

THE KRUYSMAN-HAVELEY WEDDING PARTY is pictured above. The wedding of Mary Lois Havely and Dirk Pieter Kruysman took place in the James McGinty garden in Myrtle Creek at 4 p.m., Sunday, Aug. 7 with Rev. A. M. Shaffer of Canyonville officiating. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab).

Miss Mary Lois Havely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Havely, of Myrtle Creek, and Dirk Pieter Kruysman, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Kruysman, of Roseburg were married Sunday, Aug. 4, in a pretty garden ceremony at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. A. M. Shaffer of Canyonville performed the double ring rites in the presence of friends and relatives in the garden of the Joe McGinty home in Myrtle Creek.

Beautiful magnolia trees, roses, begonias, evergreen shrubs and hydrangeas formed a pretty setting for the wedding. Mrs. Vernon Klemm, organist, played numbers preceding the ceremony and accompanied Kenneth Kline, who sang, "Because" and "Oh Promise Me."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a ballerina white gown of lace over satin. She wore a fingertip veil and lace gloves. Her bouquet was a white orchid, surrounded by red roses and stephanotis.

The bride's attendants included Patty L. Crist, matron of honor; Gladys Rupp, Sudie Houston and Joanne Keel, bridesmaids. They wore ballerina gowns in yellow, blue, pink and orchid, and headbands of flowers to match the gowns. They carried arm bouquets of white roses. Cindy Cox, flower girl, wore a blue net over taffeta gown and a headband of blue daisies. She carried a basket of rose petals. Jimmie Bell was ring bearer.

Arthur Vanslyke was best man, and ushers were Frank Bell, Gary Kirk and Charles Crist.

Mother of the bride wore a dusty rose lace dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of white gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue nylon gown, black accessories and white car-nations.

A reception followed the ceremony, at which 75 guests were served traditional refreshments. The bride chose a navy princess style dress with navy and white accessories for a wedding trip South. The couple will be at home in the Kohlhaas Apartments. The bride is employed at the U. S. National Bank in Roseburg. Mr. Kruysman is employed by the local National Guard. The bride graduated from the Canyonville Bible Academy. The bridegroom attended the local schools and attended OSC for one year.

An out-of-town guest at the wedding was a sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Noreen Castleman, and daughter of Wyoming.
