday evening, was honored at a lovely miscellaneous shower, given by the ladies of the Yoncalla Methodist Church Tuesday evening, in the recreation room of the church.

Large bouquet of red roses and Madonnas Lilies were arranged on the mantel and piano. The table, where the gifts were placed, was covered with a hand-made lace cloth, and held a large bouquet of pink roses.

The serving table held a bridal party in miniature. Following the opening of the many lovely gifts, refreshments were served by Miss Lois Parks, Sybil Lewey, Anne Lasswell, Ann Campbell, Jane Warner, Mrs. Eric Stenseth, Miss Maxine Potter, Misses Janice and Sharon Gordon, Mrs. D. Gordon, Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Lorna Elmer, Mrs. A. Z. Thompson, Mrs. Louise Snyder, Mrs. Gerald Johnston and daughter, Juanita; Mrs. Tim Miller, Mrs. Catherine Stenmark, Mrs. George Edes, Miss Mary Thompson, Mrs. Mildred Chapman, Mrs. Pernella Kerkela, Mrs. Jeanne Lee, Mrs. Nellie Phillips of Yoncalla; and Miss Marilyn Holland of Roseburg. Gifts were sent from Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kelso, Mrs. Tom Palmer, Mrs. Paul Flury, Mrs. Bob Campbell, Miss Nadine Phillips, Mrs. Ray Potter, Mrs. Wade Crow, Miss Nancy Thompson and Mrs. Doris Means.

Following a honeymoon to Grants Pass, the couple will be at home in Philomath, where the bridegroom is self employed with his brother.

Mrs. Schaffer attended Yoncalla High School, also the Canyonville Bible Academy and Philomath High School. The bridegroom attended Siletz High School and spent two years in the Army, being discharged in Feb. '53.

BYRON FAMILY HAS

MELROSE NEIGHBORS HAVE FOURTH OF JULY PICNIC DINNER

Neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Young enjoyed a lovely picnic dinner Monday on the river at the Young ranch at Melrose. Visiting was enjoyed during the pleasant hours, following a delicious dinner.

Attending the annual affair were Mr. and Mrs. Jay E. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Bert L. Young and three sons; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Rogers and children; Mrs. Lorraine Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Beckshire and children; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Siring, Wallace Murdock, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Miller, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Doerner and three children; Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Doerner, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Douglas and son, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Don White and children; Carl Becker, Mrs. Mina

MR. AND MRS. CHRIS HERSEIDAH, above, were married June 12 at the Sutherlin Christian Church. The bride, Grace Fickes, and the bridegroom are both residents of Sutherlin. The Rev. Joe Scovell officiated.

Grace Fickes and Chris Herseidahl, both of Sutherlin, were united in marriage in an impressive single ring ceremony at the Sutherlin Christian Church Sunday, June 12, at two o'clock before friends and relatives. The Rev. Joe Scovell officiated.

Mrs. Cliff Watson played the prelude and wedding march and accompanied Mrs. Ruth Urban, who sang, "Because" and "Oh Promise Me," before the ceremony. Laurie Watson sang "The Lord's Prayer" at the close.

The attractive bride wore a rose dacton afternoon dress with white hat and accessories of white. Her corsage was a white carnation.

The bride's only attendant was her daughter, Eva Mae Fickes, who wore pink tulle with white accessories, and a small hat of pink feathers. She wore a white carnation corsage.

Irwin Herseidahl, eldest son of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Ruth Urban, daughter of the bride, wore a blue nylon embossed gown and white accessories.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride on Sixth Avenue. The decorated three-tiered cake, topped by a bride and groom figurine, was first cut by the bride and bridegroom, after which Mrs. Paul Urban cut and served the cake. Mrs. William (Bill) Murphy served the punch, and Mrs. Dick Van Keuren poured the coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Herseidahl left after the reception on a honeymoon. They spent most of their time visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob VanKeuren, a son of the bride, who is stationed at Santa Rosa, Calif., with the Air Force. They enjoyed many sight-seeing trips from there. They have returned to Sutherlin and will continue to make their home there.

Mr. Herseidahl is employed as head bookkeeper for Roseburg Motors.

Out-of-town guests attending the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Herseidahl, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Herseidahl, sons of the bridegroom, from Newberg; Mr. and Mrs. Clem Baynard, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom, from Salem.
