

All Pictures On This Page
By "Chris" Of
Fredrickson's Photo Lab

INSPIRATION for numerous farewell affairs have been those on today's society feature page. Above left, Dr. and Mrs. George E. Houck, who left yesterday for Portland to reside at 3305 NE Liberty. Dr. Houck, one of Oregon's most prominent doctors, has been here for 57 years. He will be 90, Oct. 22. His wife was chief dietician at the VA Hospital here for 17 years.

MR. AND MRS. R. R. PARSONS, lower left, and daughters, Anne, 7½, and Lynne, 13, are selling their home at 438 E. Second Avenue North, and moving to Medford, where the family has purchased a home near the Country Club. Mr. Parsons, who is a partner in Barcus Sales and Service here, is manager of the company's recently purchased Dodge-Plymouth agency, "Leaver Brothers," in Medford. He is retaining his interest here also. The family pet dog in the picture is "Toi".

Society

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

SATURDAY, AUGUST 13, 1955

—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

MR. AND MRS. JOHN PERKINS, above right, and their three children, Penny, 10; Danny, 6, and Tony, 1 year-old, pose in the garden at their beautiful home on Hawthorne Drive, which they have sold to Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Young, and moved today to their new home in Redding, Calif. Mr. Perkins has started his own business in Redding.

MISS JANET MORRIS, center left, left recently for San Francisco, where she has been promoted to the position of recreational supervisor at the VA Hospital, following the last four years working as a recreational leader at the VA Hospital here.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT SABIN, above, left last week for Eugene to make their home. Mr. Sabin has accepted the position of superintendent of the schools at Coburg. The Sabins' children left the previous week for Eugene with their grandparents. Mr. Sabin has been in the Roseburg School System.