Miss Adelle Helen Desbiens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Desbiens, and Wayne Walter Rietmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rietmann, all of Roseburg, were united in marriage in an impressive double ring ceremony at St. Joseph's Catholic Church. Father Richard Gleason performed the ceremony at 10 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 6, before friends and relatives.

Pink and white gladioli graced the main altar, and mixed white and pink gladioli, hydrangeas and daisies formed other decorations in the church. Mrs. John Schaefer, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Richard Gleason performed the ceremony at 10 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 6, before friends and relatives.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautiful in a pale pink ballerina gown of tulle over net and taffeta. She wore a pink elbow length veil held in place by a pink sequined and pearl cap. Her bouquet was of white gladioli and stephanotis. She wore a beautiful amethyst birthstone ring, a gift from the bridegroom, and pink pearl earrings.

The bride's attendants were Nanette Desbiens, sister of the bride, as maid of honor; Janice Morrow and Loretta Desbiens, sister of the bride, as bridesmaids. They wore pale pink ballerina length tulle over net and taffeta gowns. They wore headpieces of pink tulle and flowers and carried bouquets of pink and white daisies. Valerie and Noreen Desbiens, sisters of the bride, were flower girls. Valerie wore pink with flowers in her hair, and Noreen wore white and carried baskets of rose petals.

Raold Stroup was best man, and ushers were Elwyn Jones and Frank Parrish. The bride's mother wore a pale pink suit and hat with black accessories and a white carnation corsage. Mother of the bridegroom wore a navy blue gown and a pink carnation corsage. A reception followed the ceremony in the library of St. Joseph's School. Mrs. Paul Jenkins decorated the beautifully appointed bride's table and the punch table. Many beautiful gifts were on display. The serving table was decorated in pink and white roses. Mrs. Warren Kenner was hostess. Presiding at the punch bowls were Janice Johnson, Maries Schweppe and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hill. Miss Carolyn Patterson had charge of the gifts, and Miss Arlene Redmond was in charge of the guest book. For traveling the bride chose a light blue suit with pink accessories and a white gladioli corsage. Following a short trip to Washington, the couple is at home at 1416 Grandview Terrace in Roseburg. Both the bride and bridegroom graduated from the local high school. He is employed at I-Deal Concrete, after serving three years in the Air Force. The bride is employed as assistant to Dr. Mooers.
