

BROCKWAY HOMECOMING IS LARGE AFFAIR SUNDAY

One of the largest affairs ever held in the Brockway community was the homecoming-school reunion Sunday at the Douglas High School. A crowd of 400 jammed the school cafeteria for the delicious dinner. People from many towns in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Arizona and California joined in the 100th anniversary celebration of the district's founding. Since the affair was such a success, it will be held again next August.

Zopher Agee of Medford was master of ceremonies. He taught the old Brockway School in 1858. Mrs. Ben Nichols, Riddle, was presented a pen by the Roseburg Jewelers for being the oldest student at the centennial. She is 85. The eldest person attending the celebration was Alvira (Huntley) Dumond of The Dalles. She is 98. She never attended the old school but many of her people did.

There were more than 100 histories of the district and other centennial histories prepared by Shirley Clayton, a graduate of the old school, made the copies. Cop-school, Lucia Fancher DeLaney, is available for those who did not receive one.
