The neighborhood children gathered on the beautiful lawn to play games and help Andy celebrate his seventh birthday. Many gifts were opened by Andy. The refreshments with a decorated birthday cake were served by his mother to Buster Horsley, Roger Metcalf, Joe Paul Gentry, Lee Smith, Allan Bridges, Timmy Otto, David Bridges and the honored guest, Andy Collins.

KERRS RETURN FROM SEVEN-WEEK TRIP
Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Kerr returned Tuesday from a seven-week trip east in which they drove over six thousand miles. They were called to Kansas City in early June by the critical illness of his mother, Mrs. Cora Kerr, who is in her ninety-second year and has not recovered from her illness enough to be about the house again.

En route east the travelers stopped at Springville, Utah, to visit relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Thorn. In Springfield, Mo., they visited with Mrs. C. W. Williams, a sister of Mrs. Kerr. The return trip was made via the southern route with a stop at San Bernardino, Calif., at the home of the Kerr's son, Bert, and family. In San Francisco they visited with Mrs. Kerr's three sisters and one brother. While there they attended Cinerama.
