

Newly-Founded Indian Club Elects Davis, Presents Plan For Football Grandstand

Roseburg's newly-founded adult high school booster club, The Indian Club, held its organizational meeting at the high school Tuesday evening at which time actual construction plans for a new football grandstand were presented for the group's inspection.

Slump May Be Over For Dodgers; Campanella Fit

BROOKLYN (AP)—A "slump" may be over for the Brooklyn Dodgers, who lead the National League by only 1 1/2 games. Roy Campanella says he's fit again. Club physicians gave the free-swimming catcher the okay to play again yesterday after examining the injured knee which has kept him sidelined since June 29. Campy, beaming after hearing the report, said he plans to be behind the plate when the Brooks resume their pennant chase tomorrow night against the St. Louis Cardinals.

his present coaching assignment at Roseburg High school. Since that time the efforts of the new organization, spearheaded by Atty. Robert G. Davis, have been directed at taking steps toward improving athletic facilities at the high school.

Davis, later elected permanent chairman of the club, presented the actual construction plans, but no cost-figure estimate was immediately made available. Three committees were formed by Davis and assignments made.

The whole program has been geared toward actual start of construction of a grandstand and lighting improvement by Aug. 1. A building committee, chaired by Bun Kelsay and Sid Leiken, and composed of six other members was the first formed. Appointments included Al Flegel, Del McKay, Izzy Bean, Frank Dixon, George White and Roy Cummings.

Appointment of a four-man plaque committee, headed by Lee Wimberly, was next on the agenda. Members named were Ray Puckett, Bill Garrison and Dr. Clifford Babbitt.

Five men were then appointed to represent the new club at the next meeting of the school board. They were Brady Montgomery, Paul Ryan, Harold Baken, Dr. Roy Hanford and Sid Leiken.

Election of officers also included Del McKay, vice-chairman; Bill Garrison, secretary-treasurer and Harry Jacoby, recording secretary. The meeting unanimously approved the name "Indian Club" as its standard.

The next meeting was slated for Wednesday, July 20, at the high school. It was stressed that all interested persons are invited to attend and take part.

Washington State Prison Guards Fail To Report

WALLA WALLA, Wash. (AP)—At least six guards have quit their State Penitentiary jobs since last week's prison revolt and some officials said Tuesday it has been "difficult if not impossible" to get crews to man the cellblocks.

The report of reluctance on the part of guards was given the Walla Walla Union-Bulletin by unofficial sources reported resignations may run as high as 10.

All vacations and leaves have been cancelled, but some officers in addition to those who resigned have not reported for work.

These developments coincided with reports of increasing tension among inmates at the big prison where prisoners held nine guards and officials as hostages for two days last week until they obtained concessions in prison rules.

Warden Lawrence Delmore Jr. ordered guards to "lock the damned place up, get the hell out and call me immediately" if they sense any new trouble.

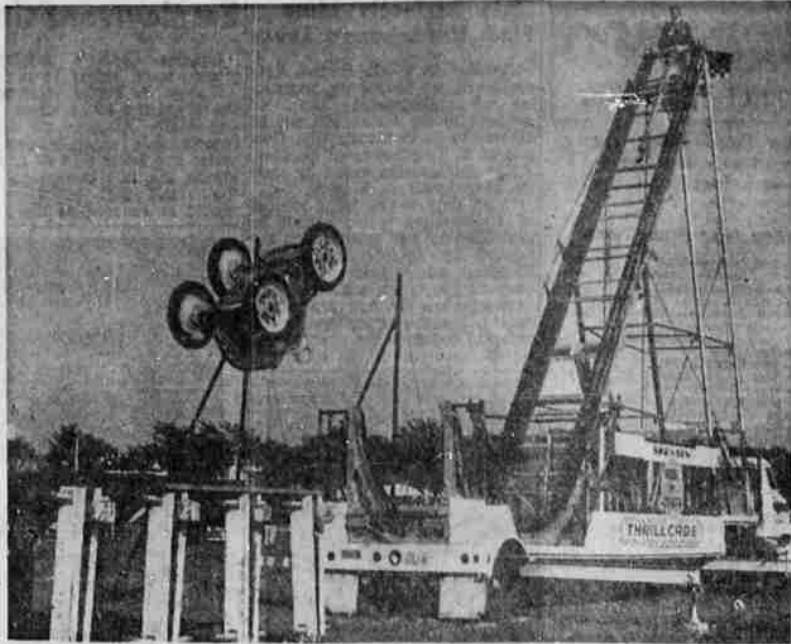

Delmore issued the orders Monday after guards reported increasing tension among prisoners over reports revolt ring-leaders may be transferred to Eastern State Hospital at Medical Lake, Wash., an institution for mental cases.

Harris, at Olympia, said the six who resigned gave varied reasons. One of them, Eugene Winnet, was one of the nine hostages. Delmore said three men told him they were quitting because they felt their $242 monthly base pay was not worth the danger involved. Harris reported he has plans to raise pay of guards "as soon as possible." He said money for increases was provided by the 1955 Legislature.

The men who quit, in addition to Winnet, were Blakely Bishop, Donald V. Brashear, Earl G. Gordon Jr., Carl W. Hunt and John D. Smith. The state lists them as "correctional officers" rather than guards.

NOMINATED DEPUTY

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower Tuesday nominated Reuben B. Robertson Jr., president of the Champion Paper and Fibre Co., of Hamilton, Ohio, to be deputy secretary of defense.

THE RIDE OF DEATH is just one of 30 death-defying feats to be seen in Aut Swenson's Thrillcade appearing Wednesday night, 8:15, July 13, at the Douglas County Fairgrounds in Roseburg. To ride in the death car that will perform a triple loop the loop in mid-air after leaving the high-almost perpendicular skytrack will be pretty Annette LaCosta. The Roseburg appearance will be the first in Oregon for the internationally famed Thrillcade.

Post Office Team Beats Methodists

The Post Office softball team turned in a surprisingly easy 14-3 win over Methodist Church Tuesday evening to advance to the second round of the YMCA Twilight League double elimination softball tourney.

Methodist Church had previously defeated News-Review while the only other tournament winner had been LaVera's Beauty Salon.

The winners jumped to an early 14-3 lead and held the churchmen scoreless until a three-run uprising in the fifth inning.

Post Office pined out three home runs by Todd, Vasey and Wilson to promote its win. Eight Methodist Church hits, meanwhile, were kept well scattered by Post Office pitcher Beal.

PROUD WINNER

Smiling Australian golfer Peter Thomson proudly holds trophy after winning the British Open Golf Championship at St. Andrews, Scotland. He shot a 72-hole score of 281 to become the fifth golfer since 1900 to capture the title two years in succession.

A CREDIT TO BASEBALL. VERO BEACH, Fla. (AP)—When Tommy Holmes, Elmira's new manager in the Eastern League, assembled his squad for its first workout his first impression of Dodge town was: "This camp is a credit to baseball."

Holmes has been to spring training with the Yankees Boston Braves and Milwaukee Braves but he never saw anything like this camp where the Brooklyn Dodgers train each spring.

When the Dodgers left on their exhibition tour, Dodge town was turned over to Brooklyn's many farm teams.

THREAT

After winning the European heavyweight championship by taking a 15-round decision from Heinz Neuhaus of Germany, Franco Cavicchi is reported headed for New York and a crack at American competition. The 27-year-old Italian has knocked out 29 of 38 opponents, 11 of 13 this year.

A LOT TO LEARN

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Michigan's football coach Bernie Oosterbaan says sophomore Jim Pace, an Arkansas high school sensation is "a good prospect, but he's got a lot to learn" before he plays left halfback for the Wolverines.

In Michigan's spring practice, Pace showed some shifty and fast running but average passing.

Charles Favored In Tonight's Go Against Andrews

CHICAGO (AP)—Ezzard Charles, 34-year-old former heavyweight boxing champion with hopes for another title match, was a 3-1 favorite over young Paul Andrews in their scheduled 10-round bout at Chicago Stadium tonight.

The bout will be televised nationally at 9 p.m. EST. It'll be a must bout for both the fading Charles and the 25-year-old Andrews.

Charles cannot well afford to lose if he expects to continue as a drawing card and maintain or improve his No. 6 ranking among heavyweights.

Andrews, winner of 30 of his 35 bouts, needs a victory to establish himself among the heavyweights.

Charles has won three of his last four bouts after losing twice to Rocky Marciano. His loss was to John Holman, Chicago heavyweight. Charles later avenged this defeat with a one-sided decision.

Charles, who has an over-all record of 89 triumphs, 13 losses and 1 draw is hoping to get another crack at Marciano's crown.

Wrestler Turned Coach Leads Milwaukee Golfers

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Labron Harris, a wrestler turned coach and teacher, fired a 4-under-par 68 Tuesday to pace the 47 nonexempt players who will shoot for prizes in the 72-hole, $35,000 Milwaukee Open Golf Tournament.

Harris, golf coach and teaching faculty member at Oklahoma A&M College at Stillwater, Okla., took two strokes off par on each of the nines. He finished with 33-33-66, over the par 70, pit-marked Blue Mound Country Club course.

In second place out of the field of 11 nonexempt players, those who must qualify for the meet, was Gardner Dickinson Jr., of St. Andrews, Ill. He had a pair of 68.

J. Kramer Hints He May Sign Up To Play Trabert

NEW YORK (AP)—Jack Kramer says he may come out of semi-retirement and play Tony Trabert on a professional tennis swing next fall—if the deal can be arranged.

"Frankly, I'm very much interested in signing Trabert to a pro contract, granting he has a big year," the young Los Angeles promoter, one of the game's greatest players, added today. "I can offer him as good a contract as I did Frank Sedgman—$75,000."

Kramer, whose tour has suffered during the last two years for need of new blood, said he had discussed the idea with various tennis promoters around the country.

"They all insist that I would be a better drawing card against Trabert than Pancho Gonzales," he said. "This seems to be the lineup they want and so I can't afford to be modest about it."

Kramer has been on the sidelines during the past several months while Gonzales fattened his tennis reputation at the expense of Sedgman, Pancho Segura and others. Sedgman, who underwent an appendectomy yesterday, doesn't figure in future plans.

"Trabert's Wimbledon victory gave him a tremendous boost," big Jake said. "Now if he can win the Nationals at Forest Hills and help us keep the Davis Cup, he'll really be ripe. He can make a good pile of dough in two years."

Trabert has announced his desire to go into professional tennis, when his record warrants.

Johnson Moves Ahead At Tacoma

TACOMA (AP)—Top-ranked Franklin Johnson of San Diego, Calif., and other seeded players moved into the third round of the Pacific Northwest tennis championships Wednesday after a day of easy victories.

Johnson bounced Bob Prince of Seattle, 6-1, 6-1, Tuesday, and second-seeded Dick Moody and Rob Hillgemann, No. 3, also had little trouble.

Moody, of Santa Monica, Calif., beat Bill Fredericks of Bremerton, 6-1, 6-1, and Hilgemann of Modesto, Calif., ousted Dave Broom of Spokane, 6-3, 6-2.

Don Stensaa of Amarillo, Tex., took three sets to beat Masami Kono, Seattle, 7-5, 4-6, 6-3.

In the women's division, second-seeded Joan Johnson of Los Angeles, advanced to the semifinals with a 6-2, 6-2 win over Elaine Mason of Palo Alto, Calif.

RESPECT FROM TEXAS

KING AND QUEEN COURT-HOUSE, Va. (AP)—You expect to hear about big things in Texas, but a Texan can tell you about some big things in Virginia.

The Texan is Sam Rayburn, speaker of the House of Representatives. He came off second best in a battle with a black bass at the King and Queen Rod and Gun Club here. During the battle the fish surfaced and was plainly seen by the speaker and his companion, Rep. Prince Preston of Georgia. You'd expect the fish to be big after successfully battling a Texan—and it was.

New Yacht Record To Hawaiian Isles Appears Certain

HONOLULU (AP)—A new record in the 2,200-mile Transpacific Yacht race seemed certain Wednesday and there was prospect of a close two-boat finish for the first time in the 49-year-old classic.

Richard S. Rheem's ketch Morning Star held a lead estimated at 60 miles early Tuesday. But William S. Pomeroy's 108-foot schooner Ramona, which gambled on a late northerly tack, may be in better wind position for the run to the Diamond Head finish.

In good winds, the Ramona, a San Francisco boat, is slightly faster than Rheem's 98-foot Morning Star, a Los Angeles craft.

The Morning Star, holder of the 1951 crossing record of 10 days 10 hours and 13 minutes, should reach Diamond Head between 7 and 9 p.m. Hawaii time, Wednesday night, the Coast Guard cutter Gresham estimated.

This would break Morning Star's own record by nearly 24 hours in the San Pedro-to-Honolulu race.

The Gresham radioed Tuesday night that the Mai Tai, John S. Griffith's 65-foot yawl, had lost her main boom and was out of the race. The Mai Tai said no one to Honolulu.

Ed Davis, Eunice Noel Roll Combined 1,198

Ed Davis and Eunice Noel rolled a combined total of 1,198 pins Tuesday night to lead bowlers in mixed doubles at the Roseburg Alleys.

Individual men's high total were led by Don Nye with a 218 game and Davis with a 549 series. Other high games included a 210 by Davis and a 204 by George Sanders.

For the ladies, Sylvia Anderson had a 150 game and Mary Circle rolled a 489 series.

Other high doubles included the following: Don Nye and Mary Circle 1,177; John Q. Smith and Connie Nelson 1,158; Bob Nesbitt and Dell Mix 1,138; Ted Buettner and Sylvia Anderson 1,135.
