Tenmile Grade School
Readied For Opening

By LOUISA COATS
The Tenmile Grade School is being made ready for the opening of school Sept. 6. The floors are being refinished, some rooms are being painted and half the playground has a new metal roof.
All playground equipment has been thoroughly inspected and a concrete walk has been built around the merry-go-round.
The teachers will report for work Aug. 30. The tentative date for the pre-school is Sept. 2 at the Tenmile school.
Vincent McGovern will be the new principal for the Tenmile and Lookingglass schools. The following teachers have been employed for the coming year: fifth grade, Mrs. Bessie Smith; fourth grade, Mrs. Margaret Boyd; third grade, Mrs. Lola Fitzgerald; second grade, Mrs. Frances Potter; and first grade, Mrs. Honora Bassett. No teacher has as yet been secured for the sixth grade.
R. M. Degner will continue as custodian of the grade schools in the Dillard District. Degner spent four days in Salem this summer, three days attending a training program for school custodians and one day attending a meeting of the Oregon School Employers Association.

Girls Act As Weapons
Handlers For Gang Fight

NEW YORK — Two dozen girls were reported Thursday to have acted as knife and gun toters for rival teen-age gangs of boys in a Brooklyn street fight. Police broke up the battle of 50 boys Wednesday night, but before one youth had suffered a stab wound.
Police broke up the battle of 50 along girl auxiliaries as weapon carriers operating on the theory that the police would round up the boys first, thus giving the girls a chance to escape with the weapons.
The theory worked. None of those seized was found to possess a weapon.

Tempting Variety Of Meats
On Specials For Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Shoppers in the nation's food stores will find a tempting variety of meats on the list of specials this weekend.
In beef, round roast will be a favorite and boneless chuck pot roast also will be popular. Steaks and prime ribs, however, will be a couple of cents a pound higher than a week ago in some stores.
Elsewhere, there'll be no price change.
Loins of pork will be a feature in some parts of the country. Few markets will offer specials on legs of lamb, but there will be good buys in lamb shoulder roasts.
Veal, never particularly popular as a weekend attraction, will be offered at sale prices in a number of markets. Veal shoulder roast will be the favorite cut.
Only a few stores plan to feature frying and stewing chickens, although prices generally will be no higher than a week ago.
The rise in egg prices goes on. Increase of two cents a dozen on large grade "A" whites are planned in stores in many sections of the country. Butter prices show little change.
Pork prices should start coming down in the months immediately ahead. The U.S. Department of Agriculture says farmers expect to market considerably more hogs during this half of the year than they did in the same months of 1954. Abundant supplies should bring lower prices.
Stormy weather sent vegetable prices up in some sections of the country during the week, but the list of good buys offers a good variety, nevertheless. Produce men recommend onions, potatoes, peppers, tomatoes, eggplant, cabbage, pascal celery, and iceberg, romaine and big Boston lettuce.

Science Foundations
Slate Research Grants

WASHINGTON — The National Science Foundation Thursday announced 161 grants to support research in physics, biology, chemistry and other sciences.
The grants, totaling about $1,820,540, were awarded during the three months ended last June 30.
They went to institutions and scientists in 41 states, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and England.
Research fields included are anthropology and related sciences, astronomy, chemistry, various types of biology, earth sciences, engineering sciences, mathematical sciences and physics.
The grants were approved by the National Science Board on the recommendation of Dr. Alan T. Waterman, the foundation's director.

COMMITTEE TO MEET

PORTLAND — The executive committee of the Oregon Republican Clubs is scheduled to meet here Saturday to choose a new president succeeding A. A. Lausman, Medford, resigned.
Lausman said his doctor ordered him to rest.
The organization's convention will be held this fall with the time and place to be designated later.
