CAMAS VALLEY SCOUTS WORK ON CHURCH HOUSE

Camas Valley Boy Scout Troop No. 23, spent a very busy and helpful day Saturday, scraping the loose paint from the Church House and getting it ready for a new coat of paint. Those who undertook the job were Wayman Schmidt, Micky Drake, Robert Thrash, John Wheeler, Clifford Wiley, Royce Kiser, Jimmy Delaney and Lynn Kirkendall.

The boys worked under the supervision of Robert Wheeler and Lyle Lee. The Camas Valley Grange ladies served lunch to the workers.

CLOVERLEAF MEMBERS VISIT AT MYRTLE CREEK

Cloverleaf Odd Fellow Lodge met Thursday evening at the IOOF Hall with Chester Williams, noble grand, and Dale Bonney, vice-grand, presiding.

It was voted to build the fence around the grounds, where the events of the Douglas County Timber Days Celebration are held. Charlie Clark and Milo Rullock, both of Oakland, were accepted as new candidates.

At the close of the evening, Harry Bird served cake and punch to the members present.

Saturday evening a group of Odd Fellows from Sutherlin went to Myrtle Creek to attend lodge, and Charles Clark and Milo Rullock were given the initiatory degree.

A very enjoyable evening was spent by Gene Wheeler, Alva Manning, Dale Donney, Ted Lagore, Harry Bird, Chester Williams, Gene Todd, special district grand master, and the two new members, Charles Clark and Milo Rullock.

MELROSE GRANGE SETS ANNUAL PICNIC

Melrose Grange members decided to have their annual picnic Sunday, July 31, at the J. E. Young ranch at 1 p.m. Members and families are invited to come with food, own table service, chairs and card tables, if possible.

V. S. Woodruff, master, conducted the meeting. Officers pro tem were Margaret Aydelott, George Showers, Margaret Reese and T. B. Busenark. It was announced that the Douglas County Historical Society would meet Sunday, July 24, at the old Melrose Chapel at 1:30 p.m. at a picnic. All those interested are invited. A program has been planned. Pomona Grange will meet Saturday, July 30, at Myrtle Creek. The Pomona picnic will be held at the Croft farm at Azalea. The HE Club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Howard Crook with Kay Simmons as co-hostess at a 7:30 p.m. dessert-supper. Roll call will be answered by giving a neighbors kindly deed.

A rock display table will be featured at the next grange meeting and members are invited to bring samples. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Abel and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Chitwood will serve.

The program, presented by lecturer, Trozie Nielsen, was on home and farm safety with all members participating. Members are to bring items to the next meeting to auction off, to raise funds for the lecturer.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kreuger.

YONCALLA WSCS HAS INTERESTING MEET

The monthly meeting of the WSCS of the Yoncalla Methodist Church was held Thursday afternoon. Mrs. George Edes had charge of the devotion, using as her topic "Friends." Mrs. Dore Kingery gave a very fine talk on the Kiowa tribe of Indians from Oklahoma. Mrs. Eldon Lee conducted the candlelight service and gave out the pledge cards for the coming year.

Mrs. Fred Lee gave a fine book report on "The Master Callet for Thee." The club voted to add to the Sunshine fund.

Mrs. Cloyce Avey gave the society a mix master to be used in the kitchen for all social functions. Mrs. Eric Stenquist gave the society a lovely aluminum coffee percolator. The society voted to hold one missionary meeting a month in the afternoons, and one business meeting in the evening each month. Mrs. Eldon Lee asked permission of the society to hold a circle meeting at her home for the younger married ladies of the church, to get them interested in WSCS work. Mrs. Lee served a delicious lunch following the closing of the meeting.
