

THE YONCALLA METHODIST CHURCH was the scene of a beautiful wedding Friday, July 8, at 6 p.m. when Miss Rose Lois Parks of Yoncalla, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Parks of Myrtle Creek, became the bride of Robert Campbell of Yoncalla, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Campbell of Morrison, Ill. The Rev. R. W. Knight performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of 100 relatives and friends. (Picture by Clark's Studio, Cottage Grove).

The chance of the church was beautifully decorated with large bouquets of roses and Madonna lilies. Two tall baskets in front of the chancel held regal and Madonna lilies and pink carnations. The pews were decorated with pink satin ribbon and pink gladioli. High school friends of the bride did the decorating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a ballerina length dress of embroidered organza. Her finger length veil was held in place with a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible, topped with a lavender orchid and streamers of white satin ribbon. Her only ornament was a string of pearls.

Miss Maxine Potter was maid of honor. She wore a yellow net ballerina dress over yellow taffeta and carried an old fashioned nosegay of yellow and white carnations. Miss Anne Lasswell and Miss Jean Scott were bridesmaids. They wore ballerina length dresses of aqua net over taffeta and carried an old fashioned nosegay of pink and white carnations. Little Barbara Stapelman, cousin of the bridegroom, in pink taffeta under pink net, scattered petals before the bride. Melvin Atkinson of Drain was best man and ushers were Sam Currier and Bill Benner. Misses Sharon Timmons and Lola Higley, in pale blue net dresses, lighted the candles. Miss Nadine Phillips had charge of the guest book, and Miss Verna Buck had charge of the gifts. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the recreation room of the church. The mantle was banked with Ocean breeze and pink roses. The serving table was covered with a white linen cloth, topped with pale pink net. The large three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, was baked by Mrs. Charlie Kirkie and decorated by Mrs. Kirkie. Mrs. Tim Miller, the bridegroom's aunt, served the cake. Mrs. Charlie Meier served the coffee and Mrs. Eldon Lee the punch.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell left immediately following the ceremony for a wedding trip to Seattle. She chose as her going away costume, a beige box suit with white accessories and the corsage from her wedding bouquet.

THE WEDDING of Lois Marie Fosback, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Fosback of Dillard, and Ronald Lee Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Elliott, of Glade was the largest event of the year at the Dillard Methodist Church, when it took place Sunday, July 3, on the 25th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents and the 50th wedding anniversary of her grandmother, Mrs. Emma Fosback, and her late husband. (Picture by Kash of Winston Studio).

The Rev. Rinke A. Feenstra performed the impressive double ring ceremony at three o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of one hundred and twenty-five relatives and friends.

The quaint old Methodist Church was beautifully decorated with a large archway of ivy, entwined with roses. Two large floor baskets of regal lilies, spirals of blue and white delphinium and Esther Reed daisies flanked the candelabra holding tall white cathedral candles. Decorations were accomplished by Mrs. Laurence Hercher, Mrs. Paul Rummell, Mrs. Estel Nickerson, Mrs. Allan Owens, Mrs. Willard Laurence and Mrs. Rosa Heinbach.

Mrs. Norma Hoskins, pianist, played softly the traditional wedding marches and accompanied her husband, Dick Hoskins, who sang "Oh Promise Me" and "The Wedding Prayer." The candelabra lighters were Linda Elliott, sister of the bridegroom, wearing a pink formal with white wristlet; and Dave Elliott, cousin of the bride. The ushers were Oliver Fosback and Jim Fosback, brothers of the bride.

The bride given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of filmy nylon tulle skirt over nylon net and satin, topped with an all lace fitted bodice with a sweetheart neckline, scalloped with iridescent sequins. The long lace sleeves were pointed at the wrist. The maid of honor, Joan Rose, wore a pink ballerina formal and carried a nosegay of rose carnations. The bridesmaids, Laverne Elliott, sister of the bridegroom, wore a yellow nylon net ballerina length formal, and Donna Long, cousin of the bride, wore a lavender net formal. Each carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

Attending the bridegroom was Dick Hoskins, best man, and Oliver and Jim Fosback.

The wedding reception followed on the spacious lawn at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Fosback, in Dillard. The bride's table was covered with a Florentine shell pink lace tablecloth, and centered with the four-tiered wedding cake, which was topped with a miniature bride couple in an archway of maline, and flanked by tall tapers in crystal holders. Bouquets of Esther Reed daisies and pink roses completed the lovely table decorations which were in charge of Mrs. Bruce Cook, Mrs. Harold Gilman and Mrs. Edwin Fosback. After the traditional first piece of the cake was cut by the bride couple it was served by Mrs. Sheldon Baker of Portland, and Mrs. Harold Gilman of Dillard, aunts of the bride. Pouring punch was Mrs. Ralph Hoskins and Mrs. Edwin Fosback. Card tables and chairs were effectively placed around the beautiful lawn under the trees. The guests were invited in the living room, which was attractive with bouquets of Esther Reed daisies and regal lilies, to view the many lovely gifts. Mrs. Oliver Fosback and Mrs. Jim Fosback opened and displayed the gifts. Donna Long and Laverne Elliott were in charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride chose a pink linen suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage. After wedding trip to the Redwoods and Crater Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott will be at home in the Orchard Trailer Park at Winston. The bride graduated from the Roseburg Senior High School in 1953. Ronald Elliott was graduated with the Roseburg High school class of 1954 and is now employed at the Dillard Super Service station.

Out-of-town guests for the nuptials were Mrs. Emma Fosback of Portland, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Gertrude Lewis of Eugene, grandmother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Baker and Patsy of Portland; Mrs. Jess Pullam and Wanda of Eugene; Ralph Fosback of Eugene; Mrs. Alta Fosback of Hood River; Mr. and Mrs. B. J.
