A potluck picnic dinner was held by the Oregon Historical Society Sunday afternoon at the Melrose School and churchyard. Over 200 attended the affair which was followed by a meeting in the schoolhouse, now no longer used, but where many of the members attended school in their youth.

Charles Germand of Hubbard Creek displayed violins of his own manufacture, on one of which he played "When You and I Were Young Maggie." Mr. Germand, an octogenarian, has been making violins of both native and imported woods for well over half a century in this locality.

Bob Matthews and Charles Keyes played several old-time tunes on the violins.

Mrs. M. W. Schneider, who herself attended the Melrose School, read to the group a history of the school which had its first attendance over a hundred years ago. Mrs. Erma Arant Wilson and Lloyd Arant, whose grandparents settled here in 1833, performed a socio-drama depicting the history of French Settlement.

Mrs. Victor Micelli, president of the society, reviewed progress that has been made toward securing the Lily Moore house from the Federal Government for use as a museum. She also pointed out the business advantages that have accrued to other localities, notably Jacksonville, by having such a tourist attraction as a museum.

Duplicate Bridge Play Proves Of Interest

MRS. NICHOLS IS HONORED AT SHOWER

Originally scheduled to be held at the Cecil Crockett home, and to be a combination housewarming for Mrs. Crockett and a shower for Mrs. Harold Nichols, the Women's Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church of Canyonville instead moved its social hour Thursday afternoon to the Forest Glen hospital where Mrs. Nichols was temporarily confined.

Refreshments were served to the staff in Mrs. Nichols room, at which time Mrs. Nichols opened her many gifts.

Mrs. L. E. McClintock was graduated to "National Master" as a result of Tuesday night's play of duplicate bridge at the Elks Temple and E. C. Patterson was graduated to "Full Master."

Eight tables of duplicate bridge were in play. North-South winners were Mrs. R. D. Coen and Mrs. M. L. Hallmark, first; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Patterson, second; and Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Wallin, third. East-West winners were L. E. McClintock and Mrs. G. W. Marshall, high; Mrs. Walter Fisher and Mrs. Earl Ulrich, second; and Mrs. E. L. Tauscher and Mrs. Fred Schwartz, third. The monthly master point play was held.

Regular duplicate bridge play will be held next Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Elks Temple. All bridge players interested are most cordially invited to join the group.
