

THREE ON A HORSE was pretty "good going" according to the above young riders, Lesley Cummins and Tim and Mike McCarthy.

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

SATURDAY, JULY 30, 1955

—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

SWIMMING SUITS and cowboy outfits were worn Thursday by guests attending the fifth birthday celebration of Michael McCarthy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald S. McCarthy, who reside on the Melrose road. First of all, the guests assembled in the morning and swimming was enjoyed until noon, after which the youngsters changed into their riding togs and mounted the McCarthy horses for a ride, before going to the gaily decorated birthday table on the patio. Colorful balloons, favors and mixed summer flowers formed the decorations. A luncheon was served by Mrs. McCarthy assisted by Mrs. George Riggs and Mrs. Roy Cummins.

THE GUESTS are shown above as they prepared to take off for their ride, while several of the younger ones remained at the pool for more swimming. Below, the group is shown at the birthday table. Seated are: Kermit McCarthy, Lesley Cummins (on left, and at right) Mike, guest of honor: Chris Cummins, Steve Erickson and Jon Riggs. Standing are Richard Williams, Jimmy Riggs, Marvin Williams, Steve McCarthy, Jeff Flury, Ricky Riggs, Tim McCarthy and John Erickson. After the luncheon, Mike opened his many birthday gifts. All in all, it was a wonderful day and a wonderful birthday party.
