It was the young pitchers, Whitey Ford, Bob Grim and Bob Turley, who were to give New York an American League pennant this year. But now that the heat's on, it's Tommy Byrne, an "old Yankee," who's winning the big ones.

A week ago, the Yanks needed an opening victory in their show-down series with Chicago to hold the lead. It was the 35-year-old Byrne who answered the call and won.

Last night the situation was the same and Manager Casey Stengel again called on his southpaw surprise. Byrne clicked again, holding Chicago to four hits and wrapping up a 1-0 decision as Yogi Berra slammed his 17th home run.

Leads By Two

That made New York's lead two games while Chicago stayed in a virtual second-place tie with Cleveland, beaten 5-1 at Boston.

Byrne, from the Reynolds-Raschi era, was in a bases-loaded, two-out jam in the third, giving a single and two walks. But he came through it and from then on didn't give Chicago another hit.

Dick Donovan was the loser.

Elsewhere, fifth-place Detroit kept a two-night pair at Baltimore 8-6 and 7-2. Washington split two with Kansas City, winning the first 9-3 and losing 3-1.

In the National, ever-winning Brooklyn and Don Newcombe stayed at it, beating Cincinnati 4-2 for his 17th victory. Runner-up Milwaukee chilled Philadelphia 6-3. New York beat Chicago in 12 innings 6-5, and Pittsburgh made it five straight, clipping St. Louis 3-1.

Score Rapped

Boston rapped Herb Score, the rookie who's failed five times against the Red Sox. Pants Santiago and Don Mossi for 11 hits including home runs by Ted Williams and Sammy White—to snap Cleveland's five-game streak. Frank Sullivan gave five hits, one Larry Doby's 17th homer, for his 13th victory.

Baltimore earned a 6-6 tie with the Tigers when Al Kaline lost a two-out fly in the lights in the ninth. Then Ray Boone doubled home the tie breaker in the 12th with his fourth hit. Ned Garver took charge in the nightcap, winning his 10th while topping the AL with 13 complete games. Jim Wilson, turning wild, was the loser.

Phils Beaten

Five runs in the fifth—with Johnny Logan and Hank Aaron bringing home two each with a double and single, respectively—carried Milwaukee in ahead of the Phils, who had won 14 of 15. Warren Spahn won his ninth against 10 defeats. Herm Wehmeier was the victim.

Dec Foudy dropped Al Dark's foul pop with two out in the 12th at Chicago and Dark followed it up with a run-scoring single that beat reliever Hal Jeffcoat and the Cubs. Don Liddle was the winner, relieving Sal Maglie, who gave way as the Cubs packed away at a 5-0 New York lead in the first.

St. Louis could have replaced Chicago in fifth place except for Dick Littlefield's six-hit pitching and home runs by Johnny O'Brien and Gene Freese. Luis Arroyo, was the loser.

Bob Porterfield snapped an eight-game losing streak as Washington pelted the A's for 17 hits, one Roy Sievers' 16th homer, in the opener. Then Alex Kellner and Tom Gorman checked the Nats on seven hits in the nightcap. Kellner chipped in a single with Enos Slaughter's triple and a double by Vic Power in a two-run third off loser Spec Shea.

Lancaster Smith, football coach at Jesuit High School in Dallas, spent his summers as an assistant district attorney, prosecuting criminal cases.

Robinson's Stock Takes Big Jump

NEW YORK (AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson came back with a bang today into the monthly boxing ratings issued by Ring magazine, and is rated the No. 3 challenger to world middleweight champion Bobo Olson.

Sugar Ray wasn't even in the first 10 last month, but his split decision over Rocky Castellani recently at San Francisco moved the former champion right back into contention. Robinson takes over the third place of Joey Giardello who was left out because of his sentence on assault charges.

Too Challenger

France's Charley Humez retains the No. 1 challenger role, although the International Boxing Club has selected Sugar Ray as the next opponent for Olson. Holly Mimms, of Washington, moved from third to second place, and Castellani, of Cleveland, dropped to fourth. Archie Moore, of San Diego, the light heavyweight champion, remains the No. 1 challenger for Rocky Marciano's heavyweight crown, and Floyd Patterson, of Brooklyn, moved into the No. 1 spot as the light heavyweight contender.

Patterson changes places with Harold Johnson, of Philadelphia, and Yolande Pompey, of Trinidad, moves from fourth to third place. Germany's Gerhard Hecht is now fourth, and Willie Pastrano, of New Orleans, who defeated Joey Maxim, is No. 5.

Chance Forced

Wallace (Buddy) Smith, of Cincinnati, forced a change in the lightweight ranks when he lifted the lightweight title from Jimmy Carter, New York, who dropped to No. 1 challenger. Ralph Dupas, of New Orleans, the leading contender last month, now is second, with European titleholder Dullio Loi of Italy, third.

Flash Elorde, of the Philippines, who defeated Sandy Saddler, the featherweight champion from New York, in Manila, now is rated seventh. France's Ray Fanech still is the No. 1 contender.

PIRATES STINKING

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates have won more than 100 games in a season twice in their National League history, rolling up 103 victories in 1962 and 119 in 1963. On the other side of the ledger they have lost more than 100 games a year five times—the last three in succession.

Ford Heads For More Golf After PGA

DETROIT (AP)—Doug Ford, the new PGA champion, is a 30-year-old golfer.

No sooner had he finished off Cary Middlecoff in yesterday's PGA final, winning a 4 and 3 thriller, than he was packing his pretty wife and three children in their house trailer and heading for Akron, Ohio, and another golf tournament.

He didn't even wait around for all the congratulations due a new champion. He said a nice thank you, picked up his $3,250 check and was off.

But these hurry-up antics were no surprise to those who followed him through the seven-day PGA, watching him, quickly and surely, smash Meadowbrook's par each day—finishing 29 under par for 191 holes.

Ford won medal honors with a 7-under-par 135, and in match play disposed of George Fazio, Ted Kroll, Wally Ulrich, Fred Hawkins, Shelley Mayfield and finally, Middlecoff.

Each victory was clean, sure, decisive—and quick. He even made the notoriously slow-playing Middlecoff speed up his tempo. And this, possibly, may have been the turning point in their 33-hole struggle for one of professional golf's biggest prizes.

Through the morning round—with temperatures in the low 80s—Middlecoff held the upper hand all the way. He shot a 67, four under par, and was 1-up at the luncheon break.

But as the temperature and humidity increased during the afternoon, Middlecoff's game slowly, painfully started to fall apart. The machine-like Ford, meanwhile, kept clubbing his ball with the same incisiveness as he did in the morning. He caught the fading Middlecoff for the fourth time on the 22nd hole and finally passed him on the 26th, where Cary started a run of errors by hitting three poor shots and conceding the hole.

Ford dropped birdie putts of 25 and 5 feet on the 29th and 30th holes, to go 3-up, and Middlecoff never recovered. The match ended on the 33rd green in typical fashion, with Middlecoff taking a bogey 5.
