YOUNGREN HONORED AT FAREWELL AFFAIR

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Youngren were honored at a surprise farewell party sponsored by the Riverside Grange at the hall Tuesday evening.

Norwegian music, folk dancing and visiting was enjoyed by all. After a welcoming to the guests was made by Nelda Norris, master of the Riverside Grange, Hilda Walters presented a blanket to the Youngrens from the grange.

Ice cream and cake were served to over 80 guests. There were members from Melrose, Evergreen and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Youngren joined the grange in 1949. Since then they have been very active in grange work. Mr. Youngren was master for three years and was appointed Douglas County deputy in 1952. In that capacity he organized the N. Douglas Grange.

Mrs. Youngren has been home economics chairman of Riverside and is now Pamona Home Economics chairman and chaplain of Riverside.

Mr. Youngren has accepted a position with the Car-Ad-Co lumber company in Klamath Falls.

SUTHERLIN CHURCH WOMEN HAVE MEETING

Christian Women's Fellowship of the Sutherland Christian Church met Thursday at the church for the regular potluck dinner with Mrs. Leta Young and Mrs. Ada Abeene as hostesses.

After the dinner the business meeting was called to order and the new officers served in their respective offices with Mrs. Leta Young as president. The devotionals were given and a hymn sung, with Mrs. Ada Abeene giving the opening prayer.

Mrs. Grace Heselahl was appointed vice president and devotional chairman, and the read the scripture from Luke 38, and gave a short talk on how to be a home missionary.

Mrs. Leta Young was appointed hostess chairman and Mrs. Bertha Sanders, the new work chairman, made an interesting report on the work accomplished.

Plans were made for a reception for the new minister and his family, the Rev. and Mrs. William Richardson, to be held the first of August. Mrs. Heselahl gave the closing prayer.

The balance of the afternoon was spent in making quilt blocks. The next meeting will be held at the church Thursday, Aug. 4.

DILLARD RESIDENTS HAVE VACATION TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Rutschman and son, Marshall, and Kay Bromley, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bromley of Dillard, returned home recently from a two-week vacation trip to Colorado, Utah and Nevada.

They leisurely toured the Zion National Park and Bryce Canyon, camping out on their way. They then went to Pueblo, Colo., to visit Mrs. Rutschman's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. V. Hess. They took the sight-seeing trip through Phantom Canyon to Cripple Creek, where they visited the famous old mining town. Rutschman, who has a hobby of collecting rock specimens, enjoyed the Big Rock Candy Mountain in Utah. He also took his geiger counter and tried some prospecting. The group then went to Wyoming by way of Berthoud Pass to Encampment where they visited his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Rutschman. They visited another brother, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rutschman, and a sister, Mrs. L. P. Turner, and family at Rawlins. They did some trout fishing in that locality.

DILLARD COUPLE VISITS RELATIVES

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Manske returned home Sunday following their interesting vacation visiting old friends in their former home at La Barge, Wyo. They were houseguests of the latter's mother, Mrs. F. Sally, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wilson. Mr. Manske did some successful fishing at Sandy Reservoir while in Wyoming. They stopped en route in Pocatello to visit their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Albano and children, Kathy, John and Billy. They then drove to McCall, Idaho, and visited Mrs. Manske's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Poro. In Boise they visited her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Koski, and other friends. Manske is part owner of the Mt. Bette Lumber Company in Dillard.

YONCALLA CLUB HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

The West Park Birthday Club met at the home of Mrs. Charles Hedgers recently in honor of her birthday. Visiting was enjoyed during the afternoon, and refreshments served to Mrs. Wesley Gordon, Mrs. Mickey Blodgett, Mrs. Waldo Pond, Mrs. Marvin Noffsinger, Mrs. Harold Rogers, Mrs. Darrell Payne, Mrs. Bud Sheldon, Mrs. Archie Kennedy and Mrs. Hedgers.

LOVELACE HOME IS SCENE OF WCTU PICNIC

The annual picnic of the Roseburg WCTU was held Tuesday at the lovely home of Mrs. Ross Lovelace on Deer Creek in the Dixonville area. Following the business meeting conducted by the president Mrs. Betty Fray, a picnic dinner was enjoyed.

The afternoon's session was in charge of Mrs. Mary Southwick who presented a group of children from the Loyal Temperance Legion. A chalk talk lesson "The Garden of Life" was given by Beverly Baxter and the ITL song "Little Brain Cells" was given by Sharon Bridges, Ida May Taylor, Beverly Baxter and Carol Fray.

A gold ribbon speech contest was held with Marilee Currier winning the award. A bronze medal speech contest was also held with Marianna Gray winning the medal. A group of judges and children then went to the home of Mrs. Edward Smith where a second bronze medal contest was held with George Baker winning the medal with his number, "Shall They Go Free."

Between the contests, temperance readings were given by Rosemary McConnell, "The Lonesome Bear," Ida May Taylor, "Sharp Edge," and Carol Fray, the 103rd Psalm.

A delegation from the Roseburg Youth's Temperance Council was in attendance and gave an effective ribbon demonstration of temperance statistics and also the song, "Cross Over the Ridge." The YTC announced that a demonstration group from their council is available to go to any Sunday School, youth or adult group interested in having a temperance lesson given on Temperance Sunday.
