YOUTH WCTU COUNCIL SETS TEMPERANCE RALLY

The Youth's Temperance Council of Roseburg held a meeting at the Dyer picnic grounds on the banks of Lookingglass Creek Monday evening. The meeting was in charge of the president, LeRoy Trowbridge, who was assisted by the secretary, Ida May Taylor, and the counselor, Mrs. Betty Fray. The devotions were presented by Mrs. Arthur Marsh.

Following the business meeting a silver medal speech contest was sponsored by Mrs. Mary Southwick. Rosemary McConnell won the medal with her selection "The Lonesome Beer."

Swimming and a watermelon feed concluded the program. The young folk represent the teenage group of the WCTU and are active in furthering temperance work. A deputation team from the YTC will conduct a temperance rally at the Pine Grove Church Sunday evening.

WCTU RUMMAGE SALE SET FOR SATURDAY

Mrs. Betty Fray, president of the Roseburg WCTU, called a meeting of the executive committee at her home on Medford Street Friday. Plans were furthered for the booth which the WCTU will sponsor at the Douglas County Fair. Assisting Mrs. Fray on the fair booth committee are Mrs. C. N. Currier, Mrs. C. E. Brittain, Mrs. W. J. Adair and Mrs. Arthur Marsh.

Mrs. Edith Ackert reported on the newly arranged shut-in prayer group project and asked for more cooperation on the part of members of the organization.

A silver medal contest was given by Mrs. Fred Southwick in which Ida May Taylor was adjudged the winner with her selection, "Sharp Edge."

Arrangements were completed for conducting the rummage and cooked food sale Saturday, Aug. 13, at the Spruce Street plant of the Douglas County Farm Bureau Coop Exchange. The sale will begin at 8 a.m. and continue through the day. All interested in the organization are asked to assist with donations. Those wishing pick-up service may call Mrs. Fray at OR 3-7623 or Mrs. Currier at 3-3386 for information. The committee in charge of the sale includes Mrs. Ada Davis, Mrs. C. N. Currier, Rev. Valeria Cleveland, Mrs. Albert Fray and Mrs. Arthur Marsh. Articles for the sale may also be left at the Currier Variety Store, Winston. The committee announces that a quantity of cotton rags will be for sale.

FAIR OAKS CLUB HAS POTLUCK MEETING

A delightful potluck dinner was enjoyed recently by seventeen members of the Fair Oaks Industrial Club and one guest, Mrs. Mabel Crouse, with Mrs. Ida Weber and Mrs. Jackie Thompson as hostesses of the day at the Fair Oaks Grange Hall. The long tables were very pretty with their centerpieces of gladioli.

The business meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Gwen Webber. It is urged that members having articles for the cedar chest bring them to the next regular meeting. After the meeting the members sewed on a quilt. The next meeting will be held at the Fair Oaks Grange Hall Thursday, Sept. 1.
