Washington Folks Visits Relatives In Camas Valley

By ADDIE SCHNEIDER

The Rev. and Mrs. Jack Parrott and children started home recently after spending two weeks visiting with their parents, Fred Parrott of Garden Valley and Mrs. Elizabeth Garhart, of Roseburg. The Parrotts will stop in Vancouver, Wash., to visit at his brother Bruce's home before continuing on to Yakima.

Visits Friend
Josephine Tooley, who works for the dispatch office of the Southern Pacific in Portland, visited her friend, the Cooley family, over night. The Cooley family used to live in the valley.

Daune Raddatz returned home after visiting for three weeks with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Matson, of Idaho Falls, Idaho.

The Arolas recently spent a weekend on the coast going as far north as Yachats.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Teeter and Ernest met their friends, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Pennell and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Medley and their children of Venice, Calif., at Sawyers Bar on the Salmon River in northern California. After a few days of fishing, the Teeters traveled to Marble Mountain and came home by the coast route.

Mr. Leonard Lark entertained the Ott family of Riversdale at a dinner honoring her husband on his birthday.

DRIVER'S TRIAL SET
A trial date of Aug. 22 was set Monday for Clarence Joseph Kempt, 41, Roseburg, after he pleaded innocent in district court to a charge of drunken driving.

Judge Warren A. Woodruff set bail of $500. Kempt was arrested Saturday by a sheriff's reservist.
