To Ashland — Mrs. Celia Day of Roseburg and Mrs. E. E. Foss of Eugene went to Ashland Friday to attend the Shakespearean plays that evening and Saturday evening. They enjoyed "Macbeth" and "Midsummer Night's Dream."

Visit Here — Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Albion were the former's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. M. Bissington and Rickie and Nita, of Victoria, B.C.

Visit Abbotts — Spending the weekend here at the Curtis Abbott home were his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Tibbitt and children, Lena Mae and Dean, of Eagle Point.

New Residents — Mr. and Mrs. Izzy Tucker of Stillwell, Okla., arrived in Roseburg Sunday to make their home. They are living on Ichabod Lane and he is employed by Todd Building Co.

Here From Ashland — Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Olson of Ashland spent the weekend here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harding, and his sister, Mrs. Keith Phillips, and family.

New Job — Mrs. Hubert Hobson is a new employee at Payless Drug Co. She formerly worked at the Ice Creamery.

Here From Portland — Harry Hendrickson of Portland is visiting here this week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kester, and with his aunt, Mrs. Robert Huff, and family. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hendrickson, formerly of Roseburg.

Elbow Room In Home Vital In Family Tension

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Two researchers reported Tuesday the amount of "elbow room" in a home is a major factor in family tensions but that whether Mom works makes little difference.

There is more friction where the family is larger and rooms fewer, said Dr. Bernice Milburn Moore and Dr. Wayne Holtzman, both of Austin, Tex.
