McCord Family Has Fine Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCord and sons, David and Peter, returned home Saturday from a month's vacation visiting relatives in Illinois. On their route back East they stopped at many scenic points of interest which included the Black Hills and the Badlands of South Dakota. In Chicago they visited the Museum of Natural History. They were houseguests of Mrs. McCord's two sisters, Misses Eve and Ruth Siljstrom, in Highland Park. They spent two weeks visiting relatives and old friends in Mrs. McCord's former hometown. They attended several outdoor stage plays, "Sabrina Fair," "Guys and Dolls" and "Wizard of Oz" in the Theater in the Round. Enroute home they visited Buffalo Bill's grave at Golden, Colorado. They visited Mrs. McCord's niece in Denver, toured the Royal Gorge and the Garden of the Gods in Colorado and looked up McCord's old home place near Pueblo. David and Peter went swimming at Saltair in Salt Lake, and returned to their hillside home in Dillard by way of the John Day Highway.

VACATION ENJOYED BY DILLARD FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gibson and children, Gloria, Jackie and Carl, for their vacation went to Stockton, Calif., to visit her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde James, and her nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne James. They brought their nephew, Charles Porter, home with them. They stopped off at Crescent City and visited Mr. and Mrs. Carl Koch and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Waggle. They left their daughter, Gloria, in Crescent City to spend some time with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Waggle. The Gibsons then drove up to Longview, Wash., to attend a family reunion of Mrs. Gibson's relatives. Around fifty relatives met at Woodland Park near Longview for the reunion. They were houseguests of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wakefield, and her aunt, Mrs. Anne Walker.
