Turk-Chamberlin Wedding Takes Place

Miss Peggy Joyce Chamberlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Chamberlin, and Kenneth A. Turk, all of Myrtle Creek, were married Friday July 1, at an impressive wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Norton, uncle and aunt of the bride. The Rev. E. W. Powell performed the ceremony at 7:30 o'clock in the evening before twenty-five relatives and friends of the couple. The single ring ceremony took place before the fireplace, which was flanked by baskets of summer flowers. Candalaria decorated the mantle. Ruth Norton, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles. The bride chose a rose, sleeveless gown with scalloped neckline and white accessories for her wedding. She wore a rhinestone pin. A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. Delicious refreshments were served buffet style, following the cutting of the lovely decorated cake by the bride and bridegroom. Mr. Turk is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Coleman, Harper, Ore., and is a graduate of Myrtle Creek High School, from which the bride also graduated. She was a school cheer leader. Following a trip to visit the bridegroom's parents and into California, the couple are at home near Myrtle Creek, where he is employed by Umpqua Plywood.

Mrs. Roy Hebard, 821 S. Jackson St., with Mrs. Bert Fiksdahl as the joint hostess. All members and friends of the church are most cordially invited. Anyone desiring transportation to the meeting is asked to call 3-7212 or 3-3121 and it will be furnished.

GLIDE COUPLE IS HONORED AT PICNIC

A group of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nichols of Glide surprised them Thursday evening at a picnic dinner to honor their 10th wedding anniversary. Three couples surprised the Nichols at their home at 5:30 p.m. and took them to Baker Park where the rest of the group awaited them. The Nichols were presented an electric combination fryer and roaster from their many friends, after which all sat down to the picnic dinner of fried chicken, covered dishes, watermelon and a beautifully decorated wedding cake made by Mrs. Carlson. Those attending the picnic were Mr. and Mrs. George Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Johnson, son Terry and daughter, Marion; Mr. and Mrs. Gus Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Danielson, Mrs. Asa DeGroot and sons, Johnny, Sven and Kris; Mrs. Crystal Freeman, Ed Maillard, Bill Gilbert, Kenny Moss, Vic Wendt and the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. Nichols, sons, Eddie and Harry, and daughter, Brenda. Those participating in the anniversary gift but unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hurd of Roseburg, Clay Bronson, Roy Gager, Al Cusick and Mrs. Arthur Selby.

Pierce-Tozar Nuptials Take Place In San Diego

Monica Tozar, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Tozar, and Alfred S. Tozar Jr., of San Diego, became the bride of Lester Earl Pierce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Pierce of Roseburg at 2 p.m. July 2, at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in San Diego. The bride was charming in a waltz-length gown of lace and tulle. A fitted jacket with long sleeves covered the strapless bodice. Her fingertip veil fell from a tiara of seedpearls. She carried a prayer book topped by camellias white carnations and stephanotis. Sandra Sharp was maid of honor and Owen Abbey was best man. The bride's mother wore a print dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a dark blue dress with white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white carnations. Mrs. Theresa Sharkey, Wills Whitney and Harriet Murphy assisted at the reception, which followed at the House of Hospitality in Balboa Park. Following a honeymoon to Yosemite National Park, Sacramento, San Francisco and Eureka, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce are now at home with their friends at 1743 Myrtle Avenue, West Roseburg. The bridegroom was graduated from Roseburg High School in 1952. With the exception of the two years he served in the Navy, he has made his home here all of his life.
