

Musial's 12th Inning Homer Gives National League Victory

Milwaukeeans Have Big Day In 6-5 Clash

By JOE REICHLER
MILWAUKEE (AP) — Stan (The Man) Musial, toast of the National League for the past 14 years, is the new darling of baseball-mad Milwaukee today even if he doesn't wear a Braves uniform.

The majority of the capacity crowd of 45,314 paying customers, not to mention the countless television viewers who saw the great St. Louis Cardinal star smash a 12th-inning home run yesterday to give the National League an up-hill 6-5 victory over the American in the 22nd annual All-Star spectacle, were convinced he's the greatest.

The storybook finish was a fitting climax to a wonderful day for Milwaukeeans, who were treated to perfect weather for their first All-Star home game in their three years in the National League. Not only did they see their heroes overcome what at one time seemed an insurmountable 5-0 deficit, but a trio of their own Braves had key roles in the thrilling comeback drive.

It was Johnny Logan, Milwaukee shortstop, who singled in the first National League run in the seventh. It was Henry Aaron, Milwaukee right fielder, who singled in the run that made it 5-4 in the eighth and set the stage for Al Rosen's error that permitted the tying run to cross the plate. And it was Milwaukee pitcher Gene Conley's spectacular feat in striking out Al Kaline, Mickey Vernon and Al Rosen in the top of the 12th that preceded Musial's game-winning blow.

There were other National League heroes too. Willie Mays of the New York Giants contributed greatly with two rally-igniting singles and a leaping back-to-back fence catch of a towering drive by Ted Williams that had the home run label torn off it at the last instant.

There was St. Louis' Harvey Haddix, who pitched a fine three innings after the American League slugger had blasted into an early 4-0 lead at the expense of Robin Roberts, Philadelphia's great right-hander. There was Ted Kluszewski, Cincinnati's slugging first baseman, who had a double and single and contributed a fielding gem on a sizzler by Yogi Berra that resulted in a rally-killing double play.

Last but not least was the gritty clutch pitching of young Joe Nuxhall, the Red Sox southpaw, who fanned five in 3 1/3 innings of runless pitching after relieving Chicago's Sam Jones. Nuxhall struck out Whitey Ford with two out and the bases full in the eighth.

There were heroes on the losing side too. Billy Pierce was brilliant in his opening three-inning stint. The little Chicago White Sox left-hander faced only nine as he struck out three, did not give up a run and allowed only a leadoff single to Rod Schoendienst.

Mickey Mantle struck the game's longest blow, a tremendous 425-foot home run over the center field fence into the distant trees with two men on base in the first inning.

Yakima batters feasted on basehits in Northwest League baseball Tuesday night, blasting 25 in a 17-1 rout of Wenatchee.

The barrage included four home runs, six doubles and 15 singles. The Chiefs, in retaliation, could muster only five and their one run resulted from a ninth inning single and three straight walks.

Eugene and Spokane pitchers also were liberal with basehits. Eugene collected 15 and the Indians 10 as the Emeralds powered to a 10-5 triumph at Spokane.

In the league's third game, Lewiston out-hit Tri-City 8-7 en route to an 8-5 home park victory.

Carole Jo Eliminates Two In Washington State Play; J. Steelsmith Leads Men

SEATTLE (AP) — Smooth-stroking Jerry Steelsmith, unheralded 19-year-old from Glendale, Calif., led the pack Wednesday entering the qualifying round of the 54th Pacific Northwest Golf Assn. tournament.

Almost overlooked in Monday's opening round, Steelsmith, a Glendale College sophomore and Southern California amateur champion, carded a 5-under-par 68 on the 6,557-yard Inglewood course Tuesday to grab a 1-stroke lead.

The 68 and Monday's 75 gave him 143 at the end of 36 holes.

Three players were tied in second place.

George Beechler of Ontario, Ore., leader after the first round, added a 73 to Monday's 69; Harry Givan, Seattle, had a 73-71, and Dick Yost, Seattle, 72-72.

In third place was Tal Smith, San Lorenzo, Calif.; Lyle Crawford, Vancouver, B. C.; and Rod Funseth, Spokane, with 145.

Following them were Irv Parent, Seattle, 146, and Jim Shriver, and Jim Mallory, Seattle, and Bob Roos, San Francisco, 147.

Steelsmith fired six birdies and went over par only once as he forged to the front Tuesday. Beechler, even par on the first nine, bogied on the 10th and 16th and went two over.

In women's match play at Sand Point Country Club, the defending champion and other favorites had little trouble with first round opponents.

Ruth Jensen of Seattle, the 1954 titlist, was even par as she ousted Mrs. John Hoetner of Seattle, 7 and 6, Medalist and former champion Pat Lesser of Seattle, was one under par in defeating Ann Cook of Seattle, 7 and 5.

Oregon champion Carole Jo Kabler of Sutherlin eliminated Mrs. R. S. Marshall, Seattle, 7 and 6, Ann Quast of Marysville, Washington junior girls' champion, beat Mrs. Pat Brewitt, Bremerton, 9 and 7.

Other women's results included: Mrs. Robert Ihanfeldt, Seattle, beat Louise Stafford, Bremerton, 5 and 4; Mrs. J. W. Lang, Seattle, beat Mrs. H. A. Schmitt, Portland, 2 and 1; Sue DeVoe, Medford, Ore., beat Mrs. Monty Snider, Seattle, 7 and 5; Mrs. Lewis Ardis, Rose City, Oregon, beat Mrs. F. P. Patterson, Seattle, on the 19th.

Among qualifiers were George Harrington, Medford, 73-77, and P. Getchell, also of Medford, 72-79.

Andrews Leads USGA Public Links Tournament Play

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Defending champion Gene Andrews of Pacific Palisades, Calif., was playing the sharpest golf in the USGA Public Links Tournament going in to Wednesday's 64-man third round but he faced potential trouble in Foster Bradley of Los Angeles, 1954 National Junior champion.

The 18-year-old Bradley, Southern California sophomore, led a strong contingent of teen-agers through the second round Tuesday defeating David Leon of Tucson, Ariz., 4 and 3.

While Andrews was wallowing businessman Charles Afong of Honolulu, 6 and 5, three youngsters won as handily as Bradley.

Bobby Nichols of Louisville, Ky., 19-year-old Texas A&M student, defeated M. E. Garret Sr., of New Orleans, 6 and 5.

Tom Nielsen, 18-year-old from Racine, Wis., beat Don Kelley of North Hollywood, Calif., 6 and 5.

Don Essig, of Indianapolis, 16-year-old Indiana high school champion, turned in a 5 and 3 victory over Milton Frank St. Louis city champion.

John Foley of Indianapolis, Notre Dame's No. 1 player last spring, didn't do so well in a loss to Lt. Roy W. Atkins of the Portland, Ore., Fire Department, 4 and 2.

Foley, going into the Marines this weekend, explained he couldn't concentrate on his game very well.

Wilfrid Smith Named Tribune Sports Editor

CHICAGO (AP) — Veteran sports writer Wilfrid Smith Tuesday was named sports editor of The Chicago Tribune, succeeding the late Arch Ward.

Ward, who died Saturday at the age of 58, was buried earlier Tuesday at All Saints Cemetery after services at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Roman Catholic Church.

Smith, who is 56, joined the Tribune sports staff in 1926 after a four-letter sports career at DePauw University, Greencastle, Ind., and six years of professional football.

Green	0	7	.000

Temple's reversal of Winston-Dillard enabled Temple to take over second spot in the 12-and-under circuit.

Play in the second round begins Thursday with the home teams reversed in every case of games scheduled in the first round.

A quick rundown of Tuesday games in the 12-and-under circuit reveals that Mike Koop set down Green with a one-hitter as Roseburg No. 2 shut out the losers 12-0 at Green.

Another one-hitter was chalked up by Larry Burr in Roseburg's 5-2 defeat of Sutherlin No. 1 at Roseburg.

In the 15-and-under class, Dick Meredith tossed a winning 6-1 game at Sutherlin for Roseburg, giving the winners second place in that league. Don Wells tripled with the bases loaded for Roseburg.
