

Hits the Spot

Eliminating weeds from a lawn is not difficult if the grass is sprayed with a solution of water and chemical weed killer. Be careful, though, around evergreens and other desirable plant life. A safe practice is to "spot water" with a galvanized steel sprinkling can, aiming the can nozzle directly at weeds.

Interplanetary Assn. Discloses Conference Secret

GENEVA (AP)—The "World Interplanetary Assn." disclosed here that the secret reason the heads here this week.

This is it: To discuss how to deal with beings from other planets who have delivered a "final warning" to the world by destroying atomic plants in Britain and Russia.

The association made this disclosure in a memorandum to the Big Four, signed by its president, Prof. Alfred Nahon of Lausanne. The association's congress unanimously approved it last week, he said.

The utilization of atomic energy—even for peaceful purposes—was about to cause the disintegration of the universe, the memorandum declared. The inhabitants of other planets realized the danger, and the only way to prevent attacks from outer space was to abandon the atom.

The memorandum called on the Big Four to tell the world the truth about aircraft from outer space, "observed in all countries since 1945," in order to avoid a "stupid panic" when the facts finally become known.

Heavy Labor Use In Russia Amazes U.S. Farmers

MOSCOW (AP)—Twelve American farmers headed for the Soviet hinterlands here to see how Russia's farmers do it.

The visiting American farm delegation left on a 30-day tour of the Ukraine, Central Asia and previously virgin lands of Siberia now being cultivated.

The Americans got their first Russian soil in their shoes this week in a visit to Loosh, a collective farm 20 miles west of Moscow. They reported the livestock looked fine but the expenditure of labor would shock farmers at home.

"The number of women at work startled them too."

"We saw as many as 30 people in a hay field," Charles J. Hearst, of Cedar Falls, Iowa, reported. "If back home in Iowa we had three people working the same hay field that would be a lot. But apparently they've got a lot of manpower to spare here—or should we say womanpower?"

Winding up three days in Moscow vicinity, Hearst and John M. Steddon, of Granger, Iowa, commented particularly on the extreme friendliness of the people, "even considering we are an official delegation getting extra-fine treatment."

"We had expected to see some hatred built up for us over these years," said Steddon, "but none so far is apparent."

HOUSE DEFEATS BILL

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Education and Labor Committee Wednesday defeated, 17-10, a move to bar federal school construction funds to states or local school districts practicing racial segregation.

The vote cleared the way for final committee approval, possibly Thursday, of a bill calling for a four-year, $1,600,000,000 federal-state program of school construction.

Nine Democrats and eight Republicans teamed up to vote against the antisegregation amendment authored by Rep. Powell (D-NY) Negro member and pastor of New York City's largest Negro church.
