

CUTTING the traditional first piece of their wedding cake are Mr. and Mrs. Terrell Simmons, who were married by the Rev. E. W. Powell of Myrtle Creek Saturday afternoon. The bride, Della Rae Wright, is the daughter of Fred Wright of Days Creek and Mrs. Iva Pinney of Myrtle Point. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Simmons of Canyonville. (Picture by Warren Studio).

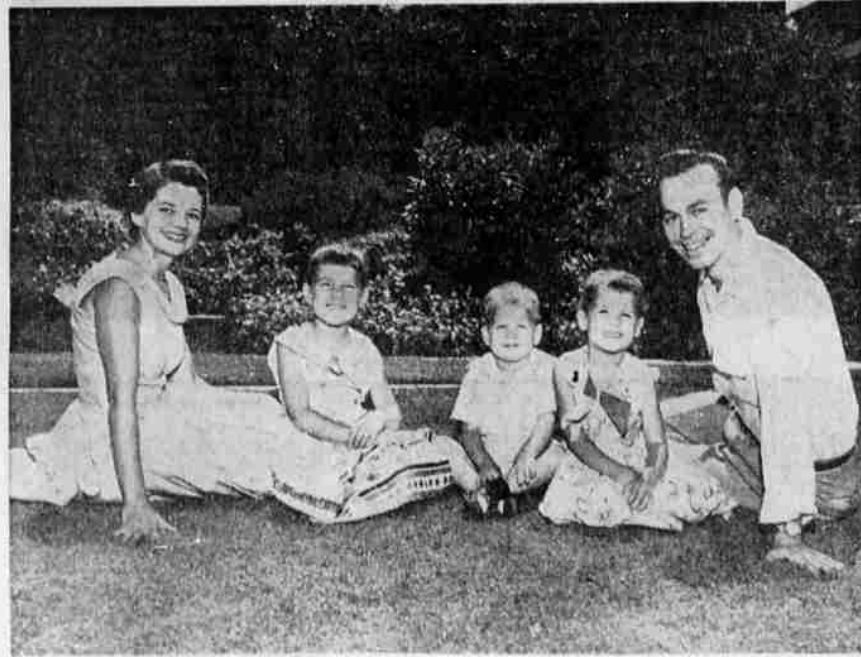

Saturday afternoon the Masonic Temple in Canyonville was the scene of the loveliest of summer weddings, when Miss Della Rae Wright, daughter of Fred Wright of Days Creek and Mrs. Iva Pinney of Myrtle Point, became the bride of Terrell Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Simmons of Canyonville. The Rev. E. W. Powell of Myrtle Creek performed the impressive double ring ceremony with one hundred and fifty relatives and friends of the couple present.

The bridal party took its place before a beautiful fan-shaped arrangement of flowers and ferns to the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. Lawrence Michaels, who also played the other traditional wedding music as well as the accompaniment for Miss Barbara McDonald, who sang "God's Little Candles" and "I'll Always Walk Beside You." Other floral touches were large floor baskets of lilies and delphinium on either side, which were flanked by tall candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowning in a floor length dress fashioned of white satin and lace. Her veil was of illusion in finger-tip length and was bordered with lace. Her flowers were white carnations centered with a white orchid.

The bride's twin sister, Mrs. Calvin Robison, gowning in a yellow formal, was matron of honor, while Miss Joan Rae Fairfield in blue, and Miss Florence Griffin in pale green, were bridesmaids.

They carried nosegays of white carnations. Miss Vivian Williams, also in blue, and Miss Sharon Clark in pink were candelholders, while Kristine Powell and her cousin, Timothy Powell, were flower girl and boy. The former wore a pink frock while the latter carried out the theme with a pink shirt. The bridegroom had as his best man, his cousin, Calvin Robison.

VISITORS in Roseburg from Oakland, Calif., this week were Mr. and Mrs. James Bailey and their three children: Theresa Marie, 6; Pamela, 4, and Steven Mark, 3, who visited Mrs. Bailey's aunt, Miss Naomi Scott, and Miss Helen Casey on Blakeley Street. Mrs. Bailey, the former Suzanne Wiles, attended high school here her senior year and lived at that time with Miss Scott and Miss Casey. The family had spent their vacation visiting relatives and friends in Oregon and left Wednesday for its home in California. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab).

Straughan, of Hillsboro, at the Episcopal Church in Hillsboro. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Coon of Roseburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Straughan, Hillsboro. (Picture by Bruno Studio).

All Saints Episcopal Church of Hillsboro was the scene of a pretty afternoon wedding, when Miss Carolee Hickman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Coon of Roseburg, became the bride of Charles T. Straughan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Straughan of Hillsboro. The Rev. Steen Whiteside officiated at the 4 o'clock ceremony in the presence of friends and relatives Saturday, July 16.

Varina French, accompanied by Mrs. Ellis Poullette, musician, sang "Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her stepfather, was beautiful in white net gown with lace top and lace insertions in the skirt. She wore an illusion net veil, trimmed with Italian lace, and with a crown of seed pearls and sequins. Her corsage was a white orchid, surrounded with stephanotis.

Mrs. V. G. Hughes, sister of the bride, of Napa, Calif., was matron of honor in a pink ballerina net over taffeta gown with lace jacket. She carried a bouquet of pink and orchid sweetpeas, around pink carnations, tied with pink ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Nadine McClellan of Grants Pass, who wore an orchid net over taffeta gown with lace jacket; and Sandra Zee, cousin of the bride, of Roseburg, who wore an identical gown. They carried bouquets to match that of the matron of honor.

Miss Cathy Hickman, cousin of the bride, was flower girl, Jamie Coon, brother of the bride, was ringbearer. John Gorman was best man and ushers were Douglas and Gerald Straughan, brothers of the bridegroom. Paul Messer, acolyte, lighted the candles.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlors. Mrs. John Gorman presented the guest book, Mrs. Duane Thorson, Mrs. Ross Walters and Mrs. R. E. Martz arranged the gifts. Mrs. Martha Wright, Mrs. George Ryan and Mrs. Gus Carlson of Glendale entertained Thursday evening at a picnic dinner at Baker Park on the North Umpqua in honor of the 14th birthday of Brenda Nichols, and Mrs. Ed Wright, daughter of Mrs. Johnson.

After the guests of honor had opened their many birthday gifts, the hostesses served a lavish picnic dinner. Following the dinner Miss Marion Wright and Ed Maillard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Maillard Sr. of Coos Bay announced their engagement. Date of the wedding has not been set.

Those enjoying the affair were Monte McCready, Kenny Moss, Vic Wendt, Ed Maillard, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Evans and family; Karen Weaver, Mrs. Pauline Conyers and daughter, Judy; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nichols and sons, Harry and Eddie; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Johnson and son, Terry; Mr. and Mrs. George Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Carlson and daughters, Sandra and Carla; and the honored guests Brenda Nichols and Marion Wright.

Friends sending gifts but unable to attend were Clay Bronson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Danielson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brelay and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Parrott of Camas Valley, grandparents of Brenda.
