

Quartet Of Fastest Milers To Race In London Tonight

LONDON (AP) — Four of the world's fastest milers clash tonight in a race that could produce a new record or perhaps be just another mile.

The occasion is the Hungary-Britain track and field meet. Here are the four starters in the mile:

Chris Chataway of Britain, world three-mile record breaker and a 3:59.8 miler.

Ken Wood of Britain, a 4:01.6 miler who broke the world two-mile mark by six seconds here.

Leo Durocher led the National League shortstops in fielding in 1933, 1936 and 1938.

Tag Teams Set On Armory Card

Personal feelings can be expected to play a big part in Saturday night's Australian tag team match between Luigi Macera and Gory Guerrero and champions Killer Kameroff and Dirty Doug Donovan.

Macera has upset both Donovan and Kameroff on successive weekends and both are steaming mad. Last Saturday night, Referee Guerrero was holding Kameroff's arms while trying to break an illegal hold when Macera lowered the boom on Kameroff and won the deciding fall.

Donovan, who jumped into the ring on behalf of his distressed companion, protested that in addition to the referee holding Kameroff's arms, Macera had held Kameroff by the lights when he pinned him.

Infuriated, Kameroff stomped out of the arena and then in a fit of temper openly challenged both Macera and Guerrero.

"If they want to team up so bad," he beseeched his listeners, speaking of Macera and Guerrero, "Donovan and I will put up the tag team trophy."

The Mexican flash, Macera, and Guerrero were overcome with elation at the chance and welcomed it with expressions of both appreciation and satisfaction.

The two are expected to make it rough for the champions, combining Macera's youthful ambition and Guerrero's smooth wrestling style.

The evening's semifinal match will pit rugged George Drake against the Swede from Minnesota, Thor Hagen. Hagen appeared here only once a few weeks ago and impressed local fans with his aggressive style. However, Drake will go into the one hour or best of three falls match favored.

Shrine Squads Put Through Drills

PORTLAND (AP) — Game-type scrimmages and tough contact drills were on tap as rival high school football all-stars completed their first week of training for the annual Shrine benefit game.

Coaches Lee Gustafson of State and Tom DeSylvia of the Portland-area team put their squads through rigorous sessions Thursday. The annual game is scheduled Aug. 20 at Multnomah Stadium, with the Staters riding the crest of four consecutive victories. Proceeds go to the Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children.

Gustafson reported three players on his State team sat out the drills with minor injuries. All guards, they were Larry Newsum of South Salem, Doug Minthorn of Pendleton and Glenn Evans of Vale.

Evans and Newsum were expected to return to practice Saturday, but Minthorn might be out longer.

Curley Lambeau of Green Bay Packer fame, Hunk Anderson, Steve Owen and Hamp Pool, have hand-picked their own squad, and the word is out that they have whipped it into a formidable aggregation for the big test against the National Football League champions.

The college squad is shot through with talent—quarterbacks Ralph Guglielmi of Notre Dame, Paul Larson of California, George Shaw of Oregon and Dave Leggett of Ohio State; ball-carriers Alan Ameche of Wisconsin, Bobby Watkins of Ohio State and Dick Bielski of Maryland, and linemen Max Boydston of Oklahoma, Dick Szymanski of Notre Dame and Bud Brooks of Arkansas.

Sutherlandin, McKenzie Peewees Set 'Timber' Tilt

The Sutherlandin-McKenzie peewee baseball game between 13-year-olds and under of the two teams will take place immediately after the Timber Days parade in Sutherland Saturday as a part of the annual festivities there. McKenzie is the central Oregon peewee champion.
