DILLARD COUPLE HAS VACATION TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bratsch and son, Gene, returned to Dillard Sunday from a very interesting two-week vacation trip to Washington, Oregon and California. Their first stopover was in Redmond, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Jim Griffith and family, Jimmy, Kathy and Linda, old friends from their former home in St. Helens. The Bratschs drove to Stanfield to visit Mr. and Mrs. Bart Gayman, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gayman at Ordance. They were also dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Corliss and three daughters, Carolyn, Jackie and Marilyn. With them they enjoyed a picnic lunch at McNary Dam. They then crossed to Underwood, Wash., and stayed overnight at the home of Mrs. Bratsch's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Morby, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morby. While there they met another cousin, Bud Morby, and daughter from Vancouver, Wash., whom she had not seen in twenty years.

They toured the North Bonneville Dam from the Washington side and drove to St. Helens where they were houseguests at the homes of her brother, Roy Thomas, and her sister, Mrs. Pat Madigan, and family. The Bratschs came home Wednesday and then went to Coos Bay, North Bend and Charleston, where they went fishing and clam digging with relatives.

ELKTON LODGE HOSTS VISITORS

The Elkton Rebecca Lodge entertained the assembly president, Edna Bradley, who made her official visit Monday night. The table was decorated with roses, her flowers; and blue birds, her motif being: "Blue Birds of Happiness." Also present was the assembly office warden, Mary Barker, Sutherland, who was greeted with the president. There were 25 other visitors present from Sutherland, Gardner, Reedspot, Washington State, Idaho and California.

On the program was a song by Frances Canes; reading, Ann Beckley; accordion solo by Marcy Benderer; and one by Ruth Price; a skit given by Pat Anderson, Frances Price, Frances Canes and Laverne Harrel; song, "Roses for You" was sung by Frances Canes in honor of the president.

HELPING HAND CLUB HAS PICNIC AT PARK

Club members and invited friends of the Helping Hand Club met recently for an enjoyable afternoon at Umpqua Park, where a potluck picnic was held.

Mrs. Dolly Jamieson was in charge of arrangements. This being her last meeting with the club for awhile, members presented her with a handkerchief shower. She also received many beautiful cards of cheer. Mrs. Jamieson took movies of the affair. Next meeting will be Aug. 17 at the home of Mrs. Doris Wadsworth.
