

THE SMITH-FROTSCHER NUPTIALS took place July 24 in the Your Neighborhood Church of Christ with the Rev. Lloyd Whitford officiating. The bride, Pvt. Evelyn I. Frotscher, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Frotscher of

Oakland, and the bridegroom is Pfc. Edward Raymond Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith of Reith, Ore. (Picture by Clark's Studio.)

Pvt. Evelyn I. Frotscher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Frotscher of Oakland, Ore., became the bride Sunday, July 24, of PFC Edward Raymond Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith of Reith, Ore. The impressive double ring ceremony was performed in the Your Neighborhood Church of Christ by the Rev. Lloyd Whitford before one hundred and fifty guests at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Pedestal baskets of yellow and orchid gladioli and candles formed the church decorations. Mrs. Cynthia Magill played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Nancy Dietrich, who sang "Always" and "Because," and Rev. Whitford, who sang "I'll Walk With God" as a final prayer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a white lace gown with tiered skirt, high neck and long pointed sleeved jacket. Her gown was ballerina length with a hoop skirt. She wore white satin slippers and an illusion net fingertip veil with a crown of lace and seed pearls. She carried a white Job's Daughter's Bible and a white orchid.

Maid of honor, Barbara Meyers, wore a star nylon orchid gown and carried a colonial bouquet of orchids, backed with green net. Nancy Dorman and Marcia Rehm were bridesmaids. They wore star nylon green gowns and carried colonial bouquets of orchids, backed with orchid net.

Redonna Hibbard was flower girl, wearing a yellow organdy gown and carrying white carnations. Claudia Inda and Nancy Smith, sister of the bridegroom, were candelights. They wore yellow nylon and white carnation wristlets.

Robert Smith acted as best man for his brother. Ushers were Dennis Parks and Errol Loving.

The bride's mother wore a beige pink crepe with lace jacket and white accessories. Mother of the bridegroom wore a grey crepe with white accessories. Both wore orchid corsages. The corsages and bouquets of orchids were sent by air from a close friend, Mrs. Charles Stuetzer, of Boynton Beach, Fla.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Sutherland Grange Hall, with over one hundred guests in attendance. The hall was decorated with white streamers and bells. The gift table was in charge of Mrs. C. Loving, Mrs. Jake Francis and Mrs. L. Haslam assisted the bride's aunts, Mrs. Charles Bezahl, Mrs. O. Rehm, Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Mildred Miller, in serving. A special cake was served in honor of the bride's birthday.

For a wedding trip to points north, the bride chose a silk shantung dress of blue and wore white and red accessories. The couple will reside in California, where he is stationed with the Marine Corps, and she is with the Women's Marine Corp. Both graduated from Sutherland High School.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Claire Rehm, Mrs. Leandro, Calif.; Mrs. Mildred Miller, Midvale, N.J.; Mrs. Mildred Charles Bezahl, Oakland, all sisters of the bride's mother; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Canazaro and family; Marcia Rehm, Mrs. Leandro, Calif.; Don Person, Mr. and Mrs. B. Yraguen and children, Wilbur; Mrs. J. B. Cocanougher, Hereford, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. G. Schaefer, Glide; Mrs. Carmen Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Loving, Roseburg.

Myrtle Point, and Raimon S. Barclay, Crescent City, Calif. The wedding took place at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Roseburg, July 30, at 9 a.m., with Father Edmund Hyland officiating. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab.)

St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Roseburg was the scene of a beautiful summer wedding, Saturday morning, July 30, at 9 o'clock, when Miss Ethel Mae Wilson became the bride of Richard S. Barclay. Father Edmund Hyland performed the double ring ceremony at a Nuptial Mass before a large number of friends and relatives.

Sacred music was furnished by Miss Kay Ward accompanied by Mrs. H. Watjig.

The bride, given in marriage by her father Howard J. Wilson, was a picture of exquisite beauty in her gown of white chantilly lace over shimmering satin en train, designed with a daintily sequined Queen Anne's collar. Her French illusion veil fell from a sequined seed pearl cap. Her bridal bouquet consisted of stephanotis and lilies.

The bride's attendants were Miss Merrijean Wilson, her sister, as maid of honor; Miss Merrielyn Preskar her cousin, junior bridesmaid; and Miss Lois McKinney and Miss Maurine Doerner, bridesmaids. Their ballerina length gowns of nylon over white taffeta were identical except that the maid of honor wore yellow, while the others wore orchid. They wore matching headbands and carried nosegays of Esther Reed daisies. Each wore pearl necklaces and earrings, gifts of the bride.

Dainty Miss Barbara Lacy, dressed in orchid and carrying a basket of Esther Reed daisies, was flower girl.

John Sutton of Myrtle Point was best man. Ushers were Joe Hauben of Eugene; Dick Krammel of San Francisco; and Bill Irving of Klamath Falls, college mates of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Roseburg Women's Club. The room was beautifully decorated with lovely summer flowers, and the table, covered with a handmade tablecloth, was centered with a huge wedding cake artistically decorated with wedding bells and sweet peas by the bride's father. Among the many beautiful gifts on display was a china cup and saucer that had been used at the bride's grandmother's wedding breakfast in Scotland more than 50 years ago. Mrs. J. Kilkenny and Miss Nanette Desbians served the cake while Mrs. Charles Doerner poured coffee, and Mrs. G. W. Thompson presided over the punch bowl. Miss Kathleen Kilkenny had charge of the gifts. Mrs. R. Raade and Mrs. Elwood Foster were in charge of arrangements for the reception.

Immediately following the reception the young couple left on a short wedding trip to Washington and coastal points. For going away the bride wore a littleboy shirtwaist, steel blue dress with pink accessories. Her corsage was lilies.

Mrs. Barclay is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Wilson, 525 South Main Street and for several years has been employed as a dental assistant to Dr. Lee Lacy. She is a graduate of Roseburg High School, class of '31. Mrs. Barclay is the son of Mrs. Stan Sutphin of Myrtle Point, and Raimon S. Barclay of Crescent City, Calif. He attended the University of Oregon and was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha. He is now employed at the C and D Lumber Co.

Out of town guests were Bob Kelly of Eugene, Mrs. Rudy Preskar and daughters of Anacosta, Mont.; Mrs. Gladys Oliver and son of Salem; Mrs. Vincent Russell of Sheridan, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Degeller of Chehalis, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Donohue of Canyonville; Mr. and Mrs. John Degeller and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Degeller also of Chehalis. Following the honeymoon, the couple will be at home at 1038 Winchester Street in Roseburg.

Games and visiting were enjoyed during the evening, after which the honoree opened her many lovely gifts. Game prizes were won by Mrs. Ed Welch, Mrs. Louis Donelan and Mrs. Keith Christopherson.

Lovely refreshments were served to Mesdames Dick Reece, Del Graves, Bill Smith, Ed Welch, Jim Standley, Jay Eaton, Keith Christopherson, Louis Donelan, Bill Nagel, Charles Fingerios, Don Newport and Norman Root. Unable to attend were Mrs. Wayne Tripp, Mrs. Ray Arthur and Mrs. William Schultz.

MR. AND MRS. MAURICE H. FARMER, above, were married July 31 in the parsonage of the First Baptist Church in Springfield. The bride, Mary E. Peterson, is the daughter of Mrs. Anna Peterson of Roseburg and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Farmer of Tacoma. Mrs. Peterson and Robert Hays of Eugene attended the couple. The bride was lovely in a blue lace afternoon dress. The bride attended Roseburg schools and is employed in the personnel department of the Roseburg VA Hospital. Mr. Farmer attended school in Tacoma and is employed at Nielsen's Market. Mr. and Mrs. Farmer are now residing at 432 Vista, Roseburg.

THE LYONS-TUTHILL wedding party is pictured above. The bride, Patricia Cecile Tuthill, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Tuthill, Oakland, and the bridegroom, John Sherman Lyons, Downey, Calif., is the son of Mrs. Guy Simmons, Dexter, Ore. The wedding was an event of Sunday, July 31, at 1:30 p.m. at the First Methodist Church in Sutherlin with the Rev. Robert Peters officiating.

Miss Patricia Cecile Tuthill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Tuthill of Oakland, became the bride of John Sherman Lyons of Downey, Calif., son of Mrs. Guy Simmons of Dexter, Ore., in a pretty ceremony Sunday, July 31, at the First Methodist Church of Sutherlin. The Rev. Robert Peters of that church performed the 1:30 p.m. single ring ceremony in the presence of friends and relatives.

White gladioli and pink carnations formed the church decorations. Mrs. Wendell Sisson, accompanied by organist, Mrs. Cynthia Magill, sang "At Dawning," "Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Magill played "The Processional" by Grieg as the wedding march. Candlelighters were Harold Burrelle and Lester Cingcade.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a white gown of organdy over pleated pale blue tulle and blue satin. Her veil of blue tulle fell from a half crown of blue tinted shell flowers, designed by her sister. The bride designed and made her own gown. Her bouquet was of pink sweetheart roses.

Elizabeth Ann Tuthill was matron of honor for her sister, Joanne Lyons, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. April Ann West was flower girl. All three attendants wore dresses of pale blue nylon organdy over blue taffeta, made with sweetheart necklines outlined in pearls and with bouffant skirts. April Ann carried a bouquet of pink carnations and the other two carried white carnations.

Joseph Steere was best man, and ushers were George Steere, Harold Burrelle and Lester Cingcade.

The bride's mother wore a mauve jersey gown, and mother of the bridegroom wore a pastel silk print dress. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

A garden reception was held at the bride's home on Coles Valley Road. Mrs. Milton Sheely and Mrs. Adrian Smith, aunts of the bride, assisted at the reception. Charlene Moore and Norma Jean Wilcox had charge of the guest book and gifts.

The bride's table was centered by a traditional tiered wedding cake, topped by a bridal pair, customary to match the actual bridal pair. The table was decorated with pink and white hollyhocks and sweetpeas, and was covered by a damask linen cloth, which was used at the wedding of the bride's paternal grandmother.

After a honeymoon at the coast the couple will be at home at 11840 Brookshire, Downey, Calif. Both the bride and bridegroom graduated this year from OSC. She was a home economics major, and he majored in business and technology.

About a hundred guests attended the ceremony. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Simmons, Dexter; Joanne Lyons, Cottage Grove; Lewis H. Tuthill, Denver; Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Smith, Madras; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sheely, Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Steere Jr., Scottsburg; Mr. and Mrs. George Steere, Brookings; Mrs. Joseph Steere,
