By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
For the first three months of the 1955 season they raved about "those amazing Chicago White Sox" and everything looked rosy for a pennant at Comiskey Park. But after the All-Star Game in July the magic potion wore off. The Go-Go kids were gone. Ever since, they said, when the chips were down and the heat was on in July, it would be bye, bye White Sox.

So look. Today two weeks after the All-Star tilt, it's been just the opposite, and Marty Marion's scrapping Chicago gang has knocked the New York Yankees out of first place — by two slim percentage points. The White Sox showed no signs of folding this time as they whipped the Yankees yesterday 3-2 and took the vital series two games to one.

In fact, Chicago reached first place the hard way with an uphill battle. When league play resumed July 14 after the All-Star recess, the White Sox were in third place, six games back of New York, and a game behind second-place Cleveland. Since then Chicago's won 12 of 17 games and has been rolling at a 706 pace.

But it's a long way to the end of the season in September and the top five clubs in the American loop could be covered with a large blanket. Cleveland defeated the Boston

Red Sox 6-4 to pull within a game of the lead yesterday, while Detroit overcame Baltimore 7-5 to trail the leaders by only 5 1/2 games — in fifth place. Washington and Kansas City were idle.

Rookie pitcher Roger Craig and Brooklyn home runs produced a 10-2 victory over Cincinnati as the Dodgers maintained their 12 1/2-game National League spread over the second-place Milwaukee Braves, who defeated Philadelphia 4-2.

The New York Giants downed the Chicago Cubs 4-1. The St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates, also 4-1.

Walt Drogo continued his batting spree, his two-run homer in the third inning off Bob Turley proving the White Sox margin over New York. Connie Johnson had the Yankees shut out until Mickey Mantle hit his 22nd homer in the ninth with one aboard. Billy Pierce struck out pinch hitter Jerry Coleman with the bases full to end the battle.

Cleveland snapped back at Boston after losing the first two games of the series. Al Rosen batted in three runs, two with his 16th homer in the third inning. Boston rallied in the eighth inning, routing
