Talking Myna Bird Routs Office Thieves

NEWARK, N. J. (AP) — A talking myna bird was credited with routing thieves in the midst of ransacking the office of Linda Foods, Inc.

Carl Hubner, the firm president, told detectives he had the myna named Julius, in his office next to the one entered. Julius, he said, greets the firm's employees every morning by screeching: "What do you want? Let's go!"

The detectives figure that's what Julius did when burglars entered and that's why the burglars fled with only a dozen T-shirts and a few cans of boned chicken.

Delinquency Indictment Against Fongs Holds

PORTLAND (AP) — Circuit Judge James W. Crawford refused Tuesday to dismiss an indictment charging Wayne and Sherry Fong with contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The Fongs also are under indictment for the slaying of Diane Hank, 15. They were convicted of first degree murder in that case recently, but the verdict was set aside and a new trial ordered.

Chevrolet's got a new honey of a hardtop

... with a lower-than-ever price tag!

Maybe you've had a yen for a hardtop but couldn't quite squeeze it into your budget. If so, this baby's for you! It's the hardtop as only Chevrolet builds it. Long, low and plenty saucy, like its convertible cousin. It's an honest-to-goodness hardtop, too—no center pillars when you roll down the windows. Nothing but fresh air and a picture-window view. Best of all, this big, beautiful "Two-Ten" Sport Coupe is priced right down with the two-door sedans in Chevrolet's field. It lists for less than any other leading hardtop sold today. Come in and see what a walloping bargain Chevrolet's new hardtop is.
