

THE ANDERSON-DEISTER WEDDING PARTY is pictured above. The bride, JoAnn Marie Deister, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Deister of this city. The bridegroom, DeLoss Anderson, is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Anderson of Antioch, Calif., formerly of Roseburg.

Before an archway and picket fence, decorated with ivy, fern and roses, and flanked by baskets of mixed summer flowers, JoAnn Marie Deister and DeLoss Anderson were united in marriage Friday, June 24, at the Church of the Open Bible in Roseburg. The Rev. Clarence Anderson, father of the bridegroom, performed the double ring ceremony at eight o'clock in the evening before friends and relatives.

Mrs. G. C. Henderson, organist, accompanied Mrs. Kenneth Ewens when she sang "I Love You Truly." Wendell Johnson played a violin solo. "Dedication to Sehu-man," Mrs. Ewens wore a pink formal gown. Candelights were Linda Deister, sister of the bride, in a yellow gown; and Paula Long who wore pink net. Each wore bands of flowers in their hair.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was beautiful in a white gown. The skirt and train were of white slipper satin. The bodice was of nylon lace over slipper satin. Her nylon net veil, edged with lace, was held in place by a tiara of crystal and pearls, and was fashioned by the bride's mother. The bride's bouquet was of red roses.

Mrs. Joyce Solnick, sister of the bride, was matron of honor in an orchid taffeta floor-length gown. Bridesmaids were Peggy Bundy in a blue net formal; Gwendolyn Foster in yellow net; and Carolyn Sinclair in blue net. All carried fans, fashioned of roses and delphiniums. Flower girls Sharon and Brenda Solnick, nieces of the bride, wore green sheer over green satin floor length gowns.

Eddie Anderson was best man for his brother. Ushers were Charles Ridinger, Buddy Morris and Vernon Steyer.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Deister wore a blue print silk gown. The bridegroom's mother wore a two piece navy gown. Both wore pink carnation corsages.

One hundred fifty attended the reception, which was held at the First Christian Church social room. Mixed flowers and fern were used in decorating. Many lovely and useful gifts were displayed. A beautiful three-tiered cake was served by Mrs. Albert McDonald and Mrs. Kenneth Long.

Carol Bjerke and Ellen Marie Cornett poured the punch. Virginia Albion was in charge of the guest book.

For their wedding trip to San Francisco and Antioch, the bride chose a grey silk and cotton suit dress, trimmed in black velvet,

MR. AND MRS. KEITH CHROWL, above, pose for their wedding portrait following their marriage Sunday evening at the Roseburg Seventh-day Adventist Church. The bride, Eileen Brown, daughter of Mrs. Cliff Grasser, Lookingglass, and Keith Chrowl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam C. Chrowl of Klamath Falls, were united in marriage at a lovely candle-light ceremony performed at 8 o'clock by Elder E. W. Striplin in the presence of 200 friends and relatives. (Picture by Wilson Studio).

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Ronald Montgomery, was beautiful in her floor-length gown of white net over taffeta. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a coronet of pearls, and she carried a large white orchid surrounded by white carnations. For her going away trip she chose a blue-grey knit suit with pink accessories.

Miss Shirley Brown was maid of honor for her sister, Miss Sally Brown, another sister, Miss Edith Cooper and Mrs. Lova Anderson, college mates of the bride, were the bridesmaids. They wore matching gowns, ballerina length, of blue net. The flower girls, Debbie Montgomery and Wanda Chrowl, wore pink net frocks. Renee Montgomery, a niece of the bride, and Steve Grasser, brother of the bride, were candelights.

Eugene Chrowl served as best man for his brother, Roger Chrowl, Donald Chrowl and Duane Brown, brother of the bride, served as ushers.

Mrs. Cliff Grasser, mother of the bride, chose a navy blue gown with white accessories, and Mrs. Sam Chrowl, mother of the bridegroom, wore brown with white accessories. Both wore pink rosebud corsages.

PINOCHLE CLUB MEETS AT OAKLAND

Fair Oaks Pinochle Club was graciously entertained Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Austin. Beautiful bouquets of roses were used about the rooms.

For the evenings pinochle play, Mr. and Mrs. Austin won high score; Harry Read and Dorothy Norton, second high.

At midnight a delicious potluck supper was served by the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Austin, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Elwin King, Harry Read, Mrs. Magie Francis, Lannie and Kay Wheeler and Peggy Jean Austin.

The next meeting will be held Saturday night, August 6, at the Fair Oaks Grange Hall with Mr. and Mrs. Gene Wheeler as hosts.

MRS. ADDISON HOSTS WINSTON GAY LADIES

The Gay Ladies of West Winston met Wednesday at the home of Bonnie Addison to honor Margaret Wolfgang. A short business meeting was held and new officers were elected. Games were played with several participants winning prizes.

Light refreshments were served to 15 members and one guest, Mrs. Eunice Horne. Next meeting will be held at the home of Margaret Wolfgang in honor of LeNole Brown and Phyllis Devitt.

ST. JOSEPH'S CATHOLIC CHURCH was the scene of a very lovely wedding Thursday, June 30, when Nancy Carol Michael, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Michael of Green, became the bride of Harold Allen Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hansen of Austin, Minn. Father Edmund Hyland performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of friends and relatives. The bride and bridegroom are pictured above cutting the traditional first piece of their wedding cake.

The altar was beautifully decorated with two large floor baskets of gladioli, snapdragons, sweet peas and fern. Two smaller arrangements were placed in front of the communion rail.

Mrs. Robert Bauer played softly on the organ as the wedding guests assembled. She also played the traditional wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. William McLaughlin, as she sang "Ave Maria."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a white ballerina length dress with full skirt of white net. The dress was fashioned with lace bodice and cap sleeves. The shoulder-dip veil of white net was fastened with an orange-blossom tiara.

She carried one white orchid, with her mother's crystal rosary, and her paternal grandmother's white linen handkerchief. She wore her maternal grandmother's pearl necklace.

Mrs. C. E. Donelan, matron of honor, wore an orchid ballerina length gown with full nylon net skirt, and a head-piece of orchid net and ribbon. She carried a nosegay of yellow carnations.

Dick Linden was best man for the bridegroom. Donald Michael, brother of the bride, and Robert Johnson were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Michael chose a pink linen dress with white accessories, and a corsage of white gardenias. In the absence of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bergh of Roseburg acted as honorary parents. Mrs. Bergh wore a rust-colored dress with tan accessories and white gardenia corsage.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served to twenty-three guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Follett of Green. The rooms were beautifully decorated with white tapers, and bowls of sweet peas and roses. Breakfast was served to the guests by Mrs. Grover Follett and Mrs. C. E. Lovelady.

The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom, and decorated with white bells and flowers. It was

MR. AND MRS. GERALD JACKSON, above, were married at 8 p.m. July 1 at the First Christian Church by the Rev. Newell Morgan. The bride was Shirley Ruth Sargent before her marriage. She wore a pink brocade dress with white seed pearl hat and white accessories. Mrs. Faye Endicott and Carl Wiles were attendants. The bride's mother, wore a grey dress with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a beige dress with white accessories. A reception followed at the home of the bride. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Endicott, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Endicott and the bride's grandfather, R. L. Johnson, of Oklahoma City, Okla. (Picture by Wilson Studio).

CONN HOME IS SCENE OF PARTY

Mrs. H. P. Conn invited a group of neighbors and friends to a housebold party at her home Monday afternoon. Mrs. Woodrow Conn presented games and the demonstration.

Visiting and refreshments were enjoyed by Mesdames T. H. Frazier, T. B. Busenbark, Fred Goff, J. E. Conn, Jerry Sldham and son, Scotty; D. N. Busenbark, Scott Sldham, Helen Soward of Portland; Clarence Coffell, R. A. Busenbark, Bob Tjomsland and children; Karl Hofman, Carrie Tison, M. E. Jacobson, Andy Arlenko and children; the hostess and the demonstrator.

will return in two weeks.

The bridegroom has completed one year at the Oregon Institute of Technology at Klamath Falls, and is presently employed at Umpqua Plywood Corp. They will return to O.I.T. in the fall for completion of his studies. Mrs. Hansen has been employed as an operator at the Pacific Telephone Company for the past two years.

The couple will be at home in the Fairhaven Apartments following their trip East.

MATTHEWS FAMILY HAS SUNDAY PICNIC

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Matthews and son, Michael, and grandson, Teddy Montague, of Castro Valley, Calif., arrived Saturday morning to spend the weekend visiting at the home of Mr. Matthews' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bushnell on Reston road. The Matthews and Bushnells spent Saturday in Brewster Canyon and cooked their dinner on a campfire in Busenbark Park.

On Sunday the Matthews families gathered at Busenbark Park for a picnic dinner. Those present to enjoy the picnic were: Mr. and Mrs. Bert Matthews and son, Michael, and grandson, Teddy Montague; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Matthews and sons, Mike and Jeff; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Buswell and daughter, Deborah; Sandra and Kay Kenworthy of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Matthews of Melrose; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Matthews and Virginia of Reston; Richard Willis of Lookingglass; and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bushnell of Tennile.

The Bert Matthews left Monday for their home in Castro Valley.

IN AN 8 p.m. ceremony Saturday at Green Community Church, Miss Janis Vosika, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Vosika, became the bride of Delmar Elliott, son of Mrs. Laura Elliott of Green. The Rev. Gordon A. Wood performed the impressive double ring ceremony before a candlelight garden setting of shrubs and flowers. The pianist, Mrs. Carol Todd, accompanied Mrs. Bev Ewens, who sang, "O Promise Me," and "Because." (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab).

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a white satin and lace gown, entrain. Her fingertip illusion veil was held in place by a beaded tiara. Her bouquet was a large orchid, surrounded by baby orchids and white carnations. She wore a beautiful rhinestone necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

Helen Crist was maid of honor in a waltz length dress of pink taffeta and matching picture hat and shoes. Bridesmaids, Joy Zeller and Bonnie Vosika, wore identical dresses in shades of orchid with matching hats and shoes. The bride's attendants carried nosegays of pink carnations, surrounded by white Esther Reed daisies and a frill of tulle. Bonnie Roell, flower girl, was dressed in pink taffeta and wore a headband of small pink daisies. Candelights, Anita Elliott and Lorna Vance, wore waltz length gowns of taffeta and net, and pink carnation wristlets.

Eddie Monrean was ring bearer. Ronald Potec was best man.

Ushers were George Todd and Virgil Broadwater.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Vosika chose an ice blue shantung gown with matching hat and pink accessories. She wore a pink carnation corsage. Mother of the bridegroom wore pink crepe with matching hat, and a white carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Vosika home. The bride's aunt, Mrs. Helen Steltenberg, cut the large three tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Connie Pratt, sister of the bridegroom, served punch, and Mrs. Grace Nicholls poured. The table was beautifully decorated with orchid net and ribbon. Sharon Monrean and Anita Arola arranged the gifts. Sally Broadwater had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Leoma Monrean assisted about the rooms.

The bride is employed as stenographer at Industrial Supply Co. The bridegroom will be graduated from the Roseburg School of Business in September.

KNUDTSONS'

Peter Terris

china originals

Think of it! All the beauty and quality that only real china possesses — plus amazing durability that lets you cook in it, bake in it, serve in it. Come in and see our handsome selection of patterns and accessory pieces.

Only $16.95

Calico Leaves
made by
CASTLETON CHINA CO.

Real China
...You can use and enjoy every day!

Guaranteed Against Breakage
...for one year under normal usage!

Cook on it — Serve on it
...Use it from Oven-to-table, save time!

ON SALE NOW IN OUR CHINA DEPT.

KNUDTSONS' Jewelers
Registered Jewelers
American Gem Society

ACROSS FROM THE DOUGLAS COUNTY STATE BANK