FRIENDS PICNIC AT UMPQUA PARK

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cromwell and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cromwell, all of Cottage Grove, joined Mr. and Mrs. John Tinker and Doneta; Mrs. Barbara Tinker, Mr. and Dwight Tinker and son, Terry; Mr. and Mrs. Lee McKnight and Bobbie Joyce and Janice, and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Tinker at an enjoyable picnic affair Sunday at Umpqua Park.

OF MUCH INTEREST here is the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Trefren, former Roseburg residents, which took place at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Hagan, in Portland. A buffet dinner and party was held in their honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Trefren, who make their home at 2943 NE Siskiyou St., W. Portland, were honored by more than 100 relatives and friends, Aug. 7.

Dr. and Mrs. Hagan were assisted by another son-in-law and daughter of the Trefrens, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Rosenmeyer, of Seattle. A foster daughter, Mrs. John B. Brehm, of Quantico, Va., was unable to be present. The Trefrens also have eight grandchildren.

The Trefrens met in Grants Pass and were married Aug. 5, 1905, at Astoria. They moved about the country on orders of the railroad for which Mr. Trefren worked. They lived in Roseburg until 1923, when they were sent to El Paso, Tex., by the Southern Pacific. They remained there until 1933, when they moved to Portland. Mr. Trefren is now a retired trainmaster of the Southern Pacific.

Mrs. Houck Honored At Farewell Affair

The Roseburg Woman's Club was the setting Thursday for a lovely tea honoring Mrs. George Houck, when many friends came to call and say a regretful goodbye. Mrs. Houck, who is moving to Portland, has been a long-time member and is a past president of the club.

Miss Helen Casey, accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Carstens at the piano, gave her version of "There Is a Tavern in the Town" and "Waiting at the Church." Miss Casey and Miss Alice Ueland then formed a duet and gave their interpretation of "Oh, My Irene is a Village Queen" and "Young Mr. North," which added to the social hour.

An arrangement of gladioli graced the tea table from which Mrs. D. H. Lennox, Mrs. Ira Riddle and Mrs. T. L. Goodwin served. Gladioli from the garden of Mrs. George Wharton were used about the room while arrangements of summer flowers were used in the shadow boxes, which were done by Mesdames O. Gosnell, P. E. Beaver, J. M. Boyles and George Burt.

Mrs. Earl Biele received the guests. Mrs. George Burt was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Foster Butler presented a corsage to Mrs. Houck. Acting as hostesses for the affair were Mrs. R. L. Whipple and Mrs. Marshall Haughton.
